Woman Flays Officials On Inauguration

Those in charge of the inaugural ceremonies in Washington have been taken to task by an elderly Torrance woman for inviting the Soviet delegation to the party.

Mrs. Beth Page of 1737 Martina recently wrote the arrangements committee inquiring as to who "the bright and brainy individuals" were who have "seen fit to honor these cruel butchers" at the various official functions.

Mrs. Page didn't release the full text of her letter, indicating that it was "too long and too strong" for publication.

TEAC Meeting

 tory of the organization, pointing out that the TEAC had been organized shortly after the school district was formed in 1947. She was the first moderator of the TEAC, and said that all community groups had been invited to send a representative to meetings to give as true a picture of community interest as possible.

Piomert and Morang both paid tribute to the TEAC and said that their groups, industry and labor respectively, were proud to be associated with it.

Film Scheduled Today
 Hospital needs and care will be previewed in the film, "Labor and Childbirth," booked for the expectant mothers' class today at 1 p.m. in the Torrance Health Center, 2300 W. Carson St.

Officers Seek Dog Which Bit Small Boy, 5
 Health authorities are seeking a small black dog which bit five-year-old Douglas Talburt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Talburt, 183 W. 233rd St., last Sunday in front of his home.

Unless the dog can be found by tomorrow, the boy, a kindergartner at 233rd Pl. School, will have to take the painful series of Pasteur rabies shots.

Anyone who has knowledge of the dog should call the Torrance Health Center, FA 8-3130.

In looks...

You'll marvel at Ford's sleek, low, sculptured lines... its big "living room" interiors. You'll marvel even more when you see its price... for it's a real low-priced luxury car.

Fairlane Club Victoria

Nothing at the price compares

Custom Fordor

The reason Ford looks longer than other cars in its field is because it is longer. Customs are over 16 feet and Fairlanes over 17 feet... longer than even some medium-priced cars.

You can forget all your old ideas about low-priced cars when you Action Test the new kind of Ford! For this year—in size, in style, in sizzle, in everything—Ford is way out front. Yet the low Ford price is all you pay!
