

Planning to attend the dance at the Palladium this evening being given by the Hollywood Junior Chamber of Commerce honoring National Junior Chamber of Commerce president, Hugh McKenna, are five couples from the Torrance Juniors and Jayettes: Messrs. and Mrs. Fred Hansen, Jack Smith, John Mangan, Bob Curry and Phil Lisman.

the SOCIAL World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

Six

TORRANCE HERALD

OCT. 10, 1955

ASSUMING EXECUTIVE POSITIONS . . . with the Kappa Chapter of the Delphian Society, national cultural and educational organization, are, from left, Mrs. Walter G. Smith, secretary; Mrs. Don Quinlivan, seminar chairman; Mrs. Lloyd Jones, president; Mrs. Warren Hamilton, vice president; and Mrs. J. M. Stuart, treasurer. The year old group has chosen for its topic for the year's study "Political Patterns." Mrs. Walter Smith is serving as seminar chairman.

(Herald Photo) Mrs. J. M. Stuart, treasurer, Mrs. Warren Hamilton, vice president, Mrs. Walter G. Smith, secretary, Mrs. Don Quinlivan, seminar chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Jones, president.

Delphian Society Begins Year With Election of Officers and Study Plans

New officers of the Kappa Chapter of Delphian Society for the coming year were elected at its first meeting of the season, held at the home of Mrs. Warren Hamilton. Elected to take over the executive duties of the organization were Mrs. Lloyd Jones, president; Mrs. Warren Hamilton, vice president; Mrs. J. M. Stuart, treasurer; Mrs. Walter G. Smith, secretary. Mrs. D. J. Quinlivan will serve as seminar chairman, assisted by Mrs. S. J. Patten and Mrs. James N. Hawkins.

The group organized a year ago began its second seminar year Wednesday. Topic for the year's study will be "Political Patterns." Last Wednesday's sub-topic was "The Citizen and the Community" with Mrs. Walter G. Smith serving as seminar leader. Participating in the program were Mrs. J. S. Dresser, Mrs. D. J. Quinlivan, Mrs. Allen Pycatt, Mrs. Warren Hamilton and Mrs. J. M. Stuart.

The group, a branch of the National Delphian Society has approximately 20 members and meets in the lecture room of the Torrance library. On Thursday, Oct. 13, the local members will join other Delphian groups from over the southland for a fashion show and luncheon at the Beverly Hilton Hotel. Don Loper, famous designer, will show his fall collection, and Mrs. Ben Alexander of the Dragnet program, will speak on "Television and Radio as an Educational Media." Those from Torrance planning to attend the affair are: Mmes. Milford Bauman, R. E. Beecher, P. W. Cockrell, H. M. Davis, James N. Hawkins, Lloyd Jones, Robert MacNicol, W. D. McReynolds, S. J. Patten, A. L.

Pycatt, D. J. Quinlivan, Walter G. Smith, Fred Sullivan, Jr., and W. F. Toombs.

Soroptimists Will Attend Region Meet

Plans were made to attend the District 1 Pacific Region, Soroptimist International Association, American Federation of Soroptimist clubs to be held in Santa Maria Oct. 21, 22, at the regular luncheon meeting of the Torrance Cardona Soroptimist club. Eddie Walthers, president, will represent the club. Winona Ellis, and Margaret Neff will be delegates and Margaret Herrin and Lavelle McMillan will attend as member guest.

Eddie Walthers, presiding at the meeting announced the resignation of Enda Salhus from the local club and the issuance of a transfer to the Bellflower club. Mrs. Salhus, social security field representative has been transferred to Bellflower. The door prize in the private ways and means project staged by Dr. Virginia Tyler and Ruth Smith, was won by Eddie Walthers.

Serra Mothers Will Stage Fall Fashion Show Oct. 12

Entertainment for the forthcoming fashion show, sponsored by Junipero Serra Mother's Club will be provided by Joyce Loeffler and Deanna Rozas, accordionists, and Mickey Little and Janice Dale singing and dancing specialists. Mickey Little is currently being seen in Universal-International, "The Private War of Major Benson." The style event will be held Oct. 12, at 8 p.m. at St. Anthony's Hall, 1035 West 163 St., Gardena, California.

