

Local Women Participate In Y's 100th Observance

"Once in a Lifetime" was the keynote of the YWCA Centennial Brunch Monday, at Y headquarters in San Pedro. An enthusiastic group of members from the entire Harbor District gathered to receive inspiration and instructions at this kickoff which spearheaded the local observance of the one hundredth birthday of this organization which has served the women and girls in 66 countries. "The observance is three fold," according to Mrs. O. R. C. Grow, district Centennial chairman: 1, the dedication of members to the Christian purpose of the organization, 2, the strengthening and increasing of the membership, and 3, the raising of $5,000,000 in birthday gifts to be used as an endowment fund.

Scout Trails

In a candlelight ceremony on Friday, Jan. 14 at the YWCA, Girl Scout Troop 588 held a fly-up and investiture. The fly-ups Carole Giles, Susan Prout, and Georganne McLean were presented their wings by Mrs. D. W. Barnard and J. K. Clutter, leaders of Brownie Troop 631.

Also invested were Carolyn Stevenson and Donna Holquist. After repeating the promise, the new scouts received pins from their leaders, Mrs. Foeter Kelley and Miss JoAnn Weber. The troop is sponsored by Fern-Greenwood P.T.A.

Recently the Brownies of Troop 532 took a field trip to the Palos Verdes Bird Farm, at 4148 Pacific Coast Hwy. in Waverly.

The group, the newest sponsored by the Fern-Greenwood Ave. P.T.A. is under the leadership of Mrs. William Marleau and John Augenstein. Among the interesting birds viewed by the girls were a cockatoo, who has been in motion pictures. Numerous love birds, a bright orange canary, who, it is hoped, will breed a red bird in the future, and an African hornbill. There are chinchillas, tropical fish, and monkeys at the farm. As the scouts left a macaw waved and said goodbye to them.
