By MARY and JACK WEBB
FR 5-3051

Boy Scout units of Hollywood Riviera, sponsored by the Sportsmen's Club, are readying their Christmas tree lot this week, according to Rex Hayes president. They will begin selling Christmas trees on Dec. 11, and continue until Dec. 24. Roy Nash, chairman in charge of the trees and lot, which is located at the corner of Elena and Ave. I in Redondo Beach.

Entire proceeds will go to the Boy Scouts, and Boy Scout Troop 718, Explorer 718-X, and Sea Scouts 718-S, White Scouts will do the actual selling, there will be adult supervision at all times.

Mrs. M. L. Barger, of 303 Calle de Andaluca, entertained at a dessert bridge party held at her home on Monday afternoon Dec. 6. Present were other members of Las Vecinas, including Mmes. Jack Pomeroy, Paul Roettger, Curtis Cool, Max Webber, William Manfrass, Charles Sturgill, Willard Wanke and the hostess.

At the invitation of Hermosa Beach Girl Scout Troops 85 and 11, Hollywood Riviera's Girl Scout Troop 110 attended a dance last Saturday evening at the Mack Malone Studios in Hermosa Beach. Mrs. Clifford Ferris, of 981 Calle Miramar, troop leader, and Mrs. Emil Huskamp, of 113 Paseo de Granada, attended, together with the girls of the troop. The dance was held to fulfill final requirements for the ballroom award badge.

Troop 110 is working for the badge and will hold its own dance in the future.

The girls of all three troops invited boys to attend the dance with them, and did various types of ballroom dancing such as fox-trot and waltz. Girls from Hollywood Riviera included Lyana Burman, Ann Davis, Jocelyn Ferris, Joyce Law Ann Farmer, Katherine Moore, Lynn Satterlee, Sherrill Smith, Jean Huskamp, Ada Dot Hayes, Sandra Kratzer, Adele Mullen and Linda Rutledge. Another member of the troop, Sue Dorsett, was not able to attend the dance.

Other plans for Troop 110 of Hollywood Riviera include attending a special showing of Cinema at Warner's Hollywood, to be held Dec. 28 for Girl Scouts.

The Junior Youth Fellowship of St. Francis Church of Palos Verdes was entertained last Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Holmes, 345 Paseo de Gracia. Co-hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Holmes' daughter Jane, and Mrs. Brad Davis and her daughter Ann, of 108 Via Colusa.

Twenty-four guests attended the affair. The agenda included religious instruction, and a question and answer period followed by games and refreshments.

Mrs. Holmes said this was part of the Junior Fellowship movement, the group meeting every other Sunday evening at a different member's home. The Junior Youth Fellowship includes teenagers of junior high age, while the church's Senior Youth Fellowship embraces students of senior high school age.

The group will meet next at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bart Bartanian.

Instead of their regular monthly meeting, the Hollywood Riviera PTA is planning a Christmas theme meeting at the school on Friday, Dec. 17. The theme will be "The Star that Still Shines," with special programs by the children of each room. Hosts and hostesses will be the children and room mothers. Time of each program will be announced by the individual teachers.

MORE BROKEN BONES DEPT.

How would you like to be a piano player, faced with a big playing date, and then break your left hand. Mighty frustrating it is to Mrs. Paul L. Bennett, of 716 Calle de Arboles, who broke her left hand Nov. 29 when she fell into the shallow sewer excavation trench in front of her home. She was scheduled to play for the Los Cancioneros "Sing For Your Supper" program held last Saturday evening at St. James Hall in Redondo Beach. She looked on while Mrs. Tom Mabin filled in as pianist for the group spelled by Mrs. Bill Beckman.

Mrs. Bennett reports that her doctor, Dr. Samuel Farber of Harbor Medical Center, figures it will be about a month before she's out of a cast.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Peters, long-time Riviera residents, have pulled up stakes. But they drove them back in just a few blocks away from their former 226 Calle Miramar residence. On Dec. 4 they moved to their new home at 425 Via Anita, in the new Hollywood Riviera Estates development.

Another move by Rivierans was that of Mr. and Mrs. George Stefan, formerly of 120 Calle de Andaluca. They too, moved into Hollywood Riviera Estates and are now at home at their new residence at 419 Via Mesa Grande. With them are their two sons, Vance and Keith.

Young Buddy Russell five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Russell, of 213 Calle de Madrid, is improving after a rush trip to the Children's Hospital in Los Angeles Nov. 29. Mrs. Russell reports Bud's bad case of group caused the quick hospital trip. Doctors immediately placed him in what has been named "Chicopetta" a machine to give the group victim oxygen.

Speaking of trips to the hospital, Mrs. Frederick Seaholm, of 221 Calle de Madrid, just returned from a trip to the San Pedro Community Hospital, where she underwent a major operation. She arrived home on Dec. 2 after a nine-day stay at the hospital, having been operated on on Nov. 24. Her husband, son Frederick, and three daughters Sharon, Susan and Sandra, welcomed her home.

Hollywood Riviera's Great Book Group meets Tuesday evening, Dec. 14, at Walteria Library at 8 p.m. Due to the holidays, the group will meet only once in December, reports Mrs. A. P. Stone, 454 Calle de Aragon, publicity chairman and secretary.

On the agenda for the December meeting is Plato's "Meno," which the group is reading and will discuss. Leading discussion periods are Mr. and Mrs. Steve Detzer of Palos Verdes Estates, co-chairmen.

Persons interested in joining the discussion group are asked to phone Mrs. Stone at FR 5-3349. She concluded by pointing out that while the group is limited to 30 members, the public is welcomed at any discussion meeting.
