Y-Wives Plan Fashion Show For Nov. 15

Underlying all Y-Wives activities nowadays are plans for the annual fashion show which this year will be held Tuesday morning, Nov. 15th, at the YWCA. Fashions will be presented through the courtesy of a Torrance Shop. Tickets for this major event may be obtained in advance through the YWCA or any Y-Wives member. Mrs. Warren Randall, president of the group, stated,

Tuesday, the Y-Wives exercised and practiced rhythmic dancing under the direction of Miss Anne Douglas, choreographer and instructor. A talk on interior decoration given by Ruth Livingston was then heard by the members. The Y-Wives rejoiced in knowing of the birth of a boy to their recent vice-president, Mrs. Robert Slothower, and her husband.

The next rhythms and exercise class will meet Tuesday morning, 9:30 a.m., Nov. 8. Also a talk on family relations will be given following the coffee time.

Nov. 1, at 9:30 a.m., Y-Wives will meet to make their own Christmas cards. They invite women interested in improving their health and expanding their activities to join them on Tuesday mornings. Child care is available during the class.
