be entered in the regional festival to be held later in the year. Local participants will be (solos) Boy Wyatt, Larry Anderson, Sam Fillon, trumpet; Rozann Wills, flute; Alan Cerlike, French horn; Rod Collins, Mike Henderson, saxophone; Lee Tussing, Ken Purviance, Kent McMichael, drums. Marty Baum will be the director.

Manuscribers Hear Three Speakers at Recent Meet

Three phases of the "Writing to Sell" theme were stressed by speakers at the January meeting of the Southwest Manuscribers. Beth Norman, mistress of ceremonies of the new radio program, "Meet A Celebrity," advised: "If you feel you have a good idea for a television or radio program, keep knocking on doors until you interest a sponsor in your material."

Mr. Clifton feels that a writer should turn out at least 5000 finished words of material each month, preferably much more. Ranonita S. O'Connor announced that she will teach a class in creative writing at Mira Costa High School.

Co-program chairman Polly Booth says that she has a prominent mystery writer lined up as a guest speaker for the February meeting. But following the suspense theme of the next program, she will not reveal his identity until later. The Southwest Manuscribers meet on the third Friday of every month, at 8 p.m. at Clark Stadium, in Hermosa Beach. Both new and professional writers are welcome. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Betty Fuller, secretary, at FRontier 2-0330.
