Mrs. Pat McCollum Honored by Different Type of Stork Shower

By VERA C. WRIGHT
FR 2-2288

Beth Morrison, of 4165 W. 173rd St., started a new trend in baby showers on Oct. 15 when she hosted the affair for her friend, Mrs. Pat McCollum, who was surprised to be the recipient of many lovely personal gifts for her very own. Her expected baby is to have the lovely baby articles worn by her two other children when they were tiny tots. Even at that, the baby will have more than it will know what to do with. Persons attending the special shower were: Mrs. Betty McBratnie, Mrs. Mabel Love, Mrs. Jo Skaggs, Mrs. Garland Festig, and Mrs. Lee Arensenmyer.

Lucky ladies were Shirley Phillips, Jo Nichols, Marilyn Clark, Virginia Grantham, Peggy Dotson, and Caroline Harrah, who were entertained by Jeanne Hoffman at her 3810 chalet with a party.

Bridge friends Enid Runsted, Virginia Kern, Dottie Hall, Louis Thompson, and former North Torrance resident Barbara McGeehy, now of Westchester, will make a pathway to the home of Mary Russell in Hermosa Beach, who is hosting their October bridge party.

Fort Worth, Tex., was never like this, claim Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Thompson Sr., who will vacation here till Christmas time with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson Jr., of 4323 W. 179th St.

Mrs. Carlos Espinosa, of 18545 Adie St., hosted a delightful little morning coffee gathering at her home on Oct. 20.

Mayor Brule and Sam Porter, regional director of The Little League, will be on hand Oct. 28 to orient all interested parents in the activities of Little League. Eligible boys are those between the ages of eight and 12, who live north of 190th St. You can become acquainted with the facts by being present at the Evelyn Carr School at 8 p.m.

Five-year-old Dannie Hoffman of 5816 W. 176th St., believes that if you can't go to the circus, the circus must come to you. It was with that in mind that his charming mother not only carried out the circus theme with balloons and favors, but supervised the "merry-go-round" cake which she had baked and was decorated by that pastry woman about town, Daisy Gayda. Pink lemonades included Cynthia Nichols, George Phillips, Steve Card, Terry Willey, Melody Waddell, and Kenny Clark.

New hairdo, pink cheeks, tri-figure and new styles always bring forth comment, and so it is that we comment on the appearance of the chic young matron in our midst, Mrs. Everett Carstrom, of 3754 W. 175th St.

I've never seen Miyeko Yokoyama or Mrs. Muramoto look so freshly happy, and they are really setting the pace with their up-to-date styles and their lovely hairdos.

Tickets for the Nov. 6 Fifth Anniversary Dance of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association are going fast. DAVIS 10640 is the number to dial and Gloria and Ev are the ones to order from.

North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn. will meet with members of the Planning Commission at a public hearing on Wednesday at 8 p.m. Under discussion will be the zoning of North Torrance. Muri Reeves, president stated that an effort would be made by the board to contact at least one resident from each block in North Torrance. McMaster Hall, 3916 W. 174th St., is the location.

Mrs. Vernon Burch, of 18205 Roslin Ave., hosted a farewell party for our good friend Mrs. Jerry (Mildred) Westmoreland, who is moving to Palmdale, where her husband's work has induced them to purchase a lovely new home. Her daughter, Mrs. Torrance, will reside in the Westmoreland homestead.

Tonight puts the finale on the company dinner being planned in the Glenn Blake home at 16825 Torburgh Ave. Claudine Blake and husband will entertain their guests while dinner is being prepared by a handsome gentleman and his companion. When it is ready, everyone will serve himself buffet style, and coffee and dessert will be served at everyone's place.

Woman Reports Boys Tampering With Mail

Someone tore her mail box off its post and threw rocks at her front porch, Lillian Lynch, of 25032 1/2 Cypress Ave., Lomita, reported to Sheriff's deputies Saturday.

Removal of the mail box followed a period when her mail had been torn, and the box filled with dirt and clouds, she said. After the rocks were thrown she said she saw two boys running away from her house.

Polka Band to Play At Lomita VFW Hall

"The Polkaaters," specializing in polkas, waltzes, schottisches and similar numbers will play on Nov. 13 and 27 at the Lomita VFW Hall, Commander Tom Jones has announced.

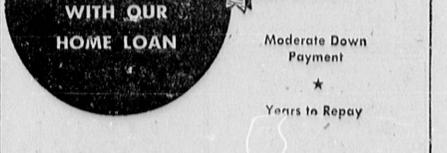

This is the first attempt to bring this type of music to the area, he said. A nominal donation will be taken at the door, with proceeds used for veterans' welfare work.