Members and teenagers, who will model fall fashions are Mmes. E. R. Heath, A. A. Gonzales, R. Schulte, L. W. Bouse, R. J. Thornton, J. L. Von Arx, J. L. Essner, and Misses Mary O'Brien, Margaret LaBouff, Kathleen Dowd, and Diane Maler. Mrs. R. J. Henely, chairman of the benefit, announced that one of the many prizes awarded will be a suit or coat. Assisting Mrs. Henely are Mmes. Lee Cozani, R. C. Robb, W. Gallamore, N. J. Little, J. W. Lariking, J. Condon and L. W. Bouse. Refreshments will be served.

SANDWICHES AND DOUGHNUTS . . . by the dozen were prepared by members of the Court of St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, to be served to the men of the Armed Forces visiting the USO in Los Angeles last Saturday. The group spent the day at the USO and many of their husbands took the evening shift. Shown preparing the food are, from left, Mrs. Charles Allen, co-chairman; Mrs. Michael McMahon, chairman; Mrs. Frank Weston and Mrs. William Healy.

Omicron Pi Group Opens Rush Season

Fall rushing activities for Omicron Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority are scheduled to begin with an open meeting Wednesday, Oct. 12. Prospective pledges and others interested in the sorority will be invited to attend the meeting at the home of Mrs. J. L. Halsey, 2339 Evans Ct., Lomita, to hear a program on "Her Crowning Glory." Mrs. William Swisher will present the program.

Final plans for rushing events were mapped out at the group's recent regular meeting. Following the open meeting there will be an informal anniversary party on Oct. 29, and a preferential tea on Nov. 6, to which prospective new members will be invited. Winding up the formal rushing will be the initiation of pledges on Nov. 16.

The sorority also voted during its business session to continue its support of the campaign against cystic fibrosis through the coming club year. A specific pledge will be made at a later date.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Frances Goulart, 5131 Sharynne Lane, with the president, Mrs. Swisher, in charge. Attending were Mmes. Swisher, Goulart, Jack Hadley, Donald T. Heaney, William B. Lewis, Gordon Olson and John E. Kirby.

New officers of Omicron Pi chapter who are presiding at this series of events are: Mrs. William Swisher, president; Mrs. Gordon Olson, vice president; Mrs. Frances Goulart, extension officer; Mrs. Donald T. Heaney, recording secretary; Mrs. John Kirby, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Jack Hadley, treasurer.

Local Artists Win Acclaim At Exhibition

Alvin Beller of Lomita and Henry L. Richter of Rolling Hills were winners of cash awards for pictures selected by the San Pedro Art Association for its annual Fall Juried Exhibition of paintings by local artists now on display at the gallery at 820 S. Beacon St. The gallery is open daily, except Tuesday, from 1 until 5 p.m.

First place cash award was won by Alvin Beller for his watercolor, "Desert Oasis." Second place was given Henry L. Richter for his oil painting, "Autumn."

Four paintings by Richter hang in the Torrance High School library. He has been painting for a number of years and at the age of 85, is continuing to paint pictures which are top winners in art exhibits. He and his wife are former art teachers of Drake University at Des Moines, Iowa.

GUESTS ABOARD

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hanover, 5457 Sharynne Lane, had as their week end guests aboard their cruiser "Duchess," Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Hurst. The four spent the week end at Catalina.

'A Day at the USO' Served By Catholic Daughter Unit

Court of St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, were privileged to take their turn at serving the men of the United States Armed Forces at the USO, 807 South Flower St., Los Angeles, last Saturday. Mrs. Michael McMahon served as chairman.

