Plans Senior HS Day

An invitation to the first Stanford High School Day in Los Angeles Saturday has been issued to Torrance High School seniors, according to an announcement from the university.

H. Donald Winbigler, dean of students, and Peter S. Bing, student body president, will describe Stanford requirements at the Wilshire Ebell Theater, 4401 W. 8th St., Los Angeles, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

JayCettes Urge Heavy Vote In General Election, Nov. 2

A concerted effort to get Torrance citizens to "Vote as you please, but please vote" is being put forth by the JayCettes of Torrance, in cooperation with other civic groups throughout the nation.

Mayor Nicholas O. Drale yesterday proclaimed the week of Oct. 26 to Nov. 2 as a week to promote interest in voting—voting as you please—as he jotted his name to a city document.

Mrs. Fred Hansen and Mrs. Charles Herren, co-chairmen of the JayCette project, said that they are asking full cooperation from all voters to go to the polls at the General Election, Nov. 2. "We are proud of our city because of its tremendous growth in the past few years," Mrs. Hansen said. "But let's show everyone that the citizens in this amazing town are as interested in their democratic right to vote as they are in the expansion of Torrance."

"Exercise Your X" is the motto for the week-long campaign.

Valley Adult School Classes Still Open

Classes in flower arrangement, church general crafts, and novelty crafts are still accepting students. R. K. Lloyd, director of the adult education division of the Centinela Valley Union High School District, has announced. Further information can be obtained at ORchard 1-7541 or ORegon 8-1740.
