William Brodsky Seated as Head Of B'nai B'rith

William J. Brodsky was installed as president of the South Bay Area B'nai B'rith at a dinner meeting Sunday evening at the Western Avenue Club, according to Rabbi Alex Wiesel of Temple Shalom, chairman of the affair.

Brodsky will succeed Nor-Horowitz as head of the group.

Installing officer and guest speaker for the evening was Moe Kudler, first vice-president of District Grand Lodge No. 4, and past president of the Highland Park B'nai B'rith and of Southern California B'nai B'rith Council.

Other features of the Sunday evening program included an appearance by Pietro Gentile, nationally-known singing star who has appeared on radio, television, and in motion pictures. He offered a varied program ranging from opera selections to folk songs.

Featured at the piano, according to Rabbi Wiesel, was Matilda Barsha who has just returned from a tour as pianist with the internationally famous recording star Yma Sumac.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m.

Contest to Pick Mrs. Torrance Gets Under Way

Who will be the next Mrs. America? It may well be one of Torrance's outstanding homemakers, according to plans revealed this week. A community-wide contest will be conducted under the auspices of one of the city's leading civic organizations to select Mrs. Torrance has been launched.

Local homemakers, married, and 21 years old or over, are eligible to enter the 17th annual competition for the national title and more than $25,000 in prizes.

Advance plans revealed yesterday call for a series of elimination contests throughout the state, culminating in the naming of Mrs. California at a final contest to be held in Los Angeles in April. The state winner, with her husband, will go to Ellinor Village, Ormond Beach, Fla. for the national finals the second week in May.

Applications Ready

Torrance homemakers may secure application blanks for the Mrs. America Contest at their local merchants, appliance dealers, gas company offices, most supermarkets, and at the TORRANCE HERALD.

Sewers Set For 223rd St.

The need for frequent pumping and cleaning of cesspools because of the heavy clay and adobe soil in the area was cited as the primary reason for sewers on 223rd St., between Meyer and Vermont Aves., according to the board of supervisors.

The board set Feb. 15 for public hearing on the resolution, after receiving a report from Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, county health officer.

He reported that of fifteen property owners in the vicinity, six said they were having trouble with sewage disposal.