Through the cooperation of court members, 30 dozen sandwiches were prepared together with 30 dozen doughnuts, 30 dozen cookies, coffee cake and sheet cakes. Milk and coffee were served as beverages. Serving as co-chairman with Mrs. McMahon was Mrs. Charles Allen. Participating were Mmes. Harry Hamilton, John McDonald, Jack Dabbs, Regina Cunningham, John Gitschier, F. C. Rick, Andrew Rabel, Joseph Terkmanny, William Healy, John McVey, William Hardesty, Robert Lewellen, William Korcheny. Others were Mmes. T. A. Fichter, Joseph Rubco, A. Deroun, L. O'Hara, P. B. Clayton, Gerald Revell, Paul Hingstgen, Florence Turner, D. R. Cowden, Gerald Loew, Regis Jones, Ann McIntire, J. Terkmanny, V. L. Davies, Tom Moore and J. W. Crew.

Assisting with the evening shift from 6 until 11 p.m. were Lawrence Sargent, William Hardesty, Charles Allen and Michael McMahon.

AT CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmaid, 428 Calle Mayor spent from last Thursday through the week end attending a convention at the Coronado Hotel in Coronado.

Lioness Club Plans Annual Yule Party

Plans for their annual Christmas party were discussed at the meeting of the Lioness Club held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. B. Hickcox, 2417 Torrance Blvd. Mrs. H. J. Osborne, president, conducted the meeting.

Mrs. Pete Radisch was named chairman of the committee for the Christmas party. Serving on the committee with her will be Mmes. Fred Boren, Mott Farrell, Frank Jacobowsky, A. B. McTee, Ruel Moulton, Charles Olson, H. J. Osborne, and A. F. R. Ewalt.

The door prize for the evening was won by Mrs. Ruel Moulton. The Lioness Club will hold its next meeting, a social, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Isbell, 1516 Beech, Oct. 18. Wives of all Lions are invited to attend.

Senior Woman's Club Opens Year With Beautiful Autumn Luncheon

In a colorful autumn setting in their newly redecorated clubhouse at 1422 Engracia, members and guests of the Torrance Woman's Club, wearing their new fall costumes, gathered to open their 1955-56 club year, under the capable direction of their new president, Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, last Wednesday, at noon. Excitement abounded and friendliness permeated the atmosphere as club members greeted each other after the summer recess. At the door to welcome members, guests, and 23 new members, were Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt and Mrs. K. D. Figgins, hospitality chairmen.

Autumn in its fullest glory was accentuated in the table decorations done by Mrs. Dorothy Post and Mrs. Grover Whyte. Tables were centered with baskets of brightly hued gold, brown, bronze and orange chrysanthemums and down the center of the tables were autumn leaves. After the serving of a luncheon, Mrs. Mitchell greeted the guests. She then asked for reports from various chairmen, and the budget for the year was read and approved.

Mrs. M. A. Bauman, membership chairman, introduced the new members, Mmes. C. K. Albright, M. Arnold, William Blakene, George A. Bradford, Freeman Brunson, Bradford Bryan, H. C. Dorin, Lillian Dunhous, J. H. Framing, T. J. McCutcheon, Ralph McNeil, R. F. Moffitt, A. J. Patrosky, C. L. Porter, R. V. Russell, J. M. Thuss, R. J. Trivitt, Charles B. Wiley, Don B. Wolf, Howard A. Wood, M. A. Wright, and Misses Nora Lee Benedict and Edna Cloyd.

Mrs. L. A. McCoy, program chairman, presented her guest artists for the afternoon, Mrs. Joan George, lyric soprano and Mrs. Eva Brundin, pianist.

Mrs. George delighted her audience with selections from musical shows. Although suffering from a cold, she displayed an exceptional talent with her full clear voice and expression. Outstanding among her selections were "Almost Like Being in Love," from "Brigadoon"; "This Is My Beloved," from "Kismet"; the ever-popular "L'Amour Toujours L'Amour," by Friml and "You'll Never Walk Alone," from "Carousel."

Her two encore songs "Grandma," by Sachs; and "Love Story," by Wiley, gave a delightful flavor to her program. During the intermission, Mrs. Brundin, with sensitive touch and mastery, played two numbers "Waltz in E Flat" and "Waltz in E Minor" by Chopin. On Oct. 19, the club will hold a pot luck luncheon at 12:30 p.m. with a business session at 1:30. The speaker for the afternoon will be Colonel C. M. Nelson who will discuss "United Nations."

