

Winther - Shanklin Nuptials Read In Impressive Candlelight Ceremony

White gladioli, carnations and stock flanked with white candles decorated the First Lutheran church on Friday evening Feb. 25 for the wedding ceremony in which Miss Carol Sue Winther became the bride of Robert S. Shanklin. The Rev Paul Wenski, church pastor, officiated.

Mrs. Ray White at the organ provided a medley of nuptial music as the wedding

DETROIT GUESTS

Arriving tomorrow from Detroit, Mich. are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rehner, who will be guests of Mr. Rehner's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sleeth, of 1616 Post Ave. This is a combined business and pleasure trip, as Mr. Rehner, sales manager for a Detroit firm, will also attend a meeting at the Statler Hotel. They will be here for two weeks.

HERALD ARRIVAL OF FIRST SON

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Crawford, 2064 W. 220th St., are heralding the arrival of their first child, a son, born Sunday morning, March 6, at the Torrance Memorial hospital. The young man, who tipped the scales at 7 1/2 pounds, has been named Frederick James. His father is on the advertising staff of the TORRANCE HERALD.

guests gathered. Don Ogren sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because" accompanied by Mrs. White.

Entering the church first were Miss Janet Seese and Miss Marilyn Specht, bridesmaids. Miss Seese wore a pink net and tulle ballerina length gown and carried red roses encircled with white carnations. Miss Specht was in pale green net and her flowers were also red roses and white carnations.

Next came the maid of honor, Miss Merle Ann Winther, sister of the bride. Her gown was of poudre blue net and tulle fashioned with a bouffant skirt and made ballerina length. Her bouquet was made of white carnations surrounding red roses.

Then came the bride on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She was beautiful in Chantilly lace and nylon tulle made with a long torso bodice of lace to which was attached the full tulle skirt. Her illustrious veil was held by a semi-crown of starched lace. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids and carnations.

They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Larry Good. Ushers were Jess Shanklin and Blaine Winther. A reception in the church hall followed the wedding and the couple spent a honeymoon in Laguna Beach and Balboa. They are now at home at 1054 Gardena Blvd., Gardena.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Winther, 3580 W. 182nd St., was graduated from Torrance High school. Mr. Shanklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shanklin, 4320 W. 182nd St. was also graduated from the local high school. He is now employed in the laboratory of a chemical company.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Buxton entertained at a family dinner honoring their grandson, Jim Scott, who was celebrating a birthday. Jim is a sophomore at UCLA. Attending the dinner were the guest of honor's mother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Everett of Fresno; his twin brothers, Charles and Richard Scott, who are attending Brown's Military School in San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schlick and daughter Sandra, of Temple City; and Conrad Schlick. Sandra attends Brown's Girls School and Conrad is a student at Brown's Military Academy.

An interesting visitor to the club was Mrs. Pamela Grubb, who displayed an array of casual, luncheon and cocktail hats made at her school. Mrs. T. McMichael and Mrs. W. Rehwoldt, students of Mrs. Grubb, acted as models.

Dainty tea sandwiches and cookies were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT SHANKLIN
... Leaving the Altar

Buxtons Home From Cruise Of Caribbean

Mr. and Mrs. Bronson Buxton, 1500 El Prado, have returned from a delightful six-weeks trip which included a Caribbean cruise. The couple left the San Diego Harbor aboard the "Tradewind," enjoying stops at Acapulco, Balboa, Panama City, through the canal to Colon, Cristobal and Cartagena, Colombia in South America. Then the Netherlands, West Indies, Kingston, Jamaica, and Haiti. Their next stop was Havana, Cuba, where they spent a week. From Havana the local travelers went by plane to Miami, Fla., and from their headquarters toured the state of Florida.

They then traveled by plane west to New Orleans, where they participated in Mardi Gras festivities before taking a plane for California. Highlight of their cruise was the captain's dinner.

Bill Woodbine of Sun Valley spent the week-end here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Benstead at their Beech Ave. home. The visitor and Mr. Benstead had attended school together in Redondo Beach as youngsters. This was their first time together in almost 30 years.

SCHOOL FRIENDS

Bill Woodbine of Sun Valley spent the week-end here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Benstead at their Beech Ave. home. The visitor and Mr. Benstead had attended school together in Redondo Beach as youngsters. This was their first time together in almost 30 years.

Mrs. Evans is Honored on 80th Birthday

Mrs. Grace A. Evans, of 1629 Fern Ave., who has been a resident of Torrance for more than 30 years, was complimented at a surprise birthday party on her 80th birthday March 4. The party was given by Mrs. T. J. Simonson, of 1610 Greenwood Ave.

The honoree was presented with birthday gifts and a beautifully decorated birthday cake which was served with ice cream.

Guests at the party with the hostess and honoree were Mrs. E. Meyer and Larry, Mrs. M. McCabe, Mrs. R. Gilbert, Mrs. J. C. Meyer and Garry and Jerry.

Younger Set Entertained

Pat and Mike Derouin were hosts at a teenage party Saturday evening. The rumpus room of the Derouin home was decorated with balloons and St. Patrick's motif. The group enjoyed dancing and games followed by refreshments.

