

Moves to New Offices

Commercial headquarters for General Telephone Company have been moved to the company's new building at 209 So. Catalina, according to H. C. Vaupel, manager for the South Bay Area.

Customer requests for telephone service, orders for changes in existing service or payment of bills will be received at the new address. The business office was formerly located at 102 Pacific Coast Highway.

PETE'S A PUZZLER... Pete the 'Possum was picked up loitering in a store on Carson St. this week, by a couple of merchants and 13-year-old Don Swanson. Here, Don scans the latest copy of the "Possum Preview" in an attempt to learn what is best suited to the palate of a 'possum while awaiting arrival of Humane Society men.

'Possum Nabbed In Local Store

Pete the Possum packs a peck of problems.

Because an opossum isn't supposed to be wandering around in a downtown store, even during Christmas shopping time. At least that's what Leonard Swanson, of 1637 W. Carson St., thinks.

He and a neighbor merchant found Pete floundering around in a variety store at 1633 Carson St. Tuesday morning, and called for help.

Leonard's 12-year old son, Don, gave a hand, and with the aid of a box, they cornered Pete. Pete's silent but vicious looking snarls crable time, but they finally tricked the furry creature into letting them corral him.

For the lack of nothing else to do with him, they put Pete

Allied Contest Judges Named

Mayor Nickolas O. Drale and three city councilmen will be the judges of the Allied Gardens Decoration contest which will be decided Wednesday night.

Joining the mayor will be Councilman Willys Blount, Mervyn Schwab, and Albert Isen. Santa also will visit the tract Wednesday night.

Judging will be held in three classes—religious, lighting, and children's. Turkeys will be awarded, to first prize winners with $7 and $5 grocery orders to second and third place winners, and a trophy for the grand prize winner.

Co-sponsors of the contest are Clark's Market and the Retail Businessmen's Assn.

Junior Ski Classes Planned by City Park

Signups are now being accepted for the fifth annual Los Angeles Junior Ski School from hardwood-slat enthusiasts in the 7 to 17 year old bracket, it was reported yesterday by the Los Angeles City Recreation and Park Department.

Boys and girls eligible to enroll can obtain official application blanks at all Los Angeles parks, and at many ski-equipment shops, or by sending a postcard to the Recreation and Park Department, Room 305, City Hall, Los Angeles 12.

Church Selling Trees

Christmas trees are being offered for sale by members of the Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church of North Torrance to augment their building fund.

Their lot is located at the church site, 3347 W. 174th St. In charge of the sale are Howard Black, Eddie Collins, and Clinton Beedan.

A BRIGHTER CHRISTMAS... As part of an art project, students in Mrs. Florence Klatt's fifth grade class at Carr Elementary School are making Christmas place cards for children in Torrance Memorial and the Orthopedic Hospital. The children decided to cut up old Christmas cards to make tree decorations. Snipping away are Michael Nickoloff, Elaine Dostrowski, Karen Kalso, Eddie Stanfield, William Hendricks, and Philip Lyberger.
