

Joan Bounds-Rodney Puckett Recite Marriage Vows Jan. 19

In one of the loveliest weddings of the mid-winter season enhanced by a red and white color scheme, Miss Joan Bounds, of Torrance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bounds of Davis Oklahoma, became the bride of Rodney Puckett, son of Mrs. Florence Richmond, 26309 Governor, Harbor City. The ceremony was solemnized Saturday Jan. 19 at the First Christian Church with the Rev. H. M. Sippel officiating.

Mr. Bounds, who with his wife came to California for the wedding, escorted his daughter to the altar. Her wedding gown had a lace bodice over satin detailed with long sleeves, and tiers of tulle over the satin skirt, which formed a chapel train. The lace applied illusion veil fell from a pearl crown and the bride carried white orchids encircled by white carnations and valley lilies.

Mrs. C. H. Thompson was the matron of honor. She wore a red taffeta gown and a head-piece of red and white braid. She carried a muff of white satin decorated with red and white carnations and showers of ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Joyce Frenzen, Mrs. J. J. Puckett, and Mrs. Gilbert Sanders, Jr. They also wore the bouffant red taffeta gowns and carried white satin muffs and white carnations.

Bill Huntington was best man and ushers were J. J. Puckett, Don Puckett and Charles W. Britton.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Eleanor Hanes organist, accompanied Mrs. Howard Foster who sang "Always" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Hanes played the traditional wedding marches.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in Friendship Hall at the church. Mrs. W. E. Naumann of Tucson, Ariz., served the cake and Mrs. Ethel Bounds of Fort Worth, Texas and Mrs. Jim Ashlock of Torrance presided at the punch bowls. Mrs. Bounds and Mrs. Naumann are aunts of the bride.

The newlyweds are now on a honeymoon in San Diego before establishing a Torrance home.

The bride, who has made her home here with her sis-

Jewish Music To Highlight Jan. 28 Meet

Commemorating January as Jewish Music Month, the Temple Menorah Sisterhood program committee has invited the Western Federation of Temple Sisterhood Songsters under the direction of Mrs. Henry Komer to present an original script "You and Jewish Music." The script was written by Mrs. Komer and will feature Mrs. Henry Snyder, soloist of Temple Emanuel of Beverly Hills. This musical program will be the feature of the Sisterhood's monthly meeting, Monday, Jan. 28, 8:30 p.m. at 112 1/2 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach.

In addition, Uniongram Chairman, Mrs. Arch Ness, announces that on this same evening a "Uniongram Auction and Grab-Bag Party" will be held. Monies go to support the YES (Youth Education and Service) fund of Sisterhood. Plans for the All-Day Purim Bazaar to be run by Sisterhood on Sunday, March 17, will be presented by the Chairman, Mrs. Sam Katz.

Hostesses for the evening are Mmes. Henry Wolfe, Jerry Yablonka, Bernard Weskin and Irving Zlotkin.

New persons in the area desiring to attend the meeting may call Mrs. Al Kurz,
