

Elbert Steele Installed as Bishop of Latter Day Saints

By BEVERLEY DYER
FA 8-1880

Elbert Steele, of 1329 Florwood, was installed as Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints on Feb. 20. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Steele Sr. of Salt Lake City, came for the occasion. Mrs. Ruby Henderson, Mrs. Steele Jr.'s mother, was also here enroute home to Salt Lake City after a visit in Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Meyers of 920 Felbar, entertained at a cocktail party preceding the Leontyne Price concert at the Civic Auditorium. The group of friends who enjoyed their hospitality, before proceeding to the concert, were: Mrs. Mohr, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly, Mrs. William McDade, Mr. and Mrs. Woody Strohm and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, Mrs. Lillian Hagenbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson, and Meyers' mother who is visiting here from Minnesota.

Due apologies to Mrs. Thomas Smiley and her co-leaders of the Girl Scout Troop 1719, Mrs. William Breaker of 821 Terrell, and Mrs. Thomas Coleman of the CCMO Tract. It was the Coleman patrol from this troop which experienced the six-mile hike to Redondo Beach two weeks ago under the leadership of Mrs. Coleman, and not the girls from Troop 1293.

On Wednesday, the mothers and the girls in this troop met at the First Christian Church to help the girls make their pack-sacks. Mrs. Smiley, troop leader, says that the girls are accumulating their camping and hiking equipment by preparing many of their own supplies with the assistance of their parents. They were entertained in the afternoon by an instrumental trio composed of Judy Clements, Mary C. Smiley, and Pat King.

Sickness seems to pervade the area. Chuckie Osterlin contracted the measles just as his sister, Carla, recovered sufficiently to return to school.

Dougie Baker, of 2853 Orando Ave. is now recovering at home from a bout with pneumonia.

Mrs. Al Armistead, of 2759 Orando, is up and about again after a recent trip to the hospital.
