American Field Service Unit Installs New Officers for the Coming Season

New officers of the Torrance chapter of the American Field Service International Scholarships were installed at a pot luck supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Van Deventer, 2203 Carson Ave., on Aug. 17. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Mosley, 23846 Ward St., Walteria, with whom Max Wills, student from Germany, made his home last year, were installed as new chairmen.

Other new officers are Mr. Mrs. Clark Harris, corresponding secretaries; Mr. and Mrs. B. Moon, recording secretaries; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Nash, home placement; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graef, ways and means; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Turner, treasurers; and Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Lippincott, publicity.

Last year's officers, who will serve in the capacity of advisory board this year, are: Mr. and Mrs. M. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sears, Mr. and Mrs. S. Popovich, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Van Deventer, Mr. and Mrs. W. Key, Mr. and Mrs. S. Rauss. The purpose of American Field Service is to create better understanding and friendship among the people of the world. The Torrance chapter has won acclaim from national headquarters in New York for its outstanding work. The group, a non-profit organization, brings teen-age foreign students to this country for a year of high school and places them in homes in the vicinity. Also our students are sent to foreign countries to become familiar with other people and other schools.

Besides Max Wills, from Germany, the service brought Lena Malmstrom, from Sweden, to this area to attend Torrance High School last year. She made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graef.

A reception is being planned for the new foreign students who will arrive in time to enroll at Torrance High School. The reception will be held in September. Arno Mehling has already arrived to enroll at Torrance High School. At present, he is vacationing with Mr. and Mrs. John Melville, at their summer home in Catalina, and will make his home with them at 1512 El Prado, during the coming year.

Expected to arrive soon is Gloria Montesinas, 16 years old. She will also attend Torrance High School, and will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lane, at 1581 El Prado.

Adriaan Willemssen, of the Hague, Holland, is the third foreign student who will be here for the winter. He is also 15 years old, and will attend North Torrance High School. He will take up residence with Mr. and Mrs. F. Stoeckle, at 2812 W. 175th St., Torrance, for the school term.
