

Lomita Missionary Church Plans Parade to Begin Member Drive

Various departments of the Lomita Missionary Church are busy this week preparing for a Saturday parade, which will officially begin a contest to gain new members.

With the contest theme, "It's Round-Up Time," members of the church will try to get new members. Christian Life magazine is sponsoring a competition for Sunday schools throughout the country. Winners will be judged upon efforts put forth, and percentage gain in attendance over the previous year.

The parade Saturday will be in downtown Lomita, with floats built by various departments of the Sunday School.

OFFICIALS INVITED TO RECEPTION

Special invitations have been issued to city officials, local ministers, and pastors of Christian churches in the area to attend a reception from 3 to 5 p.m. this Sunday for Rev. Harry M. Sippel at the First Christian Church.

Officers of the Christian Women's Fellowship and presidents of the women's circles will serve coffee, punch, and cookies.

Class Begins In Episcopal Instruction

Episcopal instruction classes on faith, church history, liturgy, and worship will be given by Rev. Arthur E. Bello, rector of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, beginning this week and will be held every Tuesday in the rector's office at 8 p.m.

Confirmation classes for children will begin on Saturday at 9 a.m. at the church.

Lutheran PTA Plans Election

The Lutheran Parents and Teachers Association of Park View Elementary School will elect new officers following a family potluck dinner tomorrow night at 6 o'clock in the educational building of the Park View Lutheran Church, 14517 Crenshaw Blvd.

Mrs. Kathryn Carlson, of Lawndale, has been nominated for president, with Mrs. Betty Condie, of Redondo Beach, and Mrs. Arith Farris, of Lawndale, nominated for vice-president. Secretary-treasurer nominees are Mrs. Betsy Holveck, of Gardena, and Mrs. Marie Slavens, of Hawthorne.

Sunday School Seeks Members

A contest to boost Sunday school attendance 100 per cent has been launched by the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church under the leadership of Superintendent Carl Pisel, and children's director, Mrs. Pisel.

Using the theme "From Bathsheba to Dan by Bus," the contest was launched on Rally Day by Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Smith.

Attendance is now 35 per cent higher than last year. This Sunday, Rev. Walter M. Stanton will speak on "Workers Together with God," at the 11 a.m. service, with the movie, "The First Missionary Journey of Paul, Barnabas, and John Mark," shown at the evening service at 7:30.

A new department of audiovisual education, under the direction of Donald Jackson, will show the "Life of St. Paul" each Sunday evening through October and November.

In the morning service, Rev. John L. Taylor will speak on "Evanston—the Creative Use of Tension," giving his observations on the recent World Council of Churches.

Evangelistic Drive Will Start Sunday

An evangelistic campaign led by Rev. Jack Holcomb will begin at the First Baptist Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and will continue nightly through October.

"The Gospel in Sermon and Song" will be presented by Rev. Holcomb, assisted at the organ by Selby DeBelius, former staff organist at the Forest Home Christian Assembly.

Roy McKeown, director of the Los Angeles Youth for Christ and Regional director of the Pacific Southwest region of Youth for Christ, will be song leader.

All are welcome to attend the services. Rev. C. Miles Northrup has announced.

It is noted that this new arrangement would allow the whole family to attend services at the same time, and would relieve overcrowding 9:30 Sunday school sessions.

ADVENTISTS TO COLLECT FOR 'VOICE'

A special offering to support the "Voice of Prophecy" radio program will be collected this Saturday in the Seventh Day Adventist Church, according to Pastor Glenn L. Goffar.

Adventist congregations throughout the country are contributing money for the weekly broadcast, which is broadcast in 18 major languages and dialects on 800 radio stations throughout the world. It is heard each Sunday at 9:30 a.m. on Station KHJ, and is in its 25th year.

Mrs. Snyder Will Explain Mission Work

The work of the California Conference Missionary Society will be explained to members of the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church Sunday evening by Mrs. George F. Snyder, president of the society.

The California Conference Board of Missions is assisting the local church with the pastor's salary, and has secured the plot of ground upon which the temporary chapel now stands. A grant or loan for construction of a permanent building is expected soon from the board.