Philip Jacobs Claims Bride In Wee Kirk o' Heather Rites

Elegant simplicity was denoted in the ceremony at the Wee Kirk o' the Heather in Forest Lawn Park at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 5, when Miss Dorothy Sembrot of Los Angeles became the bride of Philip Theodore Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Jacobs, 4018 Sharynne Lane.

A pair of tall bronze candelabra decorated with ivy and white satin bows decorated the place of ceremony. Dr. Claire Hagen of the Hollywood Presbyterian Church officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John Sembrot. For her wedding she chose a soft pink street length dress and carried a corsage of white roses and stephanotis tied with satin ribbons.

Mrs. Iva Dath of San Francisco served as the matron of honor. She wore a blue afternoon dress and carried a bouquet of pink elf roses with matching ribbons. Gerry Jacobs acted as his brother's best man.

The couple is now spending a two weeks honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and upon their return will be home at 7573 Midfield, Los Angeles.

ETA KAPPA UNIT PLANS EVENTS

Eta Kappa of Torrance met in the home of Mrs. Shirley Phillips Wednesday evening to make plans for the first ways and means project, a Christmas card selling contest held on Thursday Oct. 6 from 7:30 until 10 at the Higgins Brick Yard.

The money raised will be used for the group's philanthropy, the Pacific State and Sawtelle hospitals.

LUNCHEON TODAY

Torrance Past Oracles of the Royal Neighbors will entertain the South Bay Oracles at a luncheon today at noon at the Central Evangelical Church Guild Hall. After the luncheon a business meeting will be conducted by Mrs. Mary Baker. Camps to be represented are Inglewood, San Pedro, Culver City, Ocean Park, Redondo and Torrance.

HOME FROM EUROPE

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Haggott and son, Reese, of 23250 Robert Rd., returned last week from a three and a half month tour of Europe. The trip was made by plane and the family flew from the International Airport to Berlin, their first stop. They then visited all the European countries and Jerusalem.

Linda Barnum, Whose Picture Made the Front Pages of Many Newspapers, is Now 10 Years Old

Linda Dale Barnum, the little girl whose wistful smile and pigtails on her first day of school, have been flashed across the nation as the highlight of a feature in photographs done by Jack Baldwin, former Torrance HERALD Editor, celebrated her tenth birthday last Saturday.

In the famous picture Linda Dale was photographed with her teacher, Sister Rita Ann, at the National Parochial School. Mr. Baldwin's editorial was entitled "Made in USA" and to quote "Let those who would look at the face of this little girl and then let them suggest that the American Way of Life is not the best there is and that there is a better way of life in an 'ism'."

The picture was first featured in the Torrance HERALD, then in the Tidings, Catholic diocesan paper, and even recently, in several papers throughout the United States.

And again on last Saturday, a happy American trait, a birthday party was enjoyed by Linda and her friends. The affair was given at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart G. Barnum, 16802 Wilkie.

Balloons, streamers and flowers decorated the patio and the traditional birthday cake decorated with candles and flowers centered the refreshment table.

With Linda, for the party were: Mary Jo and Carolyn Sue Prange, Carol Marone, Christine Gould, Nancy and Sara Pennington, Kathleen O'Conner, Kathleen Strelch, Shirley Zimble, Mary Ann Davis, Geryn Gordon, Theodore Kolstad, Lupu Garcia, Jerry Price, Penny Swarthout, Shirley Hansen, Sandra Bell, Cheryl Ryan, Jimmie Stockstell, Linda and Terry Huggins.

Mrs. Barnum was assisted in entertaining the youngsters by her other daughter, Carol.

IN NEW HOMES

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Buxton and five children, and Mrs. Buxton's mother, Mrs. Innes Barrie, moved Monday from their home at 5352 Reese Rd., to 237 Via Los Miradores. They exchanged homes with Mrs. Dorothy Sowle and daughter, and Mrs. Sowle's mother, Mrs. Reames, who are now established at 5352 Reese Road.

LINDA BARNUM AND SISTER RITA ANN . . . In Much Publicized Picture

(Herald Photo)