Guests included Dailne Good, Denise Hunter, Diane Hunter, Beverly Shannon, Carol Spadafora, Karen Davenport, Janice Brooks, Myra Pitts, Diane Cook, Sharon Rice, Sue Foster, Donna Ritchie, Diane Shadduck, Donny Baker, Danny Fulton, Daryl Kelly, Charles Grayson, Joe Grego, Tom McMaster, Tom Sass, Rusty Roberts, Richard Johnson, Dal Derouin and hostess Pat and Mike Derouin.

Blakley Home Party Scene

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Blakley, of 2516 Sierra, entertained with a potluck dinner Saturday evening. Following dinner, movies of the group's recent trip to Snow Valley were shown.

Guests included Dr. and Mrs. Philip Halloran, Dr. and Mrs. Burton Basley, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Grubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. Parke Montague, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levy.

SGT. DEAN VISITS FAMILY HERE

Sgt. Leland W. Dean has returned to Washington, D. C. after a three-day visit here with his wife and four months old daughter Janet, who are on an extended visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Dean, 2564 Torrance Blvd., parents of the Air Force sergeant.

Dean, who is stationed at Bolling Air Force Base at the nation's capital, has served seven years in this branch of the service.

The Hi-Liters will meet Tuesday evening, March 15, at the home of Mrs. Robert Ledwidge at 7:30.

PATRICIA WARNER
... May Bride

Warner - Spangler Wedding Is Scheduled for May 15

May 15 has been selected as the date of their wedding by Miss Patricia Louise Warner and William R. Spangler. The formal wedding will be solemnized at the First Lutheran Church in Torrance.

Miss Warner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Warner, of 16229 Chicago Ave., Bellflower. She was graduated from the Franklin High School in Highland Park in June, 1952.

Mr. Spangler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Spangler, 1965 218th St., Torrance. He was graduated from the Torrance High school in June, 1947.

Miss Warner has announced that Miss Margery Mann and Miss Gail Cook will serve as her bridal attendants.

MR., MRS. LARRY CARTER
... Cutting the Cake

Club Enjoys St. Pat Party

Members of the Saturday Afternoon Bridge Club enjoyed a St. Patrick's party at the home of Mrs. Velora Murphy, 1308 Greenwood Ave. The St. Patrick's motif was carried out even to the corned beef and cabbage for luncheon.

Guests enjoying the festive affair were Meses. Ann Sorenson, Lillian Turnipseed, Irene Hopkins, Dorothy Marshall, Gladys Gibson, Lola Laudeman, and Eleanor Hughes.

Prizes were won by Lillian Turnipseed, Velora Murphy, Irene Hopkins, and grand-slam prize was won by Eleanor Hughes.

ON HONOR ROLL

Barbara Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jackson of Redondo Beach, formerly of Torrance, was among the 43 students who earned 4-point grade averages during the fall semester at Willamette University at Salem, Ore.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boulter entertained with a potluck dinner and bridge party Saturday evening at their home, 1318 Kornblum.

Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Work (Nancy Whyte), Dr. and Mrs. Albert Wheelan, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shaw.

Couple United in Lovely All-Pink High Noon Rites

An all-pink color theme was used at the high noon wedding last Saturday, March 5, at the First Baptist church on Crenshaw Blvd. when Miss Barbara Jeanette Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Smith, 1517 219th St., pledged her marriage vows with Larry Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Carter, 3424 W. 187th St., Torrance.

The double ring ceremony at which Rev. M. Wells officiated was solemnized before the altar decorated with crystal vases holding pink carnations.

The bride wore a pink nylon street length dress fashioned on princess lines. With this she wore a shell hat made of pink rose petals. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Miss Judy Pal was her only attendant. She wore aqua blue velvet made with a full skirt and boat neckline. She, too, wore an orchid corsage.

Perry Carter, brother of the bridegroom was the best man and ushers were Ronnie Jadwin and Robert Kelly.

During the ceremony Mrs. Bea Stewart at the piano played traditional wedding music and Gloria Cooper sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

After the ceremony an all-pink reception was held in the church parlors. The bride's table was covered with pink and at each corner were bows of pink tulle tied with bride's bouquets. Centering the table was a huge pink tiered wedding cake and pink punch was served from a crystal bowl. A French flower cart was filled with pink open face sandwiches.

The couple are making their home at 2830 W. 247th St., Lomita. The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school in 1954. Mr. Carter attended Torrance High school and is now employed by a lumber firm in Wilmington.

Y-Wives Swim

Y-Wives activities last week included a very invigorating dance and exercise class under the direction of Miss Ann Douglas, professional choreographer with the South Bay Opera Company, and other groups. Hostesses at the coffee break were Mesdames Robert Drendel and Muriel Jolin.

Friday, March 11, the Y-Wives will meet at the YWCA in Long Beach for two hours of swimming fun and instruction. Child care will be provided.

THE SWEETHEARTS OF TORRANCE HIGH... who were selected by popular vote by students of the local high school to reign at the first annual "Sweetheart" dance staged Saturday evening at the Civic Auditorium. The "Sweethearts" are Jim Donnette and Pat Rogan. The dance was sponsored by the high school band under the leadership of John Baumann. Manuel Burgara's band provided dance music.

