

Nurse, Parents Work with Boy With Eyelid Caught in Zipper

by SONNIE TOMCHAK
FR 5-6662

Add to your list of unique accidents the one that happened to Dennis Carrol, 6, of 4508 Green Meadows Ave., last week. Dennis was in school and Mrs. D. E. Carrol received a phone call from the school nurse with the news that the little boy, in pulling his jacket over his head, had managed to catch his eyelid in the zipper.

The nurse was unable to separate the zipper from the skin and was afraid damage to the eye might result from increased pressure. Carrol, who happened to be home at the time, rushed to the school and, after cutting the jacket apart was able to extricate the injured eyelid. Dennis sported a beautiful "shiner" for a few days but otherwise had no bad effects.

A group of local residents made the trip to downtown L.A. last week end for a real Italian dinner at the famous Little Joe's Restaurant. The spaghetti and meatball fanciers were Janet and Robbie Robinson, Agnes and Roland Rogers, Nevin and Johnny Fosterling, Janet and Ray Smith, Sonnie and Joe Tomchak, Jeanne and Frank Pope, and Jean and Blayne Asher.

New neighbors are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Teller, of 4833 Green Meadows Ave., who moved in last week from Southgate. Teller is an engineer with Northrop Aviation. They have a five-year-old son.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grosch, 4720 Green Meadows Ave. held a card party Saturday, with Joyce and Marvin Kent, Rosalie and Bill Davis and Bill Ash were holding the cards. Sandwiches and coffee were served during the evening.

Mrs. Tracy Mounts, of 4809 Green Meadows Ave., had a home products party in her home on March 25. Her guests were Murial O'Melia, Ruth Williams, Edith Mandlish, Virginia Bullington, Rita Liechty, May Mackelroy, Peggy Everett, Ethel Harris and Clark Wuilke. Mrs. Mounts served chocolate cake with walnut fudge icing and coffee following the demonstration.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mackelroy, of 4818 Green Meadows Ave., are moving to Philadelphia sometime around May 11. Mackelroy works for Bectal Engineering and is being transferred to the eastern city for one year. The Mackelroys will rent their home while away.

A baby shower for Jackie Hedges was held last Thursday evening at the home of Betty Shaw, of 24014 Janet Lane. Guests were Nancy Rosier, Jackie Huston, Carlene Overby, Frances Murphy, Lee Dandrich, Jeanette Domingas and Barbara Pennington. The hostess served lemon chiffon pie and coffee following the opening of the gifts.

Mark Cory, five-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith, of Green Meadows Ave., was taken to the hospital several weeks ago for observation after his mother, Janet, noticed that he was running a fever and that the frontal or soft spot on his head was bulging outward. The baby stayed in the hospital for several days and then was returned home in good condition. The attending doctor diagnosed the symptoms as being caused by too much vitamin A in the baby's diet.

Mrs. Margurite Wilson, of 24008 Janet Lane, held a jewelry party on Thursday, March 24. Present were Betty Shaw, Nancy Rosier, Maud Burkley, Lucille Schenk, Kay Jewell, Helen Kirkbride, Marilyn Gettart and Mrs. Gettart Sr. who is visiting her son and daughter-in-law from her home in New York. Helen Hackbusch was the demonstrator of the gleaming accessories. The hostess served home made cheese cake and coffee.

Speaking of Mrs. Wilson, she's just about ready to get rid of the family dog by fair means or foul. Last week was the last straw to her way of thinking. The dog just doesn't seem to care for children, at least not the Wilson children except as a tasty morsel.

Robin, 4, was his first victim. She was bitten around Christmas and shortly thereafter the

Brother of Walteria Killed While Prospecting for Uranium

Another visit from old man Stork has been paid to a Walteria family. Little John Herbert came on March 11 to join the Herbert Johnson family on Danaha St. Putting in his appearance at the Torrance Memorial Hospital, he weighed seven pounds, 10 ounces. He joins sister Laura in the family home.

Six members of our community attended the recent conference held for Methodist Youth on March 17 and 18, in Ventura. They were MYF members Dale Williams, Morreen Gordon, Shirley Hinesley, Bobby Jo, Colleen Gordon and their leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Anderson. The most inspiring part of the gathering was on Saturday night following the banquet, when 275 teen-agers took communion. Speaking of MYF, the local group is planning its installation of officers for this coming Sunday, April 3. The installation will be held beginning at 7:30 p.m. and will be open to any parents or friends who wish to attend. Mrs. Jean Cramer will install the new officers.

Moving into a new home on Crickelwood are the Nate Gordons of Newton St. Right now they are up to their ears in paint buckets and what have you, getting their home all shining bright and new before they move in.

Tragedy has come to two Walteria families during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Johnson of Crickelwood, suffered the loss of Mr. Johnson's brother, when he was killed in a plane crash while searching for uranium. He was a resident of Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Rampley of Ward St., were bereaved this last week with the death of their sister-in-law who lived in Monrovia.

Meeting at the home of Mrs. Ruth Meyer, of Las Cadona, this last week, were seventeen members and four guests of the Dorcas Circle. Devotional was led by Mrs. Gloria Rose, while dog bit David, 10. Last week he got around to Penny, 12, the last of the children. All three children had to have shots following the tasting. Maybe now that he has tried them all he will settle for dog food in the future.

The program was presented by Jean Cramer. The guests for the evening included Mmes Phyllis Darley, Jane Peacock, Melba Woods and Gertrude Jackson. Betty Williams was co-hostess for the evening and served pineapple squares and ice cream to add to the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Gloria DeCaro's home on Danaha St., was the meeting place for 18 members and three visitors, when the Martha Circle held its meeting on last Tuesday evening, March 22. Mrs. Edna Cunningham of Palos Verdes was co-hostess, serving luscious burnt sugar cake and coffee. Received into membership were three women including Marion Booth, Dorothy Bailey, and Lucerne Schureman.

This seems to have been birthday party week in Walteria. The youngest member of our community celebrating her birthday with a party was little Susan Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stephens, of Newton St. Susan reached the ripe old age of three, so five of her little friends came in to help her celebrate. Enjoying the party were Robert Eakins, Stephen Farris, Linda Carter, Bucky Carter and Leslie Huntigutt. The kiddies all had ice cream and cake, wore fancy hats, and had poppers and balloons to play with. The afternoon was a huge success when they all went down to the Walteria Park and rode on the concessions there.

Speaking of the Stephens, they are planning a week's trip to San Francisco beginning this Friday. They plan to stay in the northern city over Easter Sunday and return on the following Monday. While gone they will visit with Mr. Stephens' mother.

Mrs. Louisa Stephens, who lives in San Francisco.

Another birthday party was held in celebration of a sixth birthday. This party was given for Jeff Wiley of Crickelwood St., on March 19. Twelve of his buddies dropped in to wish him a very happy birthday and to stay for games, ice cream and cake. Balloons and kites really made the afternoon one to be remembered by the celebrating boys.

Another birthday party was held this last Saturday, March 26, at the Danaha St. home of Tony Merrill. Tony was celebrating his sixth birthday too. The party was given on a cowboy theme, with the host dressed as a cowboy, and the cake decorated with cowboys. Joining in wishing Tony a happy birthday were brother, Hank Merrill, and Johnny Sohner, Johnny Gall, Nicky DeCaro, Bruce Richardson, John Vosper, Jimmy Nanery, and Billy Mitchell.

Don't forget that the next meeting of the Pacific Hills Home Owners Assn. will be held on April 10, at the recreation hall.
