PROBLEM DISCUSSION . . . Discussing problems of relationships between parents and children at the Senior Methodist Youth Fellowship meeting Sunday night will be Richard Streit, youth; Mrs. Ernest Bridgeman, parent; Gene Walker, moderator; Sharon Kirks, youth and Stan Roberts, parents.

First Methodist Parents, Youths To Join Program

Parents of members of the youth fellowship groups have been invited to attend church with their children at the 11 a.m. service Sunday, when the Rev. John L. Taylor will discuss "Youth and Their Parents." The family day will continue at 6 p.m. with a buffet supper, after which intermediates, seniors and the Wesley Fellowship will have individual programs. Later, all groups will meet for recreation, supervised by Pat Larson and Emil Settlege.

The Intermediate Fellowship will see a movie, "Youth and the Family," followed by a discussion led by Don Heath, counselor. A panel, consisting of Stan Roberts, and Mrs. Ernest Bridgeman, parents, and Sharon Kirks and Richard Streit, youth, will discuss mutual problems at the Senior Fellowship meeting. Gene Walker will be moderator. The Wesley Fellowship will have a round table discussion of problems of youth between 18 and 23, with Pat Larson presiding.

Catholics to Meet Nightly

The second and final week of the Nativity Catholic Church Mission will begin Sunday evening at 8, with Fathers Joseph Murphy and Edward J. Collins, Oblate missionaries, in charge. Services are at 8 p.m. each evening, with masses at 6, 7, and 8 a.m. daily. Sunday masses are at 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12:15. The object of the mission is "to give knowledge of salvation to His people unto the remission of their sins."

Non-Catholics are welcome.

DeRosier to Sing on TV

Ronald L. DeRosier, of 5714 Clearite Ave., will be a tenor soloist on the Church Talent Hour to be presented over Channel 18 this Sunday at 10 p.m., singing "Consider the Lilies." A member of the Lawndale Church of Christ, DeRosier has been studying at the Los Angeles Conservatory since his discharge from the Air Force. He began singing while overseas during the Korean War, appearing on club and USO shows. He now takes his singing lessons after working as an electrician at Douglas Aircraft.

Last Sunday, the First Lutheran Chancel Choir sang on the program.

Sermon Told By Rev. Cain

"A Greater than Solomon" will be the sermon topic of the Rev. George F. Cain at the 11 a.m. service of the South Bay Baptist Church Sunday.

At evening services at 7:30, he will discuss "What the Bible Teaches about Separation." Rev. Cain will begin a study of the Tabernacle at Bible Study and Prayer Meeting on Wednesday at 7:30. Work times on the chapel unit will be Tuesday evening and all day Saturday.

Hope Church to Start Building Program Soon

Hope Evangelical Church will be able to start building a new church soon as the result of recent gifts, the Rev. Homer H. Miller told the congregation Sunday.

He announced that denominational board of missions in Dayton, O., had agreed to loan $10,000 to the fund. Also received were gifts of $5000 and a grant for $12,000 from the Women's Society for World Service.

This Sunday evening Carl Lomas, senior major, retired, of the Salvation Army will be guest speaker. In morning services Rev. Miller will talk on "Putting on the Armor of God."

Major Lomas, a veteran of 21 years work with the Salvation Army and national chaplain of the Marine Corps League, recently moved to Torrance.

EARLY PROTEST

Abraham Lincoln's official protest against slavery was registered as early as 1837 in the records of the state legislature of Illinois.
