Lindell, Ex-Yankee Great, to Address Optimist Club Members

Johnny Lindell, former pitcher for the New York Yankees, Pittsburgh Pirates, Philadelphia Phillies, and the Hollywood Stars, will speak to members of the Torrance Optimist Club at their regular dinner meeting here Monday evening. Program Chairman A. C. Turner announced yesterday.

Lindell, a career sportsman, took the position of Sports Director for the 7-Up Foundation upon his retirement from professional baseball. He calls this his "most fortunate break" and the Youth Foundation, in turn, says that having "Big John" on the staff is a fortunate break for thousands of kids in L. A. and Orange counties who will benefit by his many years of experience in sports.

Lindell played in four World Series but considers the high point to be 1947, when he hit 9 for 18, driving in 7 runs. His hero, like that of a lot of other Yankees, is Joe DiMaggio. Joe McCarthy is the greatest manager for whom he ever worked, Lindell states.

Lindell was born in Greeley, Colo., in August, 1916, and moved to California in 1925. At Monrovia High School, he won 15 letters in basketball, football, track, and baseball. He was considered a better football prospect than future baseball star, and Dean Cromwell, famous SC coach, thought of him as a potential Olympic hurdles champion.

Signed With Yankees After six months at SC on a track and football scholarship, he signed with the Yankees as a pitcher. After going to the
