

Boys Still In Hospital From Hit-Run Accident Injuries

Still at Harbor General Hospital suffering from head injuries and possible internal hurts are two boys, victims of a hit and run driver, who were knocked off their bicycles last weekend.

Suffering a fractured collarbone and head injury was Larry Everett, 15, of 15827 Elgar Ave., a Torrance HERALD carrier boy. Everett was knocked 100 feet by the impact.

Treatment for internal injuries and severe lacerations was Larry Mainwaring, 13, of 14416 Palmdale Ave.

Police said a fast-moving car struck the boys and continued on its way. A witness was unable to get a license number, office's reported.

New Hospital Gift Revealed

With his gift this week of $1000 to the Torrance Memorial Hospital Building Fund Campaign, Sam Levy is also giving life membership in the Torrance Hospital Assn. to himself and the eight members of his family, including his three grandchildren ranging down to five years old.

After his gift was announced by Henry W. Creger, campaign chairman, Levy said he wanted to emphasize the great importance of building the hospital for the future as well as to meet its present needs. "The hospital was left behind during our generation," he pointed out, "because not enough people who were able to, were willing to support the hospital or take an interest in its operation."

In addition to Mr. Levy, the members of his family who will receive the life membership are his wife, Mrs. Frances Levy, their two married daughters, Mrs. Ella Schwartz and Mrs. Norma Green and their husbands, Eddie Schwartz and Harold Green, and the Levy's three grandchildren, Alan Schwartz, seven; Richard Green, eight, and Jill Green, five.

The Torrance Hospital Association is the governing body for the hospital. Members in the association elect the hospital's board of directors and are the only persons eligible to serve on the board which sets the policies of the hospital.
