Gala Parties Note Birthdays of Martinez Twins, Jeffrey Lewin

By Agnes Moseley FR 5-4304

Jan and Joan Martinez celebrated their first birthday by entertaining 38 guests who dropped in at their home at 2221 Ellinwood Dr. on Saturday, Sept. 25. Besides many out-of-town friends who were present, Gail Lewis, Steven and Jon Hockey, Debbie and Jack Lanier, Gail and Linda Braun and Debbie Philbrick, who are Jan's and Joan's near neighbors, shared the festivities. The children ate birthday cake and ice cream under a colorful canopy of balloons and confetti. The twins' birthday cake was decorated with a toyland theme in which tiny figures of two girls were climbing a candy cane and playing with a teddy bear. Jan and Joan are the twin daughters of Mary Alyce and Michael Martinez.

Saturday, Sept. 25, was also the date of another fun-packed birthday party, that of Jeffrey Lewin, of 4605 Moresby Dr., who celebrated his seventh. Ricky Gomes, Mark Wilson, Donna Marie Wheelan, Larry Anderson, Kevin, Kerry and Kathie Faller, Roxanne, Neal, and Peter Hoffmann; Teri and Randy Woodard; Ricky Rich; Donny Rohweiller; Dicky White; and Jeffrey's sisters, Debbie and Heather, shared his birthday. Games such as dodder ball and pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey and story-telling occupied the children's afternoon until birthday cake, ice cream and sandwiches, nut cups and chocolate milk were served.

Eleanor Duffy, of 22418 Ladeen Ave., celebrated her 18th birthday on Sunday, Sept. 24, with friends Irene and Frank Martin, Beckie and Don Johnson, Florence and Wallace Reid, Bea and Harry Daniels, La Verne Baurman, Loristine Anderson, Birnie Wallace, Rick Hawkins and her sisters, Barbara and Kathleen Duffy. Eleanor's friends convened about 8 p.m. for a buffet supper of barbecued beef, baked beans, salad, potato chips, pickles and other relishes topped with a birthday cake.

Madge Graham, of 4710 Sepulveda Blvd., entertained 11 friends on Monday evening, at a plastics products party. Those enjoying Lorayn Lundbom's varied selection of kitchen wares and gifts were Mildred Muldoon, Marion Colby, Loristine Anderson, Isabelle Gaul, Billie Robertson, Janet Wood, Marjorie McCann, Agnes Moseley, Alma Kissell, and Betty Walker. Madge served her guests refreshing lemon chiffon cake, tea, and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Singer, of Brooklyn, N.Y., are guests this week, at the home of Sylvia and Herb Bramson, of 22413 Charlotte Dr. The Singers, who are Sylvia's parents, have two grandchildren at the Bramson household to enjoy. Maury, 3½, and Walter, 1½.

The E. W. Chatfields (Pat and Chat), of 22323 Ellinwood Dr., have figured prominently in the news this past week. On the local front, Pat has been selected section chairman for the Community Chest drive for Sepulveda Gardens. If you are willing to devote a few hours to a good cause, call Pat at FR 5-4228. The drive will take place on Nov. 4.

"Making" the national news broadcasts on Thursday, was Chat, who successfully sent his American Airlines DC7 down in Chicago after the ship had developed engine trouble. Although two tires were blown on landing, none of the 64 passengers aboard was hurt and, after changing equipment, the flight was continued to Washington, D.C.

Waleria PTA Making Plans for Paper Drive, Halloween Party

By BETTY MITCHELL DA 6-4438

With the start of the school year, it seems that everyone is settling down to their round of winter activities. Heading the list is the local PTA, which has already started several projects. The first paper drive of the year will get under way on Oct. 7, so start saving your papers for the cause. Work on the membership is also under way with the starting of the membership drive set for Oct. 4. Still another project is that of the annual Halloween carnival which the PTA sponsors here in Waleria. General chairman for the carnival this year is Mrs. Helen Herrera, of Newton St. First general meeting of the PTA will be held on the second Thursday in October, at 7:30 p.m. at the school auditorium. Introduction of the teachers will be made that evening, along with a speaker.

