Driving Stolen Car
 Two 14-year-old Torrance boys reported missing two days earlier were picked up for traffic violations in Lomita Wednesday by sheriff's deputies. They admitted stealing the car from San Pedro, deputies said. Deputies chased the pair after seeing them make a U-turn at 245th and Narbonne. The boys were held for speeding.

School Ransacked
 Burglars apparently took only two cigarette lighters after breaking into and ransacking the office at El Nido School 4402 W. 182nd St., Principal Lester Foster told sheriff's deputies Friday. Entrance was gained by breaking the glass in the door, he said.
 driving without lights, going through a stop-light, and other traffic violations, as well as stealing the car.

WALTERIA NEWS NOTES
New Walteria Car Club to Name Officers at Meeting This Week
 By BETTY MITCHELL DA 6-4438
 Something different was enjoyed by Sharon Waegner of Winlock Rd., last Sunday when she and several of her friends got together for a baking party. Spending the day making cookies, plain and fancy, were Paula, Susan, Cathy Brown, and Bonney Farmer, along with their little hostess and both Mrs. Waegner and Mrs. Brown. The Browns finished the afternoon by having dinner at the Waegner home since both of the fathers were on a Scout camping trip.
 Almost 25 boys attended the second meeting of the car club now being organized in this area. Enthusiasm ran high as the group discussed their by-laws and tried to find a name for their club. The club is being sponsored by the Business Men's Club in Walteria and is being organized under the direction of Officer William Mitchell of the Torrance Police Car Club Assn. The third meeting, scheduled for this week, will see the election of officers and final selection of the name. Acting as chairman since the first meeting has been Hal Mal-doon of Sharynne Lane.
 Just a reminder to you readers that the Scouts are selling those 50-cent down payment tickets for Christmas trees in a cooperative effort with the Walteria Business Men's Club to help raise funds to finance the youth building now being established on Madison St. So far the response has been heart-warming, so keep up the good work.
 The Jim Harners of Danah St., have been besieged by misfortune. First little Jimmy had to miss school for almost a week due to illness, then his daddy severely sprained his ankle while at work. Last week, sister Angeline came down with a case of scarlet fever. Glad to hear that all is well now, and we hope they will have smooth sailing through the holidays.
 "Swing yer partner" was the lyric heard last Saturday night when the Couples Club held its monthly meeting. Under the expert calling of Frank Taylor, over 11 couples gaily tripped through square dances. They also sang Christmas carols, and enjoyed delicious sandwiches, doughnuts and apple cider.
 Scout Troop No. 240 had a lot of fun, though a wet time, they went on a camping trip this last week end. Place they chose for this trip was 20 miles past Corona in a beautiful valley. Their pleasure was increased by Virgil Hancock who drove his truck up for the jaunt. Other adults accompanying them were their Scout Master, Bill Read and Robert Waegner, Jack Brown, Maurice Willey, and J. Leo LaPorte.
 Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell had a luscious roast lam dinner at the Sun Valley home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mills last week. Mr. and Mrs. Mills were former residents of our town, and now are turned "city" farmers in Sun Valley. The lamb was a product of their own raising and was a real treat.
 Don't forget that this afternoon, Thursday, Dec. 8, at 2 o'clock the Walteria P.T.A. is holding its meeting at the school. The program is going to be a wonderful experience and an enjoyable one. "Sharing the joys of Christmas" is the theme for the afternoon. Miss Cleve will lead her "Mothers Singers" in singing Christmas songs, and Mrs. Showler and Mrs. Hickson will present their classes in a Mexican Fiesta. Educational interest will be stirred by a discussion by Roderick McDaniel's class on their recent field trip to Edison Company.
 The Business Women's Club will hold its meeting this evening, Dec. 8, at Ed Nickel's ranch on Newton St. This meeting will be their annual Christmas meeting combining dinner and business. Election of officers will be held.
 The toy, gift, and gadget party held last week by Dorcas Circle was attended by approximately 40 ladies who enjoyed a pleasant evening while buying toys and gifts for their Christmas lists. Cup cakes, bonbons, and coffee put a pleasant finish to the evening.
 The Walteria Business Men's Christmas party, which is held annually for the younger set in our town, will be held this year on Dec. 20, at the Walteria Park. Time for the festivities is set at 6:30. Serving as general chairman this year is Robert Waegner, with J. A. Beasley serving as co-chairman. Dale Whann will be Master of Ceremonies. Arranging an interesting program is the program committee of Bill Reist, Virgil Hancock, and "Penny" Penelton. Of course, all the eyes of the little ones will light up over the wonderful Christmas surprises which will be there for each and every one of them.
 That milestone of the eighteenth birthday party was celebrated last Sunday when Kendall R. Baker Jr. was given a birthday dinner at his home on Adolph St. The Kendall Bakers Sr., Byron M. Crowell and family of Gardena, and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gray and family of Torrance all gathered round the laden table filled with a fried chicken dinner and all the trimmings, wishing Kendall a happy birthday and many more over a huge chocolate birthday cake.
 There will be two Christmas Cantatas at the local Methodist church, it was announced this week. The first of the programs will be presented by the Chancel Choir on the evening of Dec. 18.
 Other services and programs in the area include those at the hospital, prison, and other community centers. The Salvation Army will be holding a Christmas party for the needy in the city. The church is also planning a Christmas dinner for the poor. The city is also planning a Christmas tree for the children of the city.
