Community Chest Workers Needed

With Community Chest teams in Torrance 35 per cent organized, 350 more workers are needed to complete the fund solicitation organization, Mrs. Ella Schwartz, city chairman, announced today.

The deadline for new workers is Oct. 20, she said. Many more workers are needed to complete the teams which will seek to collect the city's goal of $20,720. At present, 211 workers have signed up, she said.

The goal was set in order to be ready when the Chest drive begins Nov. 4.

Val Miletich, of 1566 W. 216th St., has been named vice-chairman, with Mott Farrell, of 1607 Cravens Ave., business chairman; Bert M. Lynn, of 1208 Greenwood Ave., advance gifts chairman; Mrs. Evelyn O'Hara, of 1615 Fern Ave., residential chairman, and Mrs. Murray Rudnick, residential vice chairman.

Division chairmen, who have completed workers' requirements include Mrs. Lena Howey, of Hollywood Riviera; Mrs. Opal Hoy, of 1655 W. 216th St.; Mrs. Robert Leech, of 905 Teri Ave.; Mrs. Robert Allred, of 1512 Crenshaw Blvd.; Mrs. Leah Johnston of 2828 Danah St.; Mrs. Robert Sleeth of 24261 Las Cadenas; and Mrs. Lois Sanders, of 17039 Delia Ave.

Strip Council Gets Word on Tax Methods

Fowler Jones, chief legislative analyst for the Los Angeles City Council, explained the various methods of taxation to members of the Shoestring Advisory Council when the group met Tuesday evening at Normandale Recreation Center.

Jones was introduced by Councilman John S. Gibson, and then went on to tell the city's sources of tax revenue in order to provide for civic improvements requested by the home owners.

Harold Unander, acting chairman of the Advisory Council, presided.

Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, principal of Halldale Elementary School in the Strip, made a request for a curb covering on which pupils could walk when crossing 212th St. and Normandale Ave. Slough waters block a portion of this crossing, which has become difficult for children to cross. A similar situation was remedied last fall at the Denker Ave. crossing.

Councilman Gibson reported to the group that he is attempting to secure a traffic signal at Carson St. and Denker Ave. Also reports were given on street improvements for the area.

Mrs. A. Dunbar announced that the children's Halloween party for the Center will be held Oct. 30.

Local Student Pledges

Alexander Bellehumeur, of 5117 Macaffee Rd., a student at Long Beach State College, has pledged Sigma Epsilon Chi, according to Dr. Karl A. Russell Jr., associate dean of students.

Sigma Epsilon Chi is one of three social fraternities on campus.