The JFF Club held its September meeting at the Recreation Hall last week. Mrs. Anna Laughridge presided over the gathering. During the business meeting plans were formulated for the annual Halloween Party. This year it will be held at the home of Mrs. Eva Kelley on Park St. The ladies welcomed Mrs. Barbara Carlson back to the club, after her trip to Europe. Mrs. Carlson has kept a daily log of her travels and presented a resume to the group. The Carlsons flew both ways on their trip, and were able to spend a longer time touring the continent for that reason. Her report was very interesting to all the group, and made many hope they would be as lucky in the future. After the program was over the members gathered around and played hunch for the rest of the evening, with Mrs. Kelley coming out high, while Mrs. Lorine Harline ended the game as low. Delicious ice cream and cookies gave the meeting a happy finish.

The general WSCS meeting for the month of September was held at the home of Mrs. William Burgener, of Neece Ave. The meeting was a combination birthday celebration marking the organization's third birthday and a business meeting for planning future activities, especially the annual winter bazaar which will be held the middle of November. Forty members were present to contribute ideas and suggestions, and later to bid on attractively packaged items during the birthday auction. Ruth Circle, hostesses for the night, served coffee and birthday cake for a fitting end to a very busy gathering. Mrs. Thomas Kirk, of Long Beach, was devotional leader for the evening, while Mrs. Jean Cramer presented six women in an interesting symposium for the program.

Guests at the Ralph Parsons home recently have been Mrs. Albert Hinds and Fred Kowler, of Long Beach, and Elaine Moore. They were guests on last Friday evening. On Monday evening the Parsons again entertained when the Ed Parsons, of Park St., were invited in for home made ice cream and cake. The Ralph Parsons live on Crickeewood St.

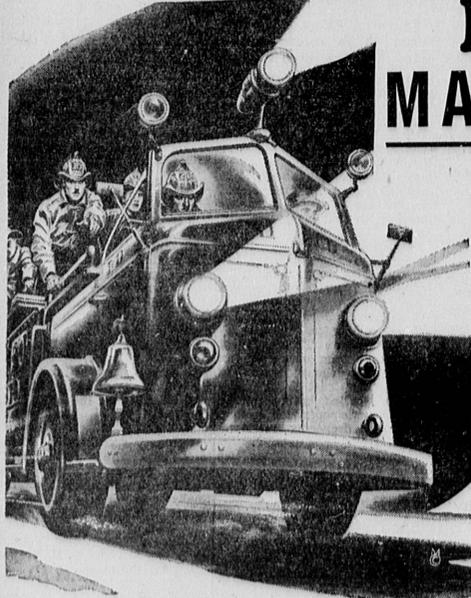

The smiling face of the librarian at the local branch library was absent for a few days last week, since she, Mrs. Mollie Dowd, was home ill with that old misery, the flu.

Mrs. Gerry Freels, of Danaha St., is recuperating after minor surgery was performed on her leg last week. Glad to see her up and around, and her usual cheerful self again.

Mrs. JoAnn Stark, of Danaha St., and her very young son Stephen are becoming quite accomplished travelers. This last week-end made their second trip in a month up to Fort Ord. Daddy Stark is in the army there. At any rate, the small family more than enjoys these brief visits. JoAnn was accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Stark, of Lomita.

The Girl Scout round-up, held Sept. 15 in Recreation Park, proved to be a huge success. Over 100 Girl Scouts attended besides guests, and 20 adults. The organization of the round-up was carried out by a committee of five including Mmes. Paula Brown, Lillian Dowe, Dorothy Bebbing, Alma Nannery, and Rowena Menger. The round-up itself consisted of a program starting with an inspiring flag presentation under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. M. Moton. Mrs. Robert Waagner led the singing, and then a short speech was given by Mrs. Menger, who is neighborhood chairman for the Girl Scouts. There is a crying need in our community for more adults interested in being either a leader, co-leader, or committee member for Scout troops. Two new senior Girl Scout troops have been organized, with Mrs. Carrell, of Winlock Pl., being a brand new senior girl leader. If any of you feel you would like to help in this important organization, why not contact Rowena Menger? She would be more than glad to hear from you. If any of you would also like to know more about Scouting activities and requirements, there will be a neighborhood club meeting open for the whole community and any adult who is interested, held in the recreation hall on Oct. 5 at 9:30 a.m.
