

Gardens-Plaza Mothers Spend Monday Evening on the March

By BEVERLY DYER
FA 8-1380

Fifty-five mothers in the Torrance Gardens-Plaza area voluntarily went out on Monday night to collect contributions for the March of Dimes. Mrs. Elbert Steele served as the captain for the Madrona School District, of which Gardens-Plaza is a part. The lieutenant assisting her were Mrs. W. D. Harlan from Torrance Heights, Mrs. Celia Van Anda, Mrs. Betty Muhleck, Mrs. Dorothy Hadley Mrs. Pat Fenton, Mrs. Joan Schmidt, and Mrs. Lillian King.

Last year, through the help of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Steele was given medical care, sufficient to overcome an attack of polio. She said she promised herself then that she would actively assist in any future drives that the Foundation held. This year she quickly volunteered as captain of this district. She also serves as magazine chairman of Madrona PTA and is an active member of the Church of the Latter-Day Saints.

During the week preceding the March of Mothers, Mrs. Elbert Steele entertained her father, Eral Henderson of Salt Lake City, Utah, who had just returned from visiting another daughter living in Hawaii. He and Mrs. Henderson had gone there to welcome a new grandchild. Mrs. Henderson will return sometime next month and will also visit here before returning to her home in Utah.

The Paul Haresteads, who live at 2849 Onrado, had as their dinner guests on Friday night Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes and son Patrick of West Covina.

Plans are under way for another big Homeowners Dance to be held on March 12 at the Alan-Richards Hall (above the bowling alley). It promises to be as gay as any preceding, according to William Swisher, who is the chairman, with the serving of a plentiful buffet, and dancing until 1 a.m. to the music of Ken Perkin's orchestra. The committee announces that with the price available there will be no necessity for limiting tickets. That means the entire area should turn out enmasse!

On Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Maurice Hatten gave a birthday party for her six-year-old daughter, Donna. The fine weather was conducive to yard games, with the usual prizes, and cake and ice cream enjoyed by the 19 guests. The guest list included these Tor-ranches: Steve and Craig Cahow Karen Clinkenberg, Bert D'Ornellas, Stephanie Capps, and Olivia and Mary Esther Origel.

Those coming from out of town were Gary and Neil Baker of Inglewood, Deldre, Stephanie, and Ricky Brooker of Los Angeles, Robert Coleman of Hermosa Beach, and a niece and a nephew of the Hattens. Kerri and Brian Hattem of West Los Angeles.

Mrs. T. D. Holland of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Holland and son of Maywood were Sunday afternoon visitors at kin home, 2830 Eldorado, on Saturday evening. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Klitzing, Pamela and Jeffrey; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harestead Curt, Greg, and Nikki; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelsey, Douglas and Dick; your respective writer and family; and the Ken Perkin family.

A neighborhood potluck was enjoyed by several couples and their children at the Ken Perkin's. A hunting trip to Lancaster was enjoyed on Sunday by the at 2842 Onrado.

Saturday evening guests of the Boswells were John Hud- the William Boswell residence at 2850 Eldorado.

Mrs. William Crooker went to Pasadena on Thursday to visit her mother, Mrs. Jeff Dickson, and her grandmother Mrs. William Nichols, both of whom were ill.

On Monday, Mrs. Crooker could be found lunching at the Statler Hotel with friends from Westchester?

Barricading Street Causes Arrest of 3

Sheriff's deputies Thursday arrested one Lomita and two Harbor City boys for barricading the street in front of Narbonne High School.

Gary E. Wayman, school official, reported that he watched the boys remove the barricades from a road project and place them across the street, near 254th and Walnut Sts.
