

Bridge Party Becomes Surprise Shower to Fete Mrs. Jean Asher

By SONNIE TOMCHAK
FR 5-6662

Jean Asher was pleasantly surprised last Wednesday evening when she arrived at the home of Jeanne Pope, at 4609 Green Meadows Ave., for what she believed to be an evening of bridge. She discovered that many of her friends had assembled, the occasion being a baby shower in honor of three-week-old Donna Marie.

Guests were Norma Jean Telfer, Jo Ann Ranzovich, Sue Austin, Joann Doudna, Janet Robinson, Barbara Weaver, Sonnie Tomchak, Agnes Rogers, Janice Lee, Nevin Postlerling, Mazie Werley and Janet Smith.

After the presents were opened and pictures had been taken the guests were served angel pie and coffee. Each of the girls received a tiny pink diaper to pin on her dress in honor of the event. The main prize was won by Sue Austin.

The Bob Werleys, of 4926 Pacific Coast Hwy., are the owners of five puppies, five weeks of age, presented to them by their dog, Honey. The dogs are of small, short-haired variety all female. Three are blond and two have black and white markings. The Werleys are interested in seeing them get a good home. If you'd like a nice cuddly pup, for free, give a ring to FR 5-8419.

Janice and Ray Lee, of 4432 Green Meadows Ave., have as a visitor in their home, Janice's mother, Mrs. Genevieve W. Shaffer of London Bridge, Va. Mr. Shaffer arrived March 6 for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCabe, of Newton St., are the parents of a new baby boy, Michael Stephen was the name selected for the baby who arrived at San Pedro hospital on Feb. 10 and weighed 8 lbs., 6 ozs.

Mrs. Myrtle Lynn of Panquitch, Utah, arrived last Tuesday to visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Banaszynski, of 4632 Green Meadows Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Nelson, of 4408 Newton St., held a buffet dinner party for their neighbors last week end. Guests were Messrs and Mrs. Mick Hudson, Sam Wolf, Neil Bagley, Ken Jackson, Pat O'Leary, Ray Smith and Jim McCabe. The main course consisted of ham and potato salad with various relishes.

Residents are being asked to cooperate in the single fund raising drive of the year for the Campfire Girls and Bluebirds who live in this area. The girls will be selling candy mints from door to door starting March 18 for one week. The Bluebirds in this area are headed by Mrs. Phyllis Wells, and Mrs. Janet Robinson while the Campfire Girls have as an advisor, Mrs. Jean Chipaldi.

Charles Hackbusch of 4520 Pacific Coast Hwy., was elected president of the Hampton Players at their meeting last Monday, held at El Retiro Park. Hackbusch has had the leading part in several of the Hampton Players' presentations. He took office immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. Hackbusch took several of their neighbors in this area to see the closing performance of "The Country Girl," the last Hampton Players production and following the play, they were all guests of the cast at a cast party at La Verita Inn in Palos Verdes. At the party, gifts were presented to Bob Farnsworth, director of the play, and to Bill Jackson the set designer. Accompanying the Hackbusches were Mrs. Jean Bowman, Mrs. Dorothy Frey, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Rogers. Following presentation of the gifts, the party goes enjoyed dancing and a buffet dinner.

BANDIT TAKES $60 FROM LIQUOR STORE

A man who said he "needed money bad," forced him to hand over $60 from the cash register at the Keystone Liquor Store, 21923 S. Main St. Alex T. Wysocki, told sheriff's deputies early Saturday morning.

By holding what appeared to be a gun in his pocket, Wysocki said, the 30 or 35-year-old man forced him to hand over the money and then forced him in to the back room. The man drove away in a late model black station wagon, Wysocki said.

The Theatrical one-act plays are on their way. The three plays selected by Mrs. Rosemary DeCamp and Von Hershey are already filled with casts, and ready to begin on the production. Mrs. DeCamp and Mr. Hershey have made three wonderful choices in Bud Pool's, "With Joy Comes Light"; in Jeff Carr's, "Pick Up and Cut Out"; and in "Perfect 36," written by Tom Quaggin. These plays will be presented to the Student Body on April 22.

Saturday night at the YWCA, the Marquettes gave a candle-light installation for their new officers. The ceremony was very nice and the out-going officers were presented with a beautiful corsage. After the installation, delicious refreshments were served. Darlene Wolverton, Diana Berry, Karen Hester, Joan Jernigan, Chickie Davenport and Jerry Rusk went to Jerry's home for a slumber party.

Another slumber party was given Saturday night at the home of Dana Cecil. Carolyn Mallo, Judi Ried, Judy Wright, Judy Stout, Jan Desmond, Joan Lesaris, Cynthia Easley, Mary Lou Sass, Sally Speck, Sally Moore, Helen Haney, Mary Baskovich, Judy Frazier, Dee Gibson and Pat Flanagan helped Diana and the neighborhood spend a very sleep a very sleepless night.

It is certain that no one has forgotten the wonderful call presented to us by Centennial High School not long ago. Saturday night, everyone had an opportunity once again to see and hear their terrific band and singer. The Torrance Youth Co-ordinating Council sponsored a dance, featuring this band, at the Civic Auditorium. All proceeds from the dance will go to the youth center, that the Co-ordinating Council is forming.

Marylou Sass was really surprised last Friday night when Joan Lesaris and Judy Wright blindfolded her and drove her all around Torrance. The terrible ride ended up at Judi Ried's home, where Marylou, not yet recovered from the first shock, was again surprised. At Judi's home were many dogs, sandwiches, cokes and cake. After the party some of the girls stayed for a slumber party. They were, Gloria Farnie, Donna Haynes, Rosalee and Pat Berry, June and Jean. Everyone had a terrific evening.

This past week has certainly been a hard one on the cavities. Tuesday the Coquettes had a very successful pop-corn ball sale, while Wednesday and Thursday, the Tri-Hi-Y peddled their delicious candied apples.

The Demoselles is the name of the new Y-Teen group, consisting of Sophomore girls. The charter members, who are Mari Ann Parker, Linda Hinds, Ronnie Lemaster, Midge Simmons, Gloria Bush, Judy Clark, Julie Carcerano, Marilyn Moss, Linda Wicker, Violet Popovich, and Georgia Sandford have already chosen their officers. The president of this new club is Pat Hogan; vice president and historian is Diane Trimiew; secretary-treasurer is Sandy Gaw, and Connie Kulp is chaplain.

Saturday morning all Tri-Hi-Y members were caught unaware with a come-as-you-are breakfast. The sleepy girls were served pancakes and orange juice, but the fact that they were still sleepy did not keep them from really stowing away the food.

An invitation birthday party was given Saturday night for Jean Zilliox, Bobby Hanks, and Ronnie Steigal. The party was given at the home of Jean and June Zilliox, where their many guests were served hot dogs, sandwiches, cokes and cake. After the party some of the girls stayed for a slumber party. They were, Gloria Farnie, Donna Haynes, Rosalee and Pat Berry, June and Jean. Everyone had a terrific evening.
