Our neighborhood rang in the New Year with a gala round of holiday celebrating! It seemed to be the consensus that this was one of our gayest years.

Beginning at 9 and continuing into the new year was the party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Carstenson, of 923 Fonthill.

Several dips, potato chips, hors d'oeuvres, nuts, and cheese whirled about on a lazy susan and were served along with cocktails and appetizers stuck on toothpicks in syrofoam. Their home was decorated with streamers, colorful balloons, favors, and whistles.
 Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Jerry Young, Ray Roberts, Bob A. and Mrs. Neil Vocke, Lee Savage, Web Potts, Bob Foche, Bob Smith, Melvin Sparks, and Tom Burns.

The Lou Dyers, Paul Harstad, and William Boswell, of Onrado, and the Allen Pycatts, of Cerise St., attended a delightful New Year's Eve party held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman.

Guests numbered around 40 and enjoyed cocktails and dancing under the decorations of gay streamers and balloons. A hearty buffet of ham, roast turkey, meatballs, shrimp hors d'oeuvres, cakes, candies, and dips were served to the partiers.

Entertaining at a dinner party and then later at an open house were the A. Armitsteads, of 2759 Onrado.

The holiday dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Licht, of Hawthorne, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilbert, of Hollywood Riviera. Soon after dinner other guests began to arrive to their open house.

Over 20 friends enjoyed refreshments of hors d'oeuvres, dips, and crackers served on lazy susan along with cocktails served from the punch bowl.

Just before midnight the group left and went to the Don Hardin home nearby for a midnight supper of tamales, pie, french fries, and salad. As the clock struck 12, guests popped clever balloons that contained a prediction for the New Year inside.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cappe, of 2880 Eldorado, found that their newly constructed and decorated den came in wonderfully handy for their New Year's Eve guests to dance in.

Parties enjoyed cocktails while nibbling from the buffet table set with baked ham, salad, candies, hors d'oeuvres, dips, and tidbits.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Rod Clark, Jack Kilnzing, Ken Perkin, Sam Davis, Lou Dyer, Joe Peters, C. Sabrowski, B. A. Holcomb, Wayne Trenholm, Les O'Connor, John Hadley, and Wendell Burke.

Just two days late for Christmas, on Dec. 27, Mr. and Mrs. James Woods, of 8033 Opal, welcomed a baby girl into their family.

Born at the Seaside Hospital in Long Beach, Sara Jan weighed in at exactly eight pounds, on the nose. She joins brother Steven, 5, and sister Erica, 3.

Sporting festive party hats and dancing under balloons and other New Year's Eve decorations were the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rankin, of 915 Felbar. The buffet was set with cold cuts, cheese, dips and relishes.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. J. D'Ornellas, Bill McDade, Mike Gontas, Maurice Galyardt, Galen Truesdall, R. L. Hagenbaugh, W. Stromman, and Frank Kelley.

Holding an open house on Christmas Eve were the Maurice Galyardts, of 923 Felbar. Hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and holiday punch were served guests.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Hagenbaugh, Ed Rankin, William McDades, G. Truesdall, Mike Gontas, Frank Kelley and Harley Berning.

The H. M. Burrows, of 2938 Opal, attended a New Year's Eve party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendershot, of Redondo Beach.

A fellow teacher, Hendershot entertained over 20 guests, serving appetizers, and cocktails. After games and much dancing partiers were treated to an elaborate breakfast.

Attending a big party held at the Doug Baldwin home were the Richard Beechers, of 1024 Felbar, and the Bob Wadells.

About 30 guests enjoyed refreshments of baked ham, dips, hors d'oeuvres, and cocktails. The house was gaily decorated in New Year's motif, complete with streamers, horns and festive hats.

In a Christmas Santa Claus theme the guests were entertained at Grant Galyardt's seventh birthday. Refreshments of punch, candies, ice cream, and a Santa Claus cake were served. Each guest received an individual present, and games were played. Those attending were Ricky and Robin Hagenbaugh, JoAnn McDade, Bert D'Ornellas, Marilyn and Chris Berning, and little three year old sister Debbie.

Clever cards portraying a line-drawing Santa Claus with a Christmas decoration tied onto his nose and underneath a caption—"Let's Tit One On!", invited guests to a pre-Christmas party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warner Spurrier.

Decorations were all done in pink and white—from a white Christmas tree, pink decorations, pink angels, and pink and white candles to wall ribbons hung with pink and white stars. Guest were served a buffet of dip, hors d'oeuvres, cakes, candies sandwiches and cookies along with cocktails.

Those attending from our area were Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Kelsey, Jack Kilnzing, Lou Dyer, and Ken Perkin.

Another Christmas party. This time held on the Tuesday after Christmas. Egg nog were served along with hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, holiday candies and cookies, and dips.

Held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Galen Truesdall, of 1005 Felbar, guests included Messrs. and Mrs. Dwain Crowley, Milton Barter, Burt Belzer, Ken Bolter, Rod Miller, Robert Hagenbaugh, Morris Galyardt, Frank Kelley, E. Stromman, Ted Myers, Ed Rankin, and Mrs. McDade.

Another New Year's Eve party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson, of 1122 Fayamith. Christmas decorations added a festive note as guests were served cold cuts, and buffet style supper.

Enjoying dancing and games were Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Coxy, Charles and Robert Wilsons, and Al Sundanas.

Celebrating a traditional Christmas Eve with their family were the Robert Wilsons, of 1004 Fayamith.

Guests around them were the paternal parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Wilson, of Indio; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rose, aunt and uncle from Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Fred Long, grandmother from Indio. Also attending were other members of the local family.

The Pot-Latek Group held their New Year's Eve celebration at the home of John Barington. They served a buffet of chili, potato salad, appetizers and cocktails. The party was held in the patio and it was decorated with streamers and confetti. Each guest received a joke name tag.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. George Paul, Jim Post, Robert Leber, Robert Kober, Werner Summers, and Ken Miller.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pycatt, began their New Year's Eve celebration by dining out. Later they attended a gala party at the home of the Robert Sleeths, of Lomita. Over 25 guests enjoyed the buffet, dips and cocktails at the party.

They spent Christmas Day at a family dinner party held at the home of Mrs. L. S. Garlands of Los Angeles.

Squeezing in three parties on New Year's Eve were the popular Otto Lippold, of 1203 Fonthill. Dropping in briefly at the first two, the couple spent most of the evening at the home of Les Smith, of Gardena.

A buffet of baked ham, dips, potato salad, relishes and cocktails were served. Nearly 40 guests enjoyed dancing with party hats perched atop their heads, under the gala streamers.

A progressive party entertained the neighbors of Kornblum Ave. Going from house to house they enjoyed a buffet of dips, hors d'oeuvres and cocktails. They finally ended at the W. Steinberg home, 1215 Kornblum, and danced in the New Year under gay balloons. Later they had a festive breakfast.

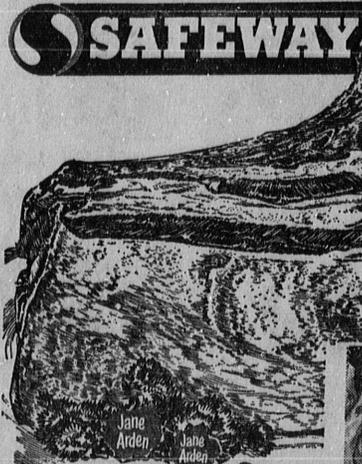

Those attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Bob Kildav, Leonard Kane, Bill Fox, Bill Starr, Tom Thornton, Ed Vang, and Ott Lippold.
