

OES to Hold Farewell Night Housewarming Honors the Sloneckers

Farewell Night will be observed tonight when Torrance Chapter 380 Order of the Eastern Star, meets in the Masonic Temple, 1521 Sartori Ave. Worthy patron Vincent Viellenave, will call the meeting to order at 8 p.m. and worthy matron Florence Viellenave will preside. Mrs. Edna Babcock is chairman for the social hour which follows the meeting. All members of the chapter and visiting members of the order are invited to attend this final meeting for the 1954 corps of officers.

Installation of 1955 officers will be held Saturday evening Nov. 20 in the Masonic Temple at 8 p.m. The ceremonies are open to the public. Miss Phyllis Pevely and Earl Wells will be installed as worthy matron and worthy patron for 1955. A reception will follow in the banquet hall for the newly installed officers.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf entertained at dinner at their home, 21804 Halldale Ave., on a recent Sunday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gustafson of Balboa, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carico of Los Angeles, Capt. and Mrs. Austin and family of Santa Barbara, Mrs. Donna Wolf of Santa Barbara, Bertha Elliott, Vertie Grimm and Bob and Judy Wolf, all of Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. William Slonecker, who recently moved to their new home at 3427 226th St., were given a surprise housewarming Saturday evening. Mr. Slonecker is an engineer with the Torrance Fire Department and the party was arranged by members of the fire department and their wives. The group arrived en masse and arranged the couple with gift of money cleverly concealed in an "old coffee pot" with instructions to purchase their own new coffee maker. An evening of games and refreshment was enjoyed.

JUNIPERO SERRA

MR. AND MRS. G. R. KALBFLEISCH
reside in Oakland

Adams-Kalbfleisch Nuptials At Trinity Lutheran Oct. 30

A formal late afternoon wedding ceremony in Trinity Lutheran Church, San Pedro, Oct. 30, united Miss Ruth Adams, daughter of Mrs. Ruth-Maines Adams of San Pedro and Norman Adams of Torrance, and George Randolph Kalbfleisch of Wilmington, son of Carl Kalbfleisch of San Pedro and the late Mrs. Carl Kalbfleisch.

Preceding the ceremony, little Denise Eschard, in nylon tulle, lighted the candles on the altar decorated with pom-pom chrysanthemums. Miss Lois Turner Faley sang the traditional wedding songs accompanied by Miss Dorothea Stewart.

Heading the bridal entourage were the bridesmaid, Mrs. Joanne Wayne of El Monte wearing pink taffeta and nylon and carrying a colonial bouquet of white carnations and pink roses. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Diana Eschard of Hollywood Riviera wearing pink taffeta and tulle. Her colonial bouquet was also of pink roses and white carnations.

Miss Anne Chapel was maid of honor, wearing pink lace and nylon tulle. The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. Her billowy wedding gown had a double peplum tulle skirt, fitted lace bodice and a standup collar. The appliqued lace veil fell from a sweetheart headpiece. White roses, stephanotis and lilies of the valley formed the cascading bridal bouquet. Rev. Melvin Andrews officiated.

Herbert Conrad, Kalbfleisch served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Peter Marouskas of Los Angeles and John Grafton of Inglewood.

Miss Eleanor McMillan was in charge of the guest book at the reception at which hostesses were Meses. Phillip Eschard, Dale Bailey and John Russell.

The bride was graduated from Banning High school where she was a member of the Girls' League, G.A.A. Scholarship society and president of the T.H.B. She was graduated from Methodist Hospital school of Nursing at Oakland and is employed at the Highland Alemeda hospital in Oakland.

Mr. Kalbfleisch is also a Banning High school graduate. He continued his education at Loyola University where he was president of the Chemistry Society. The bridegroom is now employed as a chemist with a large firm in Hayward, Calif.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Finton, 505 Cranbrook, entertained with a Spanish dinner at their home last evening. Guests invited to enjoy the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Anderson and daughter, Pamela, Mrs. Joseph Anderson and Bud Anderson.
