Police Seek Vandals Who Broke New Street Lights with Beebees

By SUE BURK
FR 5-5440

There seems to be a terrifically high concentration of beebees guns and 22's in the area of late; there has been just one too many of the newly-acquired street lights broken by the use of these guns.

Police are now running a close check of the neighborhood and when such items are found they will be impounded by the Torrance Police Department, and parents are held to answer for any damages. As parents we should discontinue the practice of giving beebees guns or 22's to our children for gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Mitchell and family, of Zaken Rd., spent their Thanksgiving Holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Mitchell, of El Segundo. Later on in the evening, the Mitchells visited with Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henden, of Inglewood.

Congratulations and best wishes this week go to Ardenne and Val Pierce, of 5337 Doris Way, who celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary Nov. 8th. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ayer, of Baldwin Park, were guests in the Pierce home for the occasion.

Jackie White, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul White, is in the Magnolia Hospital in Long Beach where she has just recently undergone surgery. Jackie would appreciate a pretty card. Send the card to the Magnolia Hospital in Long Beach and Jackie will receive it.

The Scout Mothers' Club is now busily getting ready for Christmas and their booth on the Christmas tree lot which will be located between Milne and old Sepulveda, on Palos Verdes Blvd.

Baby Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Leonard, of Zaken Rd., has recently undergone surgery for tumor. The little girl is home with the family and recovery has been very fast.

The virus bug is still very active in this area and many, many children are ill. Far too many to mention all the names, so we will just send best wishes to all of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Gansen, of Zaken Rd., spent the Thanksgiving Holiday in Playa Del Rey with their daughter, Josephine.

Items available from the booth which opens on Dec. 10, will be aprons with festive holiday decorations, glittering candles of many shapes and sizes, cookies, earrings, candy (divinity and fudge), greeting cards, ribbon, and gift wrap paper.
