

Annual Christmas Program Set Tonight at Seaside Elementary

By SUE BURK
FR 5-4549
The Christmas program at Seaside Elementary School is scheduled today, with special entertainment by the Glee Club, under Mrs. Bridgeman, and a religious tableau by the sixth grade class.

The White Christmas distribution by the PTA Welfare Committee for those in need. Christmas parties are slated for each of the classes tomorrow, with visits by Santa Claus. Santa and his antique car won't make it to Seaside Ranch and Heights this year due to lack of interest. All donations received for candy will be returned. The committee thanks those who did contribute.

The program will be presented to parents and teachers at the regular PTA meeting at 7:30 tonight. Tomorrow, the children have been asked to bring a gift of canned goods or a toy wrapped in white tissue paper for the Christmas presentation, which have been doing quite well with their Christmas tree lot, located at Sepulveda and Palos Verdes Blvds. Ladies of the Scout Mothers Club have a Christmas sales booth, offering candy and cookies, wreaths, and jewelry. Among the prettiest of the decorations in the area are the lights and decorated tree of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilshire, on upper Zakon Rd.

The 24-hour flu bug hit Seaside with more than a record count. Down with the flu for the past week have been Larry and Mark Joseph Mitchell, Donna and William Earl Burk, Vicki Thompson, and Bobby and Sandra Johnson. Valine "Vicki" Combs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Combs, of 5251 Zakon Rd., is home again, enjoying ice cream and other "goodies" after a tonsillectomy last week. To improve her spirits, she has already received some of her Christmas gifts. The J. L. Bushnell family, recent residents of Seaside, are now living in Pasadena, Tex., and are the proud parents of twin girls named Mary Louise and Catherine Ann.
