

Roller Skaters, Charlestoners Show Stuff at Talent Program

By Adrienne Sidwell
DA 6-3703

The Girls League is to be heartily congratulated for the tremendous amount of work that they put in to make the Talent Show last Friday such a big success. It was one of the best talent shows in Narbonne's history! The show, under the theme of "Hawaiian Holidays," had many talented stars.

"Captain" Elmer Ellsworth was the master of ceremonies. The Las Juanitas really put on a "zany" skit. Geraldine Daniels, who won a beautiful roller skating trophy about three feet high during the summer, did a truly beautiful dance on roller skates. Roxanne Johnson and Jeanette Pearson did a real "crazy" Charleston dance with even crazier 1920 fashioned clothes. Rick Eckley did a truly remarkable imitation of comedian Jerry Lewis. Narbonne's proud "owner" of Bonnie Kuhn, a sharp looking hula dancer, who knows a thing or two about "hip movements." Myrlin Keller played a pretty tune on the accordion. There were many other acts, including a very talented acrobat dancer. The faculty skit, composed of the new teachers, left the audience in an uproar. It was simply hilarious! Both assemblies saw a good attendance.

A surprise birthday party was given for Carol May at the Officer's Club on Terminal Island last Saturday. The girls who helped celebrate Carol's birthday were Donna Beane, Paula Dixon, Gail Travers, Grace Leyva, Mary Boyer, and Sharon Anderson.

Rodell Decker and Gail Travers, along with Gail's family, went to the Pomona Fair last weekend.

Donna Beane and family spent a very memorable time going to Catalina aboard a snazzy yacht, not very long ago.

Voca and Ann Roberson and parents spent the week-end at Basow in the Mojave Desert. They reported that they had a "hot" time. The temperature was 109 degrees in the shade. Whew!

Narbonne was greatly honored last Monday by the visit of Miss Grace Kenny, noted hockey authority from Pennsylvania University, who is touring the U.S. giving free pointers on hockey. She visited the girls' physical education department during GAA period and gave invaluable tips. Ninth grade girls were also present. A bunch of Gardena girls came over for the lecture. The Letter Girls started selling cup cakes after GAA meeting. They will sell cup cakes after GAA twice a month on Wednesday.

Mary Lou Morales brought 203 pounds of rags and 50 feet of newspapers at the last paper and rag drive, which was the most successful in Narbonne's history. This is the third consecutive time Mary Lou has won a prize. For Junior High, Bonnie Licht brought 50 feet of newspaper. Both Mary Lou and Bonnie received student body cards free. For the award assembly, "Call Me Mister," with Betty Grable, Dan Dailey, Danny Thomas, and Dale Robertson was shown. Forty-six tons of newspapers and two tons of rags were turned in during the drive.

Richard Faulkner was officially installed as the Master Councilor of the DeMolays last Saturday evening in the Lomita Masonic Hall. A dance followed. Other new officers installed are David Shuler, senior councilor; Dale Howard, junior councilor; John Anderson, senior deacon; Sidney Martin, junior deacon; Leroy Griffith, senior steward; Ken Rohar, junior steward; Dale Franklin, scribe: Ronald Wallace, treasurer; Richard Jenkin, chaplain; Donald Wallace, almoner; Steve Saracco, marshal; Howard Hentila, standard bearer; Bill Wettengel, orator; Gordon Eisenart, sentinel; Mike Trantham, first preceptor; Bobby Bates, second preceptor; Pete Zankie, third preceptor; Billy Haslam, fourth preceptor; Tom Chapman, fifth preceptor; Bob Bunch, sixth preceptor; and Floyd French, seventh preceptor.

Gerald Burton, former NHS graduate, won a scholarship to Brigham Young University in Utah. Gerry will be accompanied on the trip to the college by Joe Hansen, a fellow graduate.

Jerry Moore, former Gaucha, won a $100 UCLA Alumni Scholarship.

Gary McPeak is now taking basic naval training at the San Diego Naval Base.

Larry Ashe is taking recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot in San Diego.

Gregg Hornaday, Leighs Church, Jack Mackey, and Paul Clines were part of the honor guard which greeted President Eisenhower when he appeared at the Hollywood Bowl a few weeks ago. Lucky guys!!

Ten new HLY members were initiated at Gonzales Spanish Food Restaurant in Wilmington recently. The new members are Joe Stitts, Tommie Robins, Denny Cox, Jimmy Wright, Roy Ruebel, Jimmy Williams, Gilbert Pike, Bob Kubo, Danny Martin, and David Cole. On Oct. 16 the club will ride over to the Hollywood Bowl for a National "Y" Day program, with Art Linkletter as master of ceremonies. Delegates from all over the country will be present. Mr. D. E. Livingston Little is the club's sponsor.

The Beckett sisters have almost completely taken over the reign of the Philharmonic Club, as shown by the club election results. The election saw Beverly Beckett elected president for the third time; Beverly Beckett, vice-president; Arlene Kohl, secretary; Patsy Beckett, treasurer, and Rick Eckley, historian-reporter, were named at the same time. Miss Alice Sturdy, club sponsor, wishes to extend welcome to all students who wish to join the club. Just bring your ears, lunch, and enjoy the half-hour program of music every Friday at noon in room 124.

Betty Beckett and Roger Hazher, a former Gaucha, have been engaged since June. He is now in the Navy. Good luck, kids!

Steve Saracco heads the Barrons, a tenth-grade honor service club, this semester as president. Other officers include Pete Zankie, vice-president; Wayne Miller, secretary-treasurer; and Jim Kaul, sergeant-at-arms. Other members of the club, which is sponsored by Mr. Jung, are: Bob Nelson, Bobby Brown, Jim Flagg, Jef Lenton, Kenji Matsumura, Ron Omohundro, Don Beets, Tim Bohannon, Ed Elliot, David DeFrance, Denny Fresenius, Bob Halverson, and Don and Ron Wallace.

The new officers of the Senior Scholarship Society were announced early this week. They are Rosa Duarte, president; Jerry Couiter, vice-president; Paula Dixon, secretary; Joyce Endo, treasurer; and Karen Nelson, historian.
