

MISS JANE QUINLIVAN
... Early Fall Bride

Jane Quinlivan Will Wed Willard Irwin on Sept. 17

Mr. and Mrs. Don Quinlivan, 23227 Robert Rd. are formally announcing the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Willard E. Irwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Irwin of 1408 Engracia Ave., Torrance. The wedding will be solemnized at 9 p.m. Sept. 17 at the Wayfarer's Chapel in Palos Verdes.

Miss Quinlivan was graduated from the Torrance High school in 1953 and has attended the University of Southern California working on a major in commerce. She plans to continue her studies at the University of Georgia.

Mr. Irwin, now serving with the United States Army at Augusta, Georgia is also a Torrance High school graduate. He attended SC for three years, also as a commerce major, before entering the service.

Following their wedding the couple will go to Augusta to make their home, while Mr. Irwin serves for another year with the army.

Barbara Larned Recites Vows with G. McCormick At St. Anselm's Church

In an afternoon ceremony at 2, on Aug. 20, in St. Anselm's Catholic Church, in Los Angeles, Miss Barbara Elaine Larned, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Larned, 3736 174th St., Torrance, exchanged wedding vows and rings with Gary Franklin McCormick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. McCormick, 1829 W. 90th St., Los Angeles.

Baskets of white gladioli and lilies interspersed with candles marked the place of ceremony where the Rev. T. E. Killen officiated.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a white lace and tulle full length gown made with a lace bodice, V neckline and four tiers of tulle formed the skirt. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap and she carried a Colonial bouquet of carnations and stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

Her sister, Miss Louise Larned, was the maid of honor, wearing a pale orchid lace gown trimmed with tulle and carrying a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Miss Omega Tarpley in pale blue lace and carrying pink carnations and Mrs. Ida Pendleton in pale yellow lace and carrying orchid carnations were the bridesmaids.

During the vow recitation, "Ave Maria" was played by the church organist.

Mr. McCormick chose Jack Penleton as best man and ushers were Jim Cole and Alan Anderson. Miss Karen Larned was in charge of the guest book.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple are at home at 629 S. Catalina Redondo.

The bride was a member of the Torrance High School graduating class in 1954. She is now attending El Camino College. The bridegroom is a Washington High School graduate and attended Los Angeles City College.

Party Fetes Carla Gay

Carla Gay Whittum was a surprise honoree at a birthday party celebrating her sixth year last Wednesday afternoon on the lawn of her home. Her mother, Mrs. Roy Whittum, of 2112 Lomita Blvd., asked each of the eight guests to bring their favorite doll. Mrs. Whittum fashioned paper hats in colors chosen by the guests which they wore and a paper hat for each dollie.

Games were played and party favors were miniature plastic purses filled with chocolate money wrapped in gold colored paper.

Birthday cake and sherbet were served to Carla Mince, Patty Fujii, Robin Yamanoto, Cathy Bryant, Carol Armstrong, Diana Osborne, Marilyn Hand and Peggy Ferguson.

Hospital Auxiliary Maps Plans for Coming Season

Their meeting schedule and plans for the coming year's activities were mapped at a business meeting and patio luncheon given for the board of the auxiliary of the Torrance Hospital last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Eugene Cook, 2703 Arlington Ave.

Mrs. Cook, president, conducted the business meeting, following the serving of a luncheon at tables in the patio. The first event of their year will be a fashion show to be held at their next meeting, Sept. 13, at the Hacienda Hotel in San Pedro. Modeling will be done by auxiliary members and fashions will be provided by a local shop.

Preliminary plans were also outlined for a tea to greet new members. This is scheduled for the latter part of September.

Attending Wednesday's meeting with Mrs. Cook were Mrs. James K. Lees, Mrs. Melvin Howard, Mrs. Paul Winn, Mrs. Frederick Evans, Mrs. Don Hyde, and Mrs. Ralph McNeil. Board members unable to attend were Mrs. Gerald Eastham and Mrs. Lawrence Green.

Welcome Tea, Style Show To Begin Year At Perry

A Welcome Tea and a Mrs. PTA fashion parade will open the season of activities for the Perry School PTA, Wednesday, Sept. 7, from 2 until 4 p.m.

The affair is being held on the lawn of the school amid the setting of new classrooms. It will honor all new people and welcome back all old friends of the Perry School district.

To invite all new people to become a part of the PTA, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, chairman in charge of the tea, Mrs. R. F. Dohner, president, Mrs. Carl Swanson, new PTA mother, will preside at the tea table and the entire executive board will serve as hostesses.

John Strom and William Forrest, new principal and vice principal at Perry, will be among those greeting people of the community.

The program is featuring a "Mrs. PTA" contest and fashion parade. The idea being used is a satire on the "Miss Universe" contest. By way of introduction each executive board member will be attired depicting the office she holds for the year.

The qualifications are based on the talents and originality in depicting the office. Commemtary will be done by Mrs. Kenneth McVey.

Contestants entered are: Mrs. R. F. Dohner, president; Mrs. T. R. Jackson, vice president; Mrs. R. E. Nelson, secretary; Mrs. Frances Fox, auditor; Mrs. E. VACATION AT COLORADO RANCH

Mr. and Mrs. Almond B. Cockerill, 384 Paseo de Gracia, accompanied by their daughter, Robin and her girlhood friend, Miss Gail Morrill of San Jose, have returned from a three weeks vacation in Colorado. They were guests at the Four Bar Ranch at Carbonade. High light of their trip was their visit to the Opera Workshop at Aspen. They also visited Central City, historic mining town and many places of interest on the western slope of the Rockies.

Miss Cockerill will enter her freshman year at Redlands University this month.

HOUSEGUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clink, 1451 E. Prado, have been entertaining a number of houseguests during the past two weeks. Leaving last Monday for Denver after a week-end visit here was their nephew, Eugene Perkins, of Honolulu.

Here for several days last week were their niece and family. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brady and daughter, Luana, of Cleveland, Okla. They went from here to Tucson where Luana was enrolled for her freshman year at Tucson University.

Y-Wives Study Art

The world takes on new perspective for participants in the current Y-Wives water color and drawing class. At the last meeting, Janet Shedd instructed the women in composition, and a still life floral arrangement was executed in water colors according to the individual taste.

This class will meet again tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson, and meets alternate Tuesdays.

The widespread need felt for exercise of beneficial nature for women is being filled every other Tuesday at the popular ballet, modern dance, and exercise class conducted by Miss Anne Douglas for the Y-Wives. After the class Sept. 13, a hat exchange sale will be held. Members and friends in the community are invited to bring any hat they wish to enter in the exchange sale.

Those interested in participating in these activities in the YWCA may call Mrs. Warren T. Randall, president of Y-Wives, or the YWCA, for further information. Child care is available.

AT SEQUOIA

Returning early Monday morning from a two weeks stay at Lodge Pole Camp in Sequoia were Rev. and Mrs. Freeman Brunson and children, Ronald, Robert and Nancy. Upon their return, they found kitchen gifts which had been presented to them at a shower while they were away.

Other visitors this week at the Sequoia Camp are Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Foster and daughter Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Saunders and Leonard Saunders as well as Mr. and Mrs. Duane Foster and two daughters.
