Lawndale Monday Eves will host the Dec. 10 district conference of the junior membership of the Marina District CFWC at the Mark Twain Elementary School cafeteria, 154th St. and Doty Ave., Lawndale, at 8 p.m.

Reflecting the Christmas spirit, the meeting will be entertained by members of the Manhattan Beach Dolphins and the Torrance Junior Women's club singing Christmas carols.

Job's Daughters Bethel Has 59th Installation

Opening the 59th semi-annual installation of officers of Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, on Saturday evening, Dec. 1, Frank Thompson gave the address of welcome to a capacity crowd of 300 guests at the Masonic Temple.

As Miss Shirley Washburn sang "I'll Walk with God," Miss Susan Babcock, retiring honored queen, was escorted into the bethel to assume her duties of installing officer

St. Lawrence Guilds Will Meet Dec. 11

A meeting to include all guilds of St. Lawrence, Martyr Parish will be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall Dec. 11. The program will include two speakers from St. Jane Francis De Chantel Parish, North Hollywood. Mrs. John Skeehan will speak on "Guilds" and Mrs. John Russell will speak on "Leadership." They will be accompanied here by Father LeHart. The meeting will conclude with a number of harp and vocal selections by Doris Welton and all will join in the singing of Christmas carols.

Mary Ann Ferguson, electrician, all past honored queens of the Bethel and Miss Frances Mackay, musician.

Through a huge glistening star facing the East depicting the theme "Star of Joy," the choir and officers entered. Miss Washburn sang "When You Wish Upon a Star" as Miss Linda Thayne, Honored Queen, stood framed in the beautiful star.

Miss Thayne was then installed as Queen on her throne in the East, flanked by Miss Jeannette Wright, senior princess and Miss Kay Smith, junior princess. Sharon Neely was installed as guide and Mary Margaret Blount, marshal.

Appointive officers installed were: Bonnie Kail and Carole Fowler, custodians; Jackie Lenton and Barbara Alter, guards; Marlene Fulton, recorder; Pat Smith, treasurer; Caroline Janssens, chaplain; Sheila Hogan, musician, Carol Waldrip, librarian, Karen Peterson, Kay Howard, Janalee Bristow, Phyllis Bryson and Kathy Jones, messengers.

NEW MUSIC CLUB MEETS MONDAY

"Hammond Addicts" a recently organized group of organ music lovers will meet Monday evening at 7:30 at 1415 Sepulveda Blvd. Guest artists will be Popping Vila of a Beverly Hills night club, Bill Irwin of an Inglewood club and Walt Preston who will speak on "organ accessories."

Officers of the new club are Vic Chatten, president; Mary Kiwis, vice president and Alice Rouse, secretary-treasurer. The club now has over 60 members from the area. Anyone in the South Bay interested in organ music is invited to attend Monday evening's meeting. "You do not have to own an organ to belong to this group," president Chatten pointed out.

Other appointments were: Susan Babcock, junior activity advisor; Jackie Joy, assistant recorder; Jackie Scherer, assistant musician; Loretta Crogro, page; Georgia Powell, electrician; Laverne Lewis, obligation chairman; Carolyn Lunden, choir director; and Betty Emmal, banner bearer.

The Bethel Choir, composed of 67 girls, was then installed. Members of the Guardian Council assuming the duties of leadership for the Job's Daughters for the coming year are: Mrs. Pearl Thayne, Leonard Babcock, Mrs. Edna Babcock, Mrs. Josephine Orend, Mrs. Helen Alter, Mrs. Guin Waldrip, Mrs. Evelyn Neely, Mrs. Vernice Cochran, Mrs. Elsie Poell, Mrs. Jessie Fowler, and Mrs. Helen Moore.

Ushers were John Sherfey and Gary Botiger. Hostesses were Janet Botiger and Beverly Wypder. The Rev. Hugh Percy gave the benediction.

Scout Adults Plan Annual Cookie Sale

Central Torrance Assn. of Girl Scout Adults met on Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 7:30 p.m. at the Catholic annex.

Mrs. Julia Stamps called the meeting to order with the emphasis on "Cookies." The annual Girl Scout Cookie Sale will be held from Feb. 8-23.

Miss Joan Laugharn, director of the Harbor District, introduced Miss Irene Puhlman, public relations chairman from the Los Angeles council. She gave a report on "Cookies" and also said "Cookies buy Scouting for Girls."

The neighborhood cookie manager is Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom assisted by Meses. Carol Brea, William Marleau, and Ruth Wahl.

The group voted on the delegates to the national convention to be placed on a ballot to go to the representative councils. Fifty-five delegates will attend from Los Angeles.

Girl Scouts and Brownies of the area will sing carols on Dec. 22 at El Prado Park after a procession through the center of town, beginning at 2 p.m. In charge of the event are Meses. E. C. Osterlind and Marleau.

Mrs. W. E. Walton gave a brief report of the regional conference held in Long Beach.

Orientation will be held Jan. 23 and 24 at Wilmington at 7 p.m., at Scott Park, 231 St. and Catskill.

TORRETTES PLAN AGENDA

Y-Teen Torrettes will hold their installation of officers on Dec. 10. All mothers are invited to attend.

Plans for the installation were discussed at a meeting of the group on Nov. 29 at the Y. They are also planning to visit the teenager ward at the hospital during the Christmas holidays. A committee was appointed to find out the hours permitted for such visits.

The group will hold a toy and gadget party at the home of Mrs. V. Bergen.

A Christmas party will also be held at the home of the president and on Feb. 1 a skating party is planned.
