

Three Clubs to Stage Spring Dance Saturday

Spring will be the theme Saturday evening when the three local dance clubs, Triple T, Sobada, and Los Fiesta-dores entertain with a semi-formal dance at the Inglewood Country Club. This is the first time the clubs have entertained jointly. The lobby of the club will be elaborately decorated with jonquils, lilacs, violets, flowering peach boughs and snapdragons. A receiving line composed of committees from each club will greet the guests. Three tables, representing each club, will be presided over by the club presidents. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Derouin, Sobada; Dr. and Mrs. M. Bauman, Triple T; and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Norris, Los Fiesta-dores.

LETTER CARRIER ASSN. TO MEET

Auxiliary of Torrance Branch National Assn. Letter Carriers will hold its next meeting at the Lee Maddux home, 4634 Sepulveda, March 18 at 8 p.m. Election of officers and choosing of projects for the year will be the main business. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Jane Murray of the Los Angeles Branch. Several unique mixture dances have been planned. Frank James and his orchestra will provide the music. Serving on the decorating committee are Mrs. Frank Cavanaugh, Mrs. James Stavert and Mrs. Charles Woodcock.

SKATING PARTY NOTES BIRTHDAY

Marilyn DeVore celebrated her eighth birthday with members of her Brownie Troop 236 and several other friends at the Roller Dome on Sunday afternoon.

Skating was enjoyed after which ice cream was served with a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

Brownies helping Marilyn celebrate were Carole Woodman, Candis Wolen, Karen Cleaver, Kathie Donahue, Geri Price, Cynthia Wentz, Sharon Hopner, Jane Strohm, Patricia Montague, Sandy Crabtree, Anna Beth Blount, Diana Huggins, Judy Clutter, Susan Smart, Judy Dorsett, and Karen McGuire.

Others at the party were Terry Miller of Long Beach, Marceta and Timmy Moreland of Alondra Park, Diana Giles of Van Nuys, Helen McVica, Linda Walker, Paula Smith and Patty Woodman.

Entertain Friends at Cocktails

Preceding the dance given by the Torrance Garden and Plaza Homeowners Saturday evening at Alan Richard Hall, the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelley, 926 Felbar, and Dr. and Mrs. Alan Pyatt, 804 Cerise Ave., were thrown open to a large number of guests for cocktails.

Dr. and Mrs. Pyatt's guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Paul Harestad, Robert Kelsey, Kenneth Eldridge, Lloyd Monroe, Clair Johnson and Jack Perry.

Ken Perkins and his orchestra provided the music for dancing and Homer Schooley catered for the affair.

Hospital Unit Hears Speaker

Mrs. F. S. Haynes, member of the Institute of Family Relations and also a member of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, was the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting of the auxiliary at a Walteria restaurant Wednesday.

She spoke on "Human Relations" and was presented by Mrs. Melvin Howard, program chairman.

During a business meeting, the nominating committee for new officers was appointed. Serving will be Mrs. R. Bingham, chairman; Mrs. Jim Post, Mrs. F. S. Haynes, and Mrs. John Beeman. They will give their report at the next meeting.

A rummage sale to be held April 1 and 2 at 1041 Sartori was also planned.

New members introduced were Mrs. Frank Paour, Mrs. Ralph McNeil and Mrs. Robert Sleeth.

District Officer is Guest Here

Mary Sandifer, nineteenth district president, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Tuesday evening at the American Legion Hall on Border Ave.

A complete program for all chairmen and activities were outlined. Appointed to serve on the nominating committee were Ella Robinson, Merle Youngkin and Olivia Lee.

It was also announced that the national president of the American Legion will appear April 13 at a luncheon meeting at the Biltmore Bowl.

Past presidents of the Legion Auxiliary will be entertained at the home of Olivia Lee, March 28. Corlisa Reene will be the co-hostess.

During a social hour refreshments were served by Ethel Sears and Emma Roberts.

BAKE SALE

A bake sale under the sponsorship of the September Guild of the Nativity A.M. Society will be held Saturday morning from 9 until 12 in front of 1319 Sartori. Mrs. Andrew Janasik is chairman of the affair. Those wishing to donate to the sale and unable to bring their baked goods are asked to call Mrs. Janasik.

WHAT'S NEW IN SPRING BONNETS . . . will be the treat in store for members of the Torrance Woman's Club when they meet March 30 for luncheon at 12:30. The hat class sponsored by the club will be in charge of the day's program and will show an apron line of Easter bonnets. To further carry out the bonnet idea, the hat class is working on miniature creations for decorations. Shown busy at designing are, from left, Mmes. H. L. Mitchell, John Oursler, Ray Rogers and Victor Benard.

HOME FROM TREK THROUGH SOUTH

Mrs. Grace F. Finchley, of 1633 Coia Ave., medical record librarian at the Torrance Memorial Hospital, has returned from a delightful month's vacation. She and Mrs. Elsie Penice of Anaheim drove to New Orleans to attend the Mardi Gras. From there they went to Florida and flew to Havana in time for the Mardi Gras activities there. Their trip then included a drive up the east coast of Florida to Daytona Beach and to St. Augustine, where they spent several days sightseeing before returning to California.