Nuptial Plans For June 4 Announced

Miss Una Mae Brunskill, whose wedding to Richard Naulty will be an outstanding social event of June 4, has announced the members of her bridal party. Serving as her matron of honor will be her sister, Mrs. Robert Rice.

Chosen as bridesmaids are Mrs. Dorothy Trope and Misses Shirley Eglar, Carol Goshaw and Rachel McDonald. Miss Pamela Webber will serve as junior bridesmaid and Cynthia Webber will be the flower girl.

Miss Brunskill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Brunskill, of 27092 Palos Verdes Dr. East. She was graduated from the Narbonne High School and is now in her senior year at USC, where she is majoring in sociology. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

Mr. Naulty is the son of Mrs. Kate Naulty, of 25007 Cypress St., Lomita. He was also graduated from Narbonne High School. He received his degree in business administration from UCLA last June and is now employed by a lumber firm in Wilmington.

SLUMBER PARTY NOTES BIRTHDAY

Diane St. Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. St. Martin, 1425 Beech Ave., celebrated her fourteenth birthday with a spaghetti dinner and slumber party.

The dinner was served in the spacious playroom after which the girls played several games. Breakfast was served the following morning.

Diane's guests were Janet Sanders, Bonnie Fletcher, Sharon Blaksley, Barbara Robinson, Beverly Stepp, Nancy Gibson, and Judy Brightenfel.

NEEDLEWORK UNITS MEET

Needlework Guild of America has scheduled the following meetings for the month of March. Guild 1 will meet tomorrow at noon at the home of Mrs. Lee Kendall, 503 Calle Mayor at 12 o'clock. No. 2 will meet March 30 at 8 p.m.; No. 3 March 24 at 8 p.m.; No. 4 March 13 at 1 p.m.; and No. 5 March 30 at 1 p.m.

This group, which sews for the needy, is open to membership. Those interested are asked to contact Mrs. Myrl Parrick on Calle Mayor.

Club Studies Lighting for Seaside Area

Seaside Hi-Liters met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lee Shanks to hear information on street lighting for the Seaside area. John Wilts, lighting consultant for the Southern California Edison Co., was a guest speaker and discussed the various phases of street lighting pointing out that the ornamental lighting would cost $30 per lot while the plain lights on wooden poles would cost property owners nothing.

Members decided to circulate a petition to all residents of Seaside Heights to determine what kind of lighting to secure.

An interesting visitor to the club was Mrs. Pamela Grubb, who displayed an array of casual, luncheon and cocktail hats made at her school. Mrs. T. McMichael and Mrs. W. Rehwoldt, students of Mrs. Grubb, acted as models.

Dainty tea sandwiches and cookies were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

Bill Woodbine of Sun Valley spent the week-end here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Benstead at their Beech Ave. home. The visitor and Mr. Benstead had attended school together in Redondo Beach as youngsters. This was their first time together in almost 30 years.

SCHOOL FRIENDS

Bill Woodbine of Sun Valley spent the week-end here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Benstead at their Beech Ave. home. The visitor and Mr. Benstead had attended school together in Redondo Beach as youngsters. This was their first time together in almost 30 years.

Club Studies Lighting for Seaside Area

Seaside Hi-Liters met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lee Shanks to hear information on street lighting for the Seaside area. John Wilts, lighting consultant for the Southern California Edison Co., was a guest speaker and discussed the various phases of street lighting pointing out that the ornamental lighting would cost $30 per lot while the plain lights on wooden poles would cost property owners nothing.

Members decided to circulate a petition to all residents of Seaside Heights to determine what kind of lighting to secure.

An interesting visitor to the club was Mrs. Pamela Grubb, who displayed an array of casual, luncheon and cocktail hats made at her school. Mrs. T. McMichael and Mrs. W. Rehwoldt, students of Mrs. Grubb, acted as models.

Dainty tea sandwiches and cookies were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

Club Studies Lighting for Seaside Area

Seaside Hi-Liters met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Lee Shanks to hear information on street lighting for the Seaside area. John Wilts, lighting consultant for the Southern California Edison Co., was a guest speaker and discussed the various phases of street lighting pointing out that the ornamental lighting would cost $30 per lot while the plain lights on wooden poles would cost property owners nothing.

Members decided to circulate a petition to all residents of Seaside Heights to determine what kind of lighting to secure.

An interesting visitor to the club was Mrs. Pamela Grubb, who displayed an array of casual, luncheon and cocktail hats made at her school. Mrs. T. McMichael and Mrs. W. Rehwoldt, students of Mrs. Grubb, acted as models.

Dainty tea sandwiches and cookies were served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

STUDYING FLOWER ARRANGEMENTS... to be entered in the International Flower Show to be staged at Hollywood Park beginning tomorrow and continuing through March 20 are members of the Torrance Terrace Garden Club. The club will enter the show as well as several individuals. Pictured are from left, Mrs. A. R. Fiorelli, Mrs. John Ericson, Mrs. Victor Benstead, club president and Mrs. Parke Montague.