Mary Nadine Hudson

Funeral services were held yesterday at White and Day Mortuary for Mary Nadine Hudson, 43, of 20431 New Hampshire, who died Sunday, in a local hospital.

Interment followed chapel services and was held at Pacific Crest Cemetery.

A native of Missouri, Mrs. Hudson came to California in 1922 and settled with her parents in Hermosa Beach. She is a former member of the Hermosa Woman's Club.

Mrs. Hudson more recently had resided in Torrance and was a member of the Calvary Community Church. Rev. Donald E. Flentje, pastor of the local church, officiated at final rites.

She is survived by her husband, Charles F. Hudson; a son, Wallace M. Hudson, of the Air Force; her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Shrader, of Benicia; a brother, Edward Backers, of Torrance; and five nieces.

Walteria Young People Active

Young people of the Walteria Baptist Church will attend a youth rally in El Monte tomorrow where their sponsor, Larry Ward, will be a speaker and next Sunday evening, the group will take over the evening service presenting Miss Florence Smith of the Sunday School Department, Gospel Light Press, Glendale.

Other activities during the week have included a trumpet performance at last Sunday's services by Dennis Harvey and Jan Stanley, accompanied by Beth Harvey. Mrs. Thomas Britt and Norman Goodrich also sang a duet, "Some Golden Daybreak."

Sunday School pupils next Sunday at the 9:30 services will be taken on a descriptive visit to Navajo Indians in Arizona by Mrs. C. C. Lilly, superintendent of the junior and adult departments, who recently visited the Arizona Indians during a vacation trip.

Ida H. Saba

Mrs. Ida H. Saba, 55, of 2271 Torrance Blvd., died Jan. 10, while visiting at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Joseph Vermeulen, of Corpus Christi, Tex. She also was the mother of Benjamin and John R. Saba, and Mrs. Robert Warner of Hawthorne, and Joseph J. Saba of Torrance.

Her remains were returned here for funeral services which were held Monday at 11 a.m. in the Hawthorne Chapel of the Hardin and Flanagan Mortuary. Rev. Keith McRoberts, pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of Lawndale, officiated. Burial was in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Born in Wisconsin, Mrs. Saba came to California six years ago from Neola, Wis. A widow, she also is survived by another son, Mike Saba of Norwalk, and another daughter, Mrs. Merle Goodsell, of Edwardsburg, Mich. Also surviving are brothers, Edward Malouf, of Appleton, Wis., and Mike Malouf, of Milwaukee. Sixteen grandchildren survive her.

Jaycees Open Search for Mrs. America Applicants

Phil Lisman, president of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, today announced that after due consideration, his group has decided to sponsor the drive to select a suitable candidate for the Mrs. America Contest, who will also be given the title of Mrs. Torrance.

Lisman was emphatic in pointing out that the Mrs. America Contest was not a bathing beauty contest, but a test of homemaking abilities.

Although personality and personal appearance will be considered in the judging, the major emphasis will be given to important house keeping talents.

Application blanks will soon be available at the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, Gas Company office, local supermarkets, gas appliance dealers, and De Soto motor car dealers.

Prizes Valuable
Torrance homemakers married and 21 years old or over, are eligible to enter the 18th annual competition for the national title and more than $15,000 in prizes as well as a share of the some $10,000 in prizes to be awarded to California contestants.

Lisman stated that the Junior Chamber appreciated the chance to glorify the American home maker and added that he was exceptionally pleased that Torrance had been selected as the location of the division finals March 21 in the Torrance Municipal Auditorium, which will be co-sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.
