Mrs. Lillian Miller of Doris Way is home again from the hospital, where she underwent surgery.

The John Briener family, of Doris Way, may soon be leaving our community. John's work has taken him to Ontario. They will still own their home here and rent it. That way they will be coming back to see us.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Grey, former residents, were visiting in the area this past week. They now live in Hollywood.

Coughs and sneezes prevailed in the Gunther household this past week. Both Sharon and Patty, and their mommie Dorothy, have been ill with flu.

Mrs. Lola Richards, of Vanderhill Rd., is home again recovering from recent surgery. She had spent approximately two weeks in the Maglono Hospital in Long Beach. Visitors are welcome.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Panick, of Zakon Rd. over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Edmondston, now residing in Texas. The Edmondstons still own their home here.

Now on their way home to Arkansas are Mr. and Mrs. Lee J. Poor. The Poores spent the past couple of months with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jeff Poor, of Playa del Rey, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Burk, of Zakon Rd. in the Heights. Pappy Poor, an avid collector of antiques, at present holds one of the very few documents showing the ownership of slaves.

Enjoying the company of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nolan and friends, of Beverly Hills, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk and family, Mr. Barney Unrath, also of Beverly Hills, visited the Burk family during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Rinnsland, of Downey, spent Sunday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leonard and family of Zakon Rd. Another week visitor is expected in the Leonard household.

Visiting with Lillard and Laurence Thompson over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Will Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Walt Thompson and family, both of Venice.

Confirmed in the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection on Jan. 30 were Barbara Bielefalt, Paula Gill, Ruth Mozanti, Leonard Kissel, and James Lawrence.

Visiting in the James McClure home over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Rick D'Amond, of Culver City. At present the McClure girls, Margarette, Rosemary and Betty, are concerned over the loss of Miner, their pet cat.

Visiting in Keystone this past week were Mr. and Mrs. B. Frank Renz, of Zakon Rd. Mrs. Renz' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, reside in the Keystone area. Mrs. Parker is known for her work with the Fuchsia Society, having taken several prizes for her beautiful entries.

The people of this area really turned their pockets for the recent March of Dimes, giving a total of $72. That is a net increase of $12, according to last year's figures. Perhaps one of these days we will hit the $100 mark. Ladies on their toes that night were Mmes. Reid Shanks, Pete Calras, Jack S. Mitchell, B. Frank Renz, Dick Milanowski, Pat Brady, and James McClure. Joan Milgiano gave coffee and donuts to the girls after their walk.

Enjoying a wonderful potluck supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Milanowski the other night were Mr. and Mrs. Mel Fisher and son Dirk, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tinsley, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Meyers and infant daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Russell and daughter, Jeannie.

The presence of a superware party recently added gaiety to the 6207 Vanderhill Rd. address of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tinsley. Guests who enjoyed chocolate mint and white cakes with coffee were Mmes. Lonnie Crain, Leona E. Rodney, Sally Mertz, Ella LeVigne, C. W. Tinsley, Marion Ungert, Lois Crowe, Doris Tinsley, Diana Milanowski, Betty Mitchell, Lon Williams, Marie Tahan, and Rose Williams.

There will be a Parent-Teachers meeting at Seaside School tonight. The Los Canconeros choral group will present a few Jones reports results are showing in the first drill projects and the good behavior project. Bob Clary is the new vice-principal of Seaside. He taught in Kansas and Torrance schools before coming to Seaside. The band of Seaside School

The JFF Club held its monthly meeting at the Ward St. home of Mrs. P. C. Lassen on Jan. 25. Projects for a veterans' hospital and for a children's home were discussed. The ladies finished the evening over delicious pie and coffee. The next meeting of the club will be its Valentine party to be held at the recreation hall on Feb. 15.

Guests for dinner recently, were Mr. and Mrs. Don Dahl and sons, Ernie and Donnie, from Tuljunga. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Tucker, of Danaha St.

Fun and chatter were to be had over bacon, pancakes, and steaming coffee last Friday when a pancake breakfast under the sponsorship of Ruth Circles was held at the Ward St. home of Mrs. Hubert Rampley. Almost 30 ladies were served during the morning.

