

Mosley's Entertain Student's Foster Parents at Bar-B-Cue

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4138

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Mosley of Ward St., who have recently been appointed chairman of the Torrance committee of the American Field Service International Scholarship Program, entertained a group of foster parents of foreign exchange students at a delicious barbecue in the patio of their home. Those enjoying the juicy spare ribs and all the trimmings, including fresh peach ice cream, were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graef and daughter Nancy of Hollywood Rivington, who were parents last year. The Frank Lanes of Torrance who are looking forward to the arrival of a student girl from Spain, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stoeckle, who are expecting a boy student from Holland were also present. Mr. and Mrs. John Melville who will be foster parents to a boy from Germany this coming year were unable to attend. Mrs. Carl Lippincott, whose son, Larry, is now in Berlin, Germany, on his scholarship program, was interested in meeting with the people who are foster parents to students in this country. Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Schwab, who were chairman of the scholarship program last year, along with Mr. and Mrs. Grover Vandeventer who are local home placement chairmen, also gathered round the table. Other friends enjoying the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thomson and daughter, Lynn Ann, Roy Snow, and Miss Joan Bounds. The Mosleys were foster parents last year to a German exchange student, Max Willis. Max, who became well known during his year of activities in the Torrance area, is now back in Germany, having sailed from New York on the 22nd after a three-week tour of the United States.

Approximately 210 attended the very successful Father and Son banquet held for the Pacific Coast Little League. Meeting at the Whitrow Cafe's new banquet room, the group enjoyed a delicious fried chicken dinner. Mr. Harry Kissel made the group more than happy by announcing that the Kissel Field land can be used again by the league in the year 1955. Speaker of the evening was Frank Kelleher who is with the Ojai Youth Foundation. Since Kelleher built up a wonderful reputation as a ball player with the Hollywood Stars, the boys got a glimpse of the real baseball story. Arland Charter acted as master of ceremonies for the evening. In the absence of the president of the Pacific Coast Little League board of directors, Al Marzelli, the vice president, Don Whitney, accepted the gavel. A summary of this year's activities was presented by Bill Brooks. Altogether, the evening was greatly enjoyed by the whole group, who agreed that the spirit shown this year by the fathers and sons was a great vote in favor of the Little League.

Very proud new parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Kramer of Winlock Rd. Seems Father Stork left them a brand new baby girl on Saturday, July 9. She was born at the St. Mary's hospital in Long Beach, and tipped the scales at a healthy 7 lbs. 6 ozs. The new little miss will answer to the name of Terri Ellen. She joins sister Julia Ann, age 4, and brother Scotty, age 2 1/2 in the family home. Also welcoming her are proud grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kramer of Long Beach.

The local general W.S.C.S. held its meeting at the Methodist Church on Newton St. on Tuesday evening, July 19. About 30 women were present to hear the inspirational devotional and program led by Mrs. Gene Gehres. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Charles Beck. Mrs. Edna Cunningham and Mrs. Joyce Fuller were co-hostesses for the evening, serving cookies and coffee. The next project for the women will be a pie bake sale held by the Owl Drugstore on Hawthorne Blvd. this coming Saturday.

A more than pleasant surprise was in store for Percy Bennett when the Walteria Business Men's club gave a dinner in his honor at the Whitrow cafe on Thursday, July 21. Bennett has recently been appointed assistant police chief in Torrance. He gave a brief resume of the growth of Torrance since 1924. Approximately 45 members of the club were present to see the presentation of gold-trimmed marble desk set in recognition of the many years of service given the city by Bennett. Presentation was made by Mr. J. A. Beasley, member of the planning commission. Vic Benstead, member of the city council was also present for the evening. All the men more than enjoyed a wonderful prime-rib meal.

Paul Kettering of Neece Ave. has almost completely recovered from a tonsillectomy which he underwent at the Torrance Memorial Hospital. Although he could think of many things more pleasant to do during the summer holidays, he is glad to get the experience over.

Mrs. Carol McFarland of Danaha St. was feted at a stork shower last Thursday, July 21, at the Newton St. home of Mrs. Jan Ellis. Co-hostess for the affair was Mrs. Sylvia Fitzpatrick of Danaha St. Carol was recipient of many gifts as the guests gathered around the table to "oh" and "ah" over the items as the colorful paper wrappings were removed. Mrs. Jean Cramer led the group in some amusing and clever games, making the afternoon more than enjoyable. A lovely white cake daintily decorated as a baby saque in pink and white was served with punch and coffee, while dainty pink nut cups shaped as miniature booties added a colorful touch. Among those attending to wish Carol the best of luck in the coming event were Mrs. Wanda Cornell, Mrs. John Chaudano, Mrs. Jean Cramer, Mrs. Mae Ramplsey, Mrs. Gloria DeCaro, Mrs. Joyce Williams, Mrs. Gloria Rose, Mrs. Maevine Allen, Mrs. Betty Mitchell, Mrs. Claire Gall, Mrs. Angie Cooper, Mrs. Opal Simon, Mrs. Bessie Dysert, Mrs. Gerrie Bowen and Mrs. O. E. Allison made the trip from their home in Ojai to add their congratulations to those of the other guests.

South Bay Art Group Sponsors Exhibit Soon

South Bay Community Arts Association will launch its art exhibition "Aquariana" Aug. 17 at Marineland, Dale Sexton, coordinating chairman of the exhibit, announced this week.

"Aquariana" is designed to bring paintings or artists in the Los Angeles and the South Bay area to the attention of the public.

The Aug. 17 preview reception will find the auditorium and main lobby of Marineland transformed into two art galleries.

A $2 donation fee will include admission to the galleries, plus a tour of the oceanarium.

Judges for the event include Kenneth Ross, Municipal Art Department, City of Los Angeles; Helen Wurdemann, LA Art Association; and Lorser Feitelson, instructor at the Art Center School. Donald P. Goodall, head of the Art Department at USC, is an alternate.

Prizes include $300 for first place in oil painting, and $150 for top place in water colors. Additional awards will be announced later, Sexton said. Artists wishing to submit paintings may contact the following concerns: King's Art, 837 Sepulveda, El Segundo; Colonial Art, 125 Hermosa, Hermosa; Hickson's Gallery, Manhattan; Waldock's Art Studio, Pacific Coast Highway, Redondo; and Brugger's Storage, 2110 W. 20th, Los Angeles.
