

Fifty Guests Attend Party in Honor of Dale Wickstrom Family

By BETTY MITCHELL, DA 6-4438. Over 50 guests attended an open house held recently in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wickstrom and their children.

The affair was held at the Ocean St. home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beasley with the World Friendship group of girls acting as hostesses. The Wickstroms are former Walteria residents, and were very active as youth counselors here in our community. They now reside in Lomita.

Greeting the guests at the door on the eventful day were Misses Marion Daniels, Collette Holst, and Bonnie Tweed.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Misses Carla Cramer, Priscilla Beasley, and Virginia Marsh. Carolyn Cummings, Wilma Cornell, and Louise Marsh were in charge of the guest book, while games for the younger children were organized by Joy Bebbeling and Carol Hertzig.

Speaking of the World Friendship Group of girls, they are ambitiously working on projects to make Christmas more merry for the small inmates of General Hospital.

They are making small "Ocotopus" figures out of gay colored material remnants and yarn for the little girls, and are planning to send small drawing bags with comb and mirror for the older patients.

Helping the girls with these gifts are Mrs. Earl Downer and Mrs. J. A. Beasley, their leader.

Four local young men left Monday morning to join the U. S. Navy in San Diego. They are Art Laurey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph P. Laurs; John Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jones; Kenneth Paige, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. Paige of Brian St.; and Gary Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Day of Madison St.

Cub Scout Pack 371-C, sponsored by the Torrance S and Gravel Co., are having a busy time this holiday season. The boys will have their family Christmas party at Hillside School tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. All the Cub families are invited with the children exchanging gifts. Girls will bring girl gifts, and the boys boy gifts, and it promises to be fun for all.

The pack recently held their pack meeting for November with the following boys receiving awards:

The Business Men's Club will hold their annual kiddies' Christmas party on Friday, Dec. 21, at the Walteria Park. The program will begin at 7 p.m. This is a party for all the youngsters in the community.

The local Women's Society of Christian Service will hold its general meeting for the month of December on next Tuesday evening at the local Methodist Church on Newton St.

The program will be presented by Martha Circle, with a playlet in biblical costume, "A Woman's Gift" included, under the direction of Mrs. John Chaudano. Dorcas Circle will be hostesses for the evening.

The Walteria PTA will hold its annual Christmas party on Friday, Dec. 21, at the Walteria Park. The program will begin at 7 p.m. This is a party for all the youngsters in the community.

WALTERIA NEWS NOTES

Ricky Crane, Jimmy Templin, Bob Watson, Don Denison, Mike Walters, Ronald Hayelle, Ronny Turner, Bob Gates received his Webelos badge. Den I took charge of the flag ceremony held by the den mother, Mrs. June Beasley. The program was on the theme "Life in Portugal" with each den giving a skit. The hostesses for the evening were the mothers of Den 5, with Mrs. Alfred Kreman as den mother.

This Saturday you will probably hear a knock at your door, since the Cub Scouts of Pack 240-C are going to deliver the mistletoe they collected last week on their annual mistletoe hunt.

Eighteen cars took the boys on the jaunt to a ranch in Saugus, near Newhall where the boys and men went out to gather in the white berries, and the mothers made camp and packed the fruit of the search in bags.

The whole hunt was capped off with steaming bowls of chili which really hit the spot for the chilled and hungry hunters. The cars that went on the trip belonged to Bill Allen, Lloyd Baxley, John Chaudano, Lee Courtney, Robert Cramer, John Crevison, Charles Davis, Walter DeLano, John Gregory, Don Hoberg, R. S. Johnston, Glenn Kirkus, Frank Anderson, Ray McMirror for the with comb and mirror for the older patients.

Helping the girls with these gifts are Mrs. Earl Downer and Mrs. J. A. Beasley, their leader.

"Help! Get a landing net. Get a gaff hook. Get a witness!"

its general meeting (this afternoon, in the school auditorium. The program will begin at 2 p.m. On the schedule for the afternoon is the flag ceremony to be led by Den 3 of Cub Scout Pack 240-C, and a play to be given by the eighth grade class taught by Edward Sheets. Rev. Wendell Hook of the Walteria Community Methodist Church will speak on the Christmas theme.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Bert Pemble, Mrs. M. Nakano, and Mrs. E. Greer.

There has been another recent change on the staff at Walteria School with Clyde Nestlerode leaving following a promotion to the curriculum department of the Torrance School District. Nestlerode is now working in the audio-class room material department. Replacing him on the local staff is Lewis Carrel.

Sympathies are being extended to Mr. Hector Herrera of Newton St. on the recent loss of his sister after an extended illness.

Dinner guests at the Winlock Dr. home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wagner on last Saturday evening were Don Lamers and Ed DePrato. A roast dinner with all the trimmings including home-made pie made the evening most enjoyable.

There is a new member here in Walteria since the John D. Gonzales family of Dana has greeted their fifth child, little William John.

It was born at the Torrance Memorial Hospital. At home he joins sisters and brothers, Adrian, 10; Tommy, 5; Katy, 4; and Johnny, 2. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. Gonzales of Lompoc, and Ben Ayala of Los Angeles.

Welcome home is given this week to Mr. and Mrs. Hector (Skippy) Herrera Jr. They are back in town following Skippy's release from the Navy where he has completed his tour of service.

Carl Cramer of Park St. is recuperating nicely after a recent visit to the Permanente hospital.

"The Night Before Christmas" will be portrayed by the members of the Walteria Methodist Church your choir at 8 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 23. The program will be combined musical by both the youth and chancel choirs of the church with "Cherub" choir processional. Mrs. Robert Cramer is directing the playlet in which about 20 young people will take part. The pantomime will be a musical version of the well known poem.

"Following the playlet the Cherub Choir will form a processional and sing "Away in the Manger," making an inspirational setting for the "All Nations at Christmas" musical to be given by the 20 voices of the Chancel Choir.
