

SCOUT TRAILS

The first Court of Honor was held recently by Boy Scout Troop 728, sponsored by Fern-Greenwood PTA. The flag ceremony and pledge of allegiance preceded introductions. Chuck Litaker, scribe and master of ceremonies, introduced honor guests: Hal Laudeman, area commissioner; John K. Eardley, neighborhood commissioner; and Kenneth Leatherman, Harbor District training chairman, who gave a short talk on "What Scouting Means." He mentioned that "in later years, the Scout uniform is worn on the inside, not the outside."

Ben Jones, troop committee chairman, introduced Mrs. Murphy, Fern-Greenwood PTA president, and committeemen: Paul Narverson, secretary; Earl P. Miller and Perry L. Connert, treasurer and finance; Gordon D. Arrowsmith and Bill Fulton, advancement chairman; and David R. Cooper, institutional representative.

Herman Goodman, Scoutmaster, related the troop's progress mentioning that the Scouts have enjoyed ten outings and the troop is less than a year old. Demonstrations of "blanket carrying," methods of transporting others, and "how to treat for shock" were given by Scouts from various troops. This was followed by a Scout quartet singing "Randolph, the Bewegged Cowboy."

Highlighting the evening was the presentation of "second class" badges by John K. Eardley, neighborhood commissioner, to the following Scouts: Larry Arrowsmith, Richard Augenstein, Billy Barton, Charles Bowers, Richard Connert, Mike Derouin, Pat Derouin, Danny Fulton, Robert Jones, Charles Litaker, Earl Miller, James M. Oddy, Ronald Pennington, Kenneth Smith and Leroy Woods.

Refreshments followed the retiring of the flag. Gordon Arrowsmith, advance chairman, assisted by Bill Fulton, attended to all arrangements for this Court of Honor.

Den 7 closed the meeting with an historic skit on the Driving of the Golden Spike in Utah.

On Jan. 22, the pack visited Travel Town in Griffith Park and after lunch in the park the boys rounded out the day with a tour through the Griffith observatory. The blue and gold banquet will be held Feb. 26.

A blue and gold potluck dinner will be held at the Fern Ave. School cafeteria on Feb. 25, Friday evening at 6:30 when troop 728 Cub Pack meeting will be held.

Troop 728-Cub Pack Den Mothers decided this at their meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Geza E. Orley, 1309 Cranbrook.

Girl Scout Troop 1719, which is divided into 3 groups, had one of the patrols under the leadership of Mrs. R. G. Coleman, plan and execute a 6-mile hike to Redondo Beach and back on Saturday, Feb. 5. The scouts carried a nose bag lunch and picnicked on the sand then took in the pier before returning home.

The young hikers, who are under the sponsorship of Torrance Mounted Police, included Jan Planz, Janet Coleman, Sandra Baker, Linda Rowe, Jo Beth Jackson, and Judy Bishop.

Mrs. Walter Mack accompanied Mrs. Coleman and the girls. Jo Beth Jackson and Linda Rowe will join other scouts on Saturday, Feb. 12 and explore Glendora, a campsite purchased from proceeds from the annual cookie sale which begins on Feb. 18 to 26.

Mothers of Troop 1731 met Feb. 7 to form a Mothers Club at 3402 W. 130th St. The group discussed the cookie sale and the summer camping trip. Mrs. Alice Erdman was elected president, and Mrs. Patricia Pappas, secretary.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Alice Erdman, Patricia Pappas, Margaret Watts, Guss Johansson, Mary Logsdon, Margaret Pettit, Pauline Smith and Avis Hook. Cake and coffee were served.

Brownie Scout Troop 463 held an investiture at the North Torrance School Feb. 10.

The girls, in a horseshoe formation, presented the colors and sang the Brownie song. Making the Brownie promise and receiving their pins were Nancy Allen, Michele Chance, Christine Ewart, Sherry Hanson, Joyce Johnson, Wand Johnson, Peggy Knight, Connie Manahan, Maureen McLaughlin, June Rabner, Linda Saunders, Marlene Semmlik, Jeanie Stocks, Mickey Harris, Sandra Oslin and Carol Marone.

Mrs. Dan Saunders and Mrs. Frances McLaughlin, leaders, presented the pins.

Parents of the members of the troop, which is sponsored by the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn., attended the meeting and were served cookies and punch.

On Saturday, Feb. 12, the long-awaited trip of the Girl Scouts of the Harbor area to their campsite at Glendora was held. The girls of Torrance boarded the bus and were on the way at 8:30 a.m. from the YWCA. Forty-seven Scouts, two senior Scouts and five adults represented the local area.

Connie Walton was in charge of the program at Glendora which began with a flag ceremony. Vicki Hinshaw was the other senior Scout to come from Torrance.

Enroute two intermediate Scouts from Troop No. 1719, Jo Beth Jackson and Janet Coleman taught songs to pass the time away.

The group toured the camp with other Harbor Scouts and were enthused over the camp, and will take back to their troops a vivid description of what the cookie sale has made possible to Girl Scouts of the County.

The local adults participating were Mrs. E. Carl Osterlind, Harbor finance chairman; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Walton, Mrs. Ted Arup, Mrs. A. J. DeFelds, Mrs. Paul Albright Jr. and Mrs. W. W. Jackson.

On Tuesday, Feb. 15, the girls of Scout Troop 416 under Paula Blankenship, president and Patricia Woodman, secretary were in charge of their troop's Court of Awards at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church when 66 badges were given to the troop.

The refreshments were taken care of by the girls whose birthdays are between the months of July and December.

Under the guidance of Leaders Mmes. Walker Mathlin, E. M. Dilkus, and Harold Woodman, Scouts Edith Bischof, Blankenship, Susan Stamps, Virginia Krauser, Linda Baker, Sharon Ricci, Rita Bacon, Linda Grubb, Carolea Mathlin and Geraldine Dilkus served three cakes, punch and coffee to the guests.

The girls also brought their money for the Juliette Low Memorial Fund.

Also present at the ceremony from 4 to 5 p.m. were Linda Williams, Lynn Barrett, Grace Connert, Denise Hunter, Karen McTea, Susan Sparks, Roxanne Barnard, Joann Portlock, Sheranne Miller, Mary Ellen Jack, and Debbie Hasler.

The Scouts sponsored by the church have also begun swimming lessons at the YMCA in San Pedro on Saturdays.

An opportunity to get acquainted with their sponsors resulted in an evening of fun on Feb. 10 at 7:30 o'clock for Girl Scout Troop 1719 and the Torrance Mounted Police. The group is divided into three patrols and each helped to make the evening a success at the Civilian Defense Bldg.
