

Business Phase Of Hospital Fund Drive Open

"Ours is one of the most important jobs in this very important campaign," Paul D. Lorange, owner of the Group D Business Committee, said. "Paul D. Lorange, owner of the Group D Business Committee, said. Paul Diamond of the Gay Shop head up in the Torrance Memorial Hospital Building Fund Campaign.

The Group D Business Committee began contacting the businessmen of the area this week. "Although this is an especially busy season for the men of this committee," Lorange said, "we all realize the extreme necessity of carrying our jobs in this campaign through successfully."

Diamond backed his fellow chairman by adding "Everyone of the businessmen on this committee knows the needs of the hospital and each of them is doing his best to correct the hospital situation."

Because both the committee members and the businessmen they will call on are busy, Lorange asked that the businessmen consider now what their contribution to the hospital will be.

"This will make it easier for the men of Group D to make their contacts more quickly, and without calling back on the men they are to see," Lorange said.

In addition to the co-chairmen, Diamond and Lorange, Group D Business Committee includes King Williams, publisher of the Torrance HERALD; Dale Isenberg, executive secretary of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce; Bob L. Haggard of Torrance Real Estate and Investment; Os-

Barricades Now Bar Horse Trail To Palos Verdes

Even horses are going to have a hard time getting into Palos Verdes now.

Workmen from that city arrived at a horse trail near the telephone company and Palos Verdes Blvd. last week and erected four gleaming white steel posts across a horse trail. Residents declared that the trail is unused by cars, and mostly by horsemen in the area. Occasionally, Edison Co. trucks use the trail to service their poles, they said.
