The Hollywood Riviera art jury, meeting last Monday evening at the home of chairman Laurence C. Wing, 516 Via Monte de Oro, approved six single family residences. It was the bi-monthly meeting of the group, which includes Max Van Tine, William Morgan and Wing.

The approved plans were submitted by J. A. Dennis, Guy Edgcomb and son, A. H. Noeth, 343 Via El Chico, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Thomas, Paseo de Gracia, and two by Ralph Rocca, one at 401 Calle de Aragon and the other at 349 Calle Mayor.

Next meeting of the art jury will be Monday April 11. Cynthia Easley, 234 Camino del Campo, was one of 23 local students named by the Bank of America as winners of their Achievement Awards. They were named by the committees of teachers and principals in each of their schools.

Miss Easley won the award in mathematics. This is the first step in the ultimate selection of 60 top senior students in the southland. They will divide $17,000 among them, with 500 gold cups and 1500 achievement award certificates going to the other contestants.

Brownie troop 37, under the leadership of Mmes. Al Koester and Lanar Bonnette, visited the Ingleside Chinchilla farm on March 16. Mrs. Koester reported this week. Girls that made the trip included Linda Blair, Carol Bonnette, Georgia Carmichael, Shearon Gibbs, Linda Hayes, Susan Herrick, Nancy Kelly, Karen Koester, Peggy McElroy, Gerry Sue Paul and Anna Schwartz.

NEW NEIGHBOR DEPT: And a cheery welcome to Mr. and Mrs. James D. Archer, who moved into their new home at 319 Calle de Anafalucia recently. The Archer's moved here from their former home in Hermosa Beach. The family includes two children, Patrick Keven, 7 months, and Diane, 14 years. Mr. Archer is a tool and die man at Hughes Aircraft.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burk, of 5104 Zalon Rd., started to collect old and broken and discarded toys and re-build and re-paint these toys for giving to unfortunate children at Christmas time.

Persons with old toys can call the Burks at FR 5-4549 and arrange to drop the toys off.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Oberst, 175 Via Los Miradores, entertained an out-of-town guest recently. Spending a week with them was Donald Hanes, 19, a friend of the family who hails from Buffalo, N.Y. This was his first trip to California.

to California and their first visit with grandchildren Johnny 3, and Patty, 1.

While on the coast, the elder Broughtons took a side trip up to Seattle to visit their other son and his family. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Broughton.

Broughton's young son Johnny 3, celebrated his birthday with a party in the patio at his home. With the theme of cowboys and the wild West, the luncheon party featured wholesome three-year-old goodies of hamburgers, cake and milk. Tiny cowboys and Indians stood atop the birthday cake, and the guests received favors of little Indians, marbles and balloons.

Guests included Karen and Arthur Weller, Maureen McDonald, Davis Baxter, Barbara Brockett, Ricky Reese, Jackie Chambers, and the celebrant. An additional surprise birthday present was given to young Johnny on his birthday. One of their Siamese cats presented him with a litter of five kittens. These plus the five born of another pet Siamese cat just a week ago, makes a total of ten young Siamese babies at the Broughtons.

The Great Books group which meets at the Walteria Park Library, just off Pacific Coast Hwy., invites everyone who wants to read good books and join in discussions. They point out that they have just finished touring with "Gulliver's Travels," and are ready to delve into the works of Pascal. On their agenda for the near future are Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn," and selections from "The Iliad" and "The Odyssey." Next meeting will be on April 5 at 8 p. m. at the Walteria Park Library.

The Junior Riviera Bicycle Club of upper Riviera met at the Riviera school grounds on Saturday March 19 to take obstacle course tests and practice stopping procedures.

Four new children joined the group including Nancy Barger, Gordo Matute, Tom Borman and Bill Rudisill.

Winners in the girls' division of the obstacle races were Melody Mabin (group 1), Lynn Bowman (group 2), Jean Dalnaskus (group 3) Winners in the boys' division were Donald Hopper (group 1), Tom Borman (group 2), Bill Rudisill (group 3). Assisting Mrs. John Dowling (Riviera club Bike Club Chairman was Mrs. Arlis Wyatt. The upper Riviera Club meets on the third Saturday of each month, while the lower Riviera group meets on the 1st Saturday of each month.

Las Vecinas Women's Club holds its March 31 meeting at 1 p. m. at the Redondo Beach Women's Clubhouse.

Mrs. Lloyd M. Hennen, program chairman, announces that in keeping with the Easter season, the principal speaker will be Dr. Fred M. Judson, Minister of Trinity Baptist Church in Santa Monica. Dr. Judson is well known for his food-for-thought messages, cleverly interspersed with wit and humor.

His subject will be "It's a Wonderful Life."

Lower Riviera Junior Bicycle Club will meet Saturday, April 2nd at 11 a. m. at El Retiro Park Recreation building. A film titled "Bicycle safety," from Southern California Auto Club will be shown.

William Peathers of the Safety Department of Southern California Auto Club has been invited to speak.

After the film, a bicycle inspection and correct riding form tests will be held.

Mrs. R. C. Herrick, Riviera PTA, Safety Chairman, and Mrs. John Dowling, Riviera PTA, Bicycle Club Chairman, will be in charge.

All Riviera children are invited to see the film.
