City Workers Asked To Conserve Parking

City employees who drive to work have been asked to keep their autos off the main streets to help make more room for holiday shoppers.

In a letter to all city workers, City Manager George Stevens yesterday urged that employees cooperate with the downtown businessmen by keeping as many parking spots as possible open for shoppers.

Invited to attend the free classes which are a health education service of the County Health Department.

COUNTY TAX
HIKE SEEN

The current county tax rate of $1.77 per $100 of assessed valuation will be boosted by 25 cents if the Board of Supervisors continue their present capital projects program.

This warning was issued Tuesday by William A. Pixley, Chairman of the Property Owners Assn. of California's board of directors.

He pointed out that the supervisors are already committed to salary hikes for county person-
