Many Travel to Mountains for Skiing, Play in Winter Snows

By ADALINE CORTEZ DA 4-6876

The snow on the distant mountaintops beckoned to many North Torrance families this week end. The Reese Holbrooks, 17512 Canine Ave., left Friday night for two days of skiing and winter sports at Blue Pines. The John Crains, of 3753 W. 171st St., with sons, Clifford and Billy, were at Mount Waterman on a spur of the moment week end trip, and the Russos, Holeczechs, found snow near Palmdale knee-high. The Fred O'Learys and Steve Bjorskis took their children to Lake Arrowhead where the children saw their first falling snow. The adults came back homesick for Ohio, but the children were delighted that they knew how to make ice cream of snow.

STORY OF THE WEEK: Jimmy Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allison, has been pleading for weeks to go to dancing school. Brother Johnny was just as determined not to go, while brother Jackie didn't care either way. When the day arrived for the lessons, Jimmy promptly lay down on the floor and stayed there all through the lessons, smiling at the instructor. Johnny wept large silent tears, and refused to speak. Jackie was the only co-operative boy in the bunch, finding it exactly to his liking.

Nate and Shirley Kamins, of 17004 Atkinson Ave., were surprised with a housewarming party by the Young Adults, their social group who arrived laden with refreshments and gifts of accessories for their paneled bar in the patio.

The Carl Fadicks, 17105 Glenburn Ave., bade goodbye to their guests of two weeks, the William Ackleys and their daughter, Sharon, who returned to Columbus, O.

The Ackleys had motored to California for the Rose Bowl game. Mrs. Ackley is a sister of Fadick's.

Toni Setting became a member of Troop 1715 at an induction ceremony held at the home of Mrs. C. H. Sewell. The new co-leader is Mrs. Marvel Walker.

Honoring her last day as den mother, Adaline Cortez last week received a gold compact, inscribed with the Cub Scout insignia, and accompanied by "adorably misspelled notes." The boys sang "For she's a jolly good fellow," and completed the celebration with ice cream and cake.

Pamela Warner was elected president of Girl Scout Troop 1371 at its meeting this month. Other officers are Sherry Barbieri, vice-president; Mary Louise Payne, secretary; Linda Fulton, treasurer; Sue Rogers and Barbara Giuliano, telephone chairmen and Donna Stoeckle, publicity chairman.

Cherry Wood, 4242 W. 176th St., invited friends from school and the neighborhood to her birthday and also invited their Vogue dolls.

Prizes were dresses made by Mrs. Wood for the girls' dolls.

Not to leave the boys out of things, Ricky Lightner celebrated his sixth birthday and invited all boys to his party.

Another six-year-old, Patrick Reynolds, of 4127 W. 175th Pl., celebrated with 20 friends as his guests.
