

More than one hundred billion pounds of milk is consumed in the U. S. each year.

About one-third of the world's land area was once covered by forests.

What might have turned into a tragedy was averted Saturday afternoon in Hermosa Beach, when a parking meter held an errant automobile from hitting a Torrance mother and her youngster.

The parked car, headed for the Torrance, smashed into a parking meter and was halted.

Larry Glarum Has 'Creating Cap' Which Helps in Building Models

"Putting on your thinking cap" is an old saying, but a Torrance man has what he calls a "creating cap."

About four years ago, fisherman Larry Glarum, of 4515 Newton St., bought a white cap to take on fishing jaunts. Glarum, an engineering planner at Douglas Aircraft Co. in the Torrance Division found that it kept the sun out of his eyes, but wasn't worth its weight in cloth when it came to helping him catch fish.

He was about to toss it in the nearest water hole when suddenly he discovered that the cap had other powers more valuable to him.

Cap Helps Create
He found that when he donned the cap, he could really dream up good creative ideas. Glarum's creative forte is building things of wood. The more intricate the better. Since he found that the cap had its