Little Anne Harner, of Danaha St., had a bang-up birthday party on Jan. 29, when she celebrated the passing of her seventh milestone. Guests at the party enjoyed games and refreshments, and each received an organdy apron as a gift along with fancy paper hats, blowers, and nut cups filled with nuts and candy. The party was on the valentine theme with the birthday cake done with white frosting (trimmed with red hearts and "Happy Birthday." Little misses gather presents concerts at Friday morning assemblies. These boys and girls have worked very hard to make themselves the best in any school around Torrance. Officers for the band are: president, Richard Powell; vice-president, David Pace; and secretary, Rose Ann Willis.

As reported by Mrs. Beba Drake, Boy Scouts of Troop 728 are very low in funds at the present time. To raise the treasury the Cubs will sell glazed donuts this Saturday from 9 a.m. until the donuts are gone. The next Cub Pack meeting will be Feb. 19 at El Retiro Park. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m.

ering round were Toni Pickering, Joady Larson, Juanita LeRoy, Jeanne Lupin, Colleen Kinnannon, Norma Ann Grant, Pamela Freels, Trudy Fitzpatrick, and Cathleen McFarland.

New neighbors in our town are Edward and Marge Jelinas and their two sons Gene and Eddie, who now live on Hawthorne Ave. They are from Worcester, Mass. Two weeks ago they were joined by Mrs. Jelinas' eleven-year-old sister, Mary Livingston, from Paxton, Mass.

Another new member of our community whom we wish to bid welcome is Mrs. Bessie Doy.

Garrett Named Honor Grad of Navy School

Marvin A. Garrett, machinist's mate third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Garrett, of 1150 W. 228th St., was graduated as honor man of his class Jan. 21, at the machinist's mate school, U.S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Ill.

Corporal Coberly Completes Service

Cpl. James P. Coberly, of 24255 Neece Ave., has been returned to Fort Carson, Colo., after a tour of duty in Korea and is now being processed for separation from the service, according to a letter received this week by Mayor Nicholas O. Drake.

Young Graduates from University of Redlands

Albert L. Young Jr., of 2624 Cabrillo Ave., was one of 67 students getting mid-year degrees from the University of Redlands Sunday. With a group major in history, English, and philosophy, Young received a bachelor of arts degree.

Mrs. Dymart has moved into her home on Danaha St.

A new arrival has come to Los Codong St. He is Gary Steven Ward, born to the Robert Wards. The little lad put in his appearance on Jan. 25, at the San Pedro Community hospital. He tipped the scales at 7 lbs. 10 ozs. He is their first child.

Doreca circle held its monthly meeting on Jan. 26, at the home of Mrs. Betty Chiudano, Crickwood St. Twenty ladies were present, with one guest, Mrs. Gertrude South, also enjoying the evening. Co-hostess Mariann Anderson served cherry upside-down cake topped with whipped cream. Devotional for the evening was led by Mrs. Gloria Rose.

Martha circle held its monthly meeting at the Danaha St. home of Mrs. William Mitchell. Eighteen members were present.

with Mrs. Bonnie Clark as guest. Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Jerry Cogan. Rev. Gene Gehres presented the devotional, which was followed by a discussion on the Christian family.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 1161, sponsored by the Walteria Business Men's club, had a good time on Jan. 29, when they had a picnic at Torrance Park. The girls prepared the meal unassisted by the accompanying adults, and all agreed it turned out mighty tasty. On the menu was potato salad, vegetable-beef bowl, mixed salad and dessert of gingerbread and applesauce. Adults with the girls were Mrs. Terri Matthews, Mrs. Wanda Howe, and Mrs. Warren Beadle. Dale Forenson helped furnish transportation.

Little Miss Mary Lou Beers, of Newton St., has learned that bicycle riding has its perils. She was riding her brand new cycle down the street when her foot slipped off the pedal and was planned between wheel and pedal. Result—one painfully broken ankle.

Mrs. John Monaghan, of Danaha St., wished to convey her thanks to the many who helped make the March of Dimes Monthers' March such a success here in our town. Lieutenants helping her were Mrs. Roy Cornell, Mrs. Wingard, Mrs. Thelma Bourassa, Mrs. C. W. Johnson, Mrs. Robert Cutler, and Mrs. Carl Cramer. Altogether this area contributed over $7000.

"A big glass of milk, I always say, is the delicious way, to get the zip at every sip... to make me "tops" at each game I play."
