Near 190th and Inglewood Ave.

The Little League is sponsoring a dance March 19 at the Elks Hall in Torrance in order to raise money for building up the new ball park recently donated by the Dominguez Estate. It is located on 190th, west of Inglewood Ave.

The league has four sponsors for the four teams. They are Higgins Brickyard, Clancy's, Border's Market, and Verburg's Dairy.

The next parents meeting will be held at Evelyn Carr Elementary School at 7 p.m. Joe Setling, president, invites anyone interested to attend or call him at DA 4-1062.

So far, 80 people have signed up as members. Officers are president, Joe Setling; vice-president, Ken McVey; secretary, Jack Langendorfer; treasurer, Bob Nelson; and publicity chairman, Johnny Miller.

The Brownies and Girl Scouts will hold their cookie sale this Saturday; the Cub Scouts of Pack 781-C will hold their annual doughnut sale and are counting on North Torrance to support them, according to Cassius Sewell, ways and means chairman.

Any girls of Brownie age interested in becoming Brownies, Mrs. Roland Stamm of 17509 Glenburn Ave. has leaders, sponsors, everything lined up. All she needs now are the girls. Gerry King and Pat Stamm will be the leaders and the Civics and Philanthropy Club will sponsor them.

Johnny Miller and Dick Ross, of 170th St., celebrated birthdays at Rand's Roundup and then spent the remainder of the evening with the Bob Taylor and the Martees at the Ross home.

The Hal Petersens, of 17002 Crenshaw Blvd., moved from their Torrance home to Pismo Beach where he will manage a grocery store.

Sunday is Heart Sunday and Mrs. Charles Even, DA 9-8328 and Co-chairman Ruth Miller, DA 4-8349, need volunteers desperately.

There will be a telephone and workers will then ring doorbells.

The Queen of Hearts, Patti Cunerty, ruled over her court of princesses at her third birthday party at her hearts and lace decorated patio, at 17039 Elgar Ave.

Cupids darted across the walls of the patio, and a huge red heart with "Patti" spelled out in the center, a valentine decorated cloth over the table, and valentine nut cups, and a heart-shaped cake completed the decorations.

Each guest wore a lace and valentine crown and received a toy wrist watch.

Present were Joy Jensen, Carol Wheeler, Peggy Bruce, Margaret Ball, Judy Trowell, Christie Borrelli, Terri Borrelli, Suzanne Lagubi, Laurie Philbrick, and Tina Cortez.

True to the tradition of the North Torrance Fuchsia Society, who gives the best parties around here, the Annual Charter dinner was a beautiful affair.

It was decorated in a Hawaiian motif, with leis at the tables for each guest.

In charge of the decorations were Helen Woods, Ruth Bruce, and Ilene Allison.

In charge of the good food, Mrs. Robert Payne.

The Paul Holmans of 17039 Faysmith Ave., held the monthly book party at their home and 12 couples enjoyed their barbecued hamburgers in the wee hours.

Guests were the Eric Merrys, Eddie Vaughans, Marcel Beaudoin, Roy Murphys, Harold Wrights, Roy Dudleys, Bob Cocks, Arnold Beaudoin, Walter Metz, Al Pesols, and Walter Smiths.

A novel idea in birthday parties was that given to celebrate nine-year old Roy Muse's birthday.

Guests were sent invitations to a Jalopy Party and they were entertained at the Garden Jalopy Races.

The Mothers Club of Girl Scout Troop 1295 met at the home of Helen Kohler, 3214 W. 176th St., to elect officers. Elected were Helen Kohler, committee chairman; Millie Mooney, transportation and telephone chairman; Evelyn Holechek, finance chairman; Joan Epperson, publicity; Dale Turner and Mrs. Al Pesola, leaders.

The Walter Metzkes, 17035 Faysmith Ave., have as houseguest, Mrs. Metzke of Quebec, Canada.

There was Do-Si-Doing and merrymaking at the Wendell Towell home, 17512 Emmanita Ave., when the Peter Bruces and Ralph Gastelums joined them in giving a Valentine party.

Valentine parlor games were played and square dancing was called by Bob Richter, were a prelude to the midnight buffet, after which more games were played.

Valentine decorations included cupids, beautiful and artistic flower arrangements in red and white, and balloons in the garage.

Present were the Ray Krumwiedes, Red Bramletts, Bob Watsons, Herman Cortez, Bob Richters, Al Bakers and the Joe Avalos.

The Albert Pesolas, 17030 Faysmith Ave., spent the week end at Borrego Springs basking in the sun and on their way back stopped at Idyllwild to play in the snow.

Jerry Bronson, of 17229 Atkinson Ave., received a clever compact from husband, Walt, who is in Las Vegas, with a dice set in the center.
