BALLERINAS LAUDED . . . Those attending the benefit dance revue in the Civic Auditorium Sunday hailed the dancing of such young artists as Gale Stark, Judy Garrwood, Barbara Arnimstein, and Erlenee Saner. The show was presented by the Phyllis Moore Studio. A new studio will be opened at 4068 Redondo Beach Blvd. on Feb. 1.

Chapel Gets New Office

Charles Edward Chapel, Assemblyman from the 46th District, has been unanimously elected vice chairman of the joint interim committee on Marine Affairs and Bay Area Development, according to Sen. Arthur Breed of Oakland, chairman of the committee.

Senator Breed said Assemblyman Chapel has been appointed to this "important position because of his knowledge of boats and harbors and his hard work as a member of our committee the last two years."

One of Chapel's projects is the development of a small boat harbor at Redondo Beach. He has been active in the development of the Playa del Rey harbor.
