Explosion Added to Excitement Of Holidays Keep Area on Edge

By BILLIE ROBERTSON
FA 8-7385

I sure hope everyone had a very Merry Christmas and has settled down to wait for the new year. We have certainly been having a lot of excitement out here.

First of all, last Wednesday evening we were sitting in the den when all of a sudden a terrible bang sounded. We thought it was only a car back-firing. When my oldest son came home he said that the power lines had exploded on the corner of 223rd and Harvard Blvd. They came out from the power department and left a generator there all night and the next morning they fixed the lines.

Then on Saturday on the corner of 222nd and Harvard a man died of a heart attack. This man was Ward Edgard Bratton, age 45, of 22105 S. Normandie. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Vida Bratton, and a daughter, Marva. Services were held at Stone and Myers Chapel on Tuesday.

Out on the corner of 209th and Denker they had quite a lot of excitement, too. Seems a man and a girl kidnaped and robbed a Torrance oil firm employe of a payroll Friday afternoon and forced him to drive to these streets. There the pair shoved him out and drove off with the $2000.

Private Lester D. Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mathan A. Patton, 21729 S. Figueroa St., graduated recently from the Aviation Fundamentals School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center at Jacksonville, Fla.

The school teaches basic aviation skills such as mathematics, physics, blueprint reading, aircraft repair, flight deck operation and safety precautions. Lester is trying to squeeze as many of the subjects into one day as possible.

A wedding is being planned for the fall of 1957 at St. Margaret Mary's Church in Lomita for a very lovely couple.

Miss Carol Bree, daughter of Mrs. Irene T. Perry, of 1531 W. 218th, announced her engagement to Joseph Sandoval of Los Angeles. The announcement was made at a family gathering.

Recently Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolf of 21804 Halldale Ave.

entertained at a Christmas dinner party for the St. Cecilia's Guild at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

Decorations were in silver and white, with beautiful poinsettias and merry Santa Clauses.

After the dinner an exchange of gifts was held in the living room. A special gift went to Mrs. Roxie Sleeth who is the outgoing president.

Brownie Troop 216 held its Christmas party at the home of Lana Robertson. There were 14 mothers and 25 girls present. The Brownies put on a puppet show all about the "Night Before Christmas." They had made their puppets at their Brownie meetings.

Each of the Brownies presented their mothers with a gift they themselves had made. These gifts were made under the direction of the leader, Carol Bree, and the co-leaders, Jane Snee, Kay Votaw, Ruth Wilde and myself.

After the puppet show some of the girls had special numbers for the mothers. Then an exchange of gifts was made between the girls. Later refreshments were served. A large cake with the wording of "Merry Christmas" to the Brownies was made and presented to the troop which everyone enjoyed.

The Little Church Around the Corner in Inglewood was beautifully decorated with baskets of white stock and pink gladioli when Patricia Davis exchanged wedding vows with Thomas Michael McNanny on Nov. 18.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Williams, 1616 W. 219th St., and D. J. Davis was escorted to the altar by her father who recently arrived for the ceremonies from Oregon.

Her gown, exquisitely designed by the bride, herself, and made by her mother, was fashioned of Chantilly lace over bridal satin. The full gathered lace skirt had ruffles in the back starting at the waistline, and flowing into a chapel length train. The long sleeved fitted bodice was accented by cutouts of lace trimmed in tridescant sequins outlining the circular neck. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of lace over satin and trimmed in seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with a removable orchid corsage.

Mrs. Rosie Deems, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

After a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip McNanny, 11511 S. Menlo Ave., Los Angeles, the couple left for a honeymoon in Palm Springs.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn announced last week that the board of supervisors has taken the first step necessary to provide sanitary sewer service to residents living in the area between Normandie and Electric Sts. between Normandie and Vermont Aves.

Following receipt of a petition signed by the majority of property owners of the area, the board instituted special assessment proceedings and directed the county engineer to prepare the resolution of intention for the project under the 1915 municipal improvement act.

Supervisor Hahn said that present plans call for the sewers to be installed in the east-west alley between Electric and 182nd.
