MRS. H. C. ST. MARTIN . . . Amid Antique Collection

Antique Collecting Hobby Makes Life Interesting at H. C. St. Martin Home

A happy life is a busy life and one Torrance family, the H. C. St. Martins, 1408 Beech St., needs no psychologist to work out their problem on how to make life interesting and happy. The entire family are antique enthusiasts and a walk through their home rolls back the years to an interesting Early American era.

Mrs. St. Martin is happiest working on antique furniture and has many thrills with her collection of old furniture, stripping it with a chemical formula and rubbing out the grain. As a result of this hobby her home is filled with furniture of beautiful wood.

Her bedroom takes on a Dutch provincial period. The poster bed has been rubbed with wax and the provincial chest is of the same wood, and an oval mirror with a wooden frame make an attractive room.

Dutch curtains add to the atmosphere. An election of officers was held with Mrs. Audrey Boland as chairman, and Mrs. Helen Davis as secretary.

The Girl Scout Cookie sale was one of the main features of the meeting. Mothers, who are willing to help with this project were asked to get in touch with Mrs. Davis or Miss Steele.

The qualifications of the girls to be sent to Glendore February 12, were listed. The committee to select these girls was appointed.

The next meeting will be February 24. Coffee and cookies were served to the following: Mrs. Helen Davis, Elmer Benschel, Virginia Skiles, Al Allen, Charles Logsdon, R. J. Burnes, John Boland, Jesse Pettit, Alvin Anderson, Clint DuBois, M. E. Cunningham and Miss Pat Steele.
