

Various Diseases Confine North Torrance Kiddies to Their Beds

By ADALINE CORTEZ

James Spence, of 17504 Cerise Ave., lost a finger while working with an electric shaper saw.

He has been on sick leave for a week since the accident.

Stubbornly haunting north Torrance, the flu, mumps, chickenpox and measles are making the rounds.

Little Virginia Sewell has just recuperated from mumps. Nancy Ruoff still has them. Tommy Stauffer gave his mother, Charlotte, the chickenpox. Michael Tardagulla also has the mumps.

The Fuchsia Society bowling team has two new members, Sylvia Payne and Evelyn Cook. They did so well last week that they are inviting all members to the Gardena Bowling Alleys to watch them and render moral support.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Payne attended the Valentine party of the Mariners Club, which they have recently joined.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sale, of 17502 Almsworth Ave., attended the engagement party of one of their friends' daughter in Inglewood.

The John Oses, of 17403 Glenburn Ave., have entertained Millie's parents, the Charles Johnsons of Burke, S. D., and John's mother, Mrs. Gus Oses of Herrick, for the past week.

The Ralph Gasteloms of 17607 Ermanita Ave., decided on the spur of the moment to take off for the week-end, spending the night at Fallbrook, and next day motoring to Idyllwild.

All this happened after they attended the Standard Oil Co.'s dance at the Naval Base, Terminal Island, with the Joe Fletchers.

Tonight Boy Scout Troop 761 will hold its Court of Awards at 7 o'clock at McMaster Park. Scoutmaster John Miller urges all parents to attend with their sons as they receive their honors.

Diane Lutz, daughter of the Weldon Lutzes of 16920 Almsworth Ave., celebrated her eleventh birthday with a party that her friends will long remember.

Table appointments were carried out in red and white. Dorothy Roberts, Cheryl Sale, Linda Grace, Charlene Sileo, and Catherine Vendor played games, went on a scavenger hunt, and after cutting the cake ended the evening with the inevitable "Pop."

Gary Holbrook, of 17512 Cerise Ave., held a luncheon to celebrate his fourth birthday with friends.

Robbie Stevens, Paul and Tuck Schoendienst, Duke and Tina Cortez, Kathy Spence, Bobby Davies, Joey Fletcher, Johnny Ruoff, Mark Hibbert, and brother Brock, were those present.

Bobbie Seetz, of 17608 Patronella Ave., celebrated his ninth birthday with a party.

The John Ferralolas, of 2620 W. 175th St., gave a party for Coren on her third birthday. She recovered from a tonsillitis just in time for the big day. Fifteen children played under the balloon trimmed umbrellas in the patio.

Cassius Sewell and H. R. Black were guests of honor at a party held in the cozy atmosphere of the Verburg rumpus room Saturday night by members of the Cub fathers committee of Pack 761-C and their wives.

Sewell received a long-playing record, and Black was given a gold statuette. Herman Cortez, committee chairman, made the informal presentation.

Guests enjoyed old and new parlor games, the hokey pokey, bunny hop, not to mention the polka-ing of new enthusiasts Eleanor and "Blackie," and the ballerina, Margaret Donnelly.

Chili beans, tossed salad and garlic bread were served.

Present were the Ben Bensons, R. Gladdy, R. Blacks, G. Sewells, W. Bronsons, F. Carlstroms, G. Cunnertys, Bob Donnellys, J. Millers, R. B.

Burke, A. Porters, and J. H. Cortezes.

The Stitch and Chatter Club met at the home of Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, 2612 W. 175th St., with new president Mrs. Cecil DeLange, presiding.

Former president, Mrs. Cecil Stevens, has moved with her family to Lancaster.

Bryan Collects Twice
Stan Bryan really connected and came home with the loot in the weekly Sweeper tourney at Torrance Bowl. Teamed with Jack Harris, the pair rolled a 1358 series to cop the week's bowling and netted themselves $32.

Then Stan got together with Bruce Simpson and turned a 1243 series for second place. They split $21 for this effort.

YOUNG THESPIANS SOUGHT FOR PLAY
The Torrance Theater Guild, (teen-age drama society) sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, will produce two plays in June, officials said Friday.

Casting for the plays—"Sunday Coats Five Pesos" and "The Vaillant"—will continue for the next three weeks. All actors between 16 and 20 who are interested should apply in person Wednesday night at 7:30 at the Civic Auditorium.
