

Realignment of Streets for Signal Crossing Delights Area

By JACK WEBB
FR 5-3051

Five hundred Riviera families breathed a little easier this week following the disclosure by Bob Jahn's good offices that the State Highway Division is realigning Vista Del Parque with Tullita St. and will create a signal crossing at that point on the Pacific Coast Hwy. It's one step closer to the day that these hundreds of Riviera children will cross the highway safely on their way to and from school.

The state however placed a joker in the deck. This move, say they, necessitates the closing of Paseo de Gracia to west-bound traffic and they will raise an island divider to keep such traffic from flowing on and off the highway.

Groups of other Hollywood Rivierans were this week circulating a petition to protest this joker in the state's deck. Councilman Jahn's home is serving as headquarters for the petitioners and he urges those who wish to protest to contact him or Mrs. Jahn at his home, 440 Via Linda Vista. His office points out that they protest only the closing of Paseo de Gracia and the petitioners are so worded. Jahn reminded this column that indeed he voted and stood firmly for the crossing at Tullita and Vista del Parque. He stands for the crossing still, but protests the joker dealt by the state when they insist on closing Paseo de Gracia. Jahn pointed out that there are several streets leading into the highway that are less than 300 feet apart, and that this point raised by the state seems very vulnerable in view of these other streets.

Residents on Paseo de las Delicias and Vista del Parque seem most adamant at this time to "de Gracia's" closing, fearing that increased traffic along their streets would prove injurious to their property. Other Rivierans point out that there remains eight other streets of ingress and egress to Hollywood Riviera, including principal arteries of Vista del Parque (at the new signal crossing), Paseo de Gracia (west side), Palos Verdes Blvd., Calle Miramar, Calle Mayor and Camino del Campo.

As pointed out by this column two weeks ago, the resolving of this problem will be found. But paramount and most importantly, the resolution must safeguard those hundreds of innocent Riviera children who twice each day take the chance of their young lives when they attempt to cross that concrete ribbon of murder called the Coast Highway. They must have safe crossing and, thank God, that safe crossing is this week closer to reality.

Mrs. Harry Davis, 207 Via Alameda, was hostess for a meeting held yesterday at her home of the South Bay Chapter of the Delta Zeta. Mrs. Philip Downing gave a report on the recent Panhellenic luncheon given at the Plush Horse and Mrs. D. P. Scudder showed a film of her trip to Alaska. Final arrangements were made for those attending the benefit luncheon to be held Feb. 2 at the Beverly Hilton. The group requests all Delta Zetas and former Delta Sigma Epsilons who wish to attend their monthly meetings to contact Mrs. Mitchell Gilbert at FRontier 5-6564.

Welcome home to the Ernest Wellers, 728 Calle de Arboles, who returned to Riviera following a month-long trip east. They report an interesting itinerary, with stops and sightseeing to and from Lexington, Ky., where they visited relatives. Phoenix, Carlsbad, Hot Springs, Ark., New Orleans, and the Alamo at San Antonio were just a few of the cities and sights they enjoyed. Marge even came up with one we never heard of before—Big Ben National Park, Tex. Tells us it's the nation's newest national park, being just eleven years old. It's on the Rio Grande bend, near Alpine, Tex., for those of you who are intrigued by national parks and such.

Plans for a new Sportsmen-sponsored Riviera event were discussed at a meeting of the Sportsmen's Club, held last Wednesday evening at the Redondo American Legion Hall. It will be an Easter Egg Hunt for all Riviera children, to be staged at El Retiro Park. The Sportsmen will not only plan and organize, but will conduct the hunt and provide prizes for the lucky little Rivierans who find the mostest and bestest. Bob Surber, Marvin Kauffman and Ralph Weynant will be in charge of the event.

Sportsman president Jack Doyle also led a discussion on another planned event, a pot-luck dinner planned as another husband-wife joint endeavor. It was pointed out that the New Year's eve progressive party, another husband-wife event, was one of the most successful Sportsmen parties ever held.

Rosemary de Camp, noted Rivieran, attended the meeting to explain the work of the Torrance Memorial Hospital and announce the annual benefit dance to be staged Feb. 9 in Inglewood.

President Doyle appointed John Bell, assisted by Art Dennis to the task of building a brief on the Sportsmen, its organization, aims and good works. Past officers L. L. Bonnette and Surber will assist in an advisory capacity, and the end result will be mailed to every Riviera home as an invitation for the man of the house to join his neighborhood club. Don Mason gave a report on the availability of lots in Riviera on which the Sportsmen will eventually build their own clubhouse. When completed, it will serve as meeting place for Scouts and other neighborhood organizations. After the meeting, films of the Little Rose Bowl were shown and refreshments were served.

Ever hear of a Cuban mix? Only one restaurant we ever knew served them and we frequented the place, for a Cuban Mix is a habit with Dagwood sandwich lovers. It's a french roll, toasted, with ham, salami, swiss cheese, pickles and other lovable tucks inside. Last week we heard on the grapevine that local residents were enjoying them and we hastened to check the source. Imagine our delight when we found Phil and Esther Suarez, our old Cuban Mix builders from downtown L.A. had taken over the Sea Shell Restaurant in Palos Verdes. It didn't take us long to get there. I mean it was swell talking and visiting with them again, as they talked I kept chewing up that Cuban Mix. Welcome to our new neighbors Phil and Esther, who coincident to their Sea Shell venture, have also moved into the peninsula.

Two more West Point appointments for Rivierans have been announced by Cecil King. They are Laurence Stackhouse, 675 Calle Miramar, and Robert Boss, 101 Via El Chico. These are alternate appointments and follow the one announced last week. Congratulations to you both, lads, it's an honor for you and for our Hollywood Riviera.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Soiffer, 215 Calle de Arboles, are entertaining a visitor from the east these days. It is Mrs. Joseph Morrell, of New York, mother of Mrs. Soiffer, who will visit in Riviera for a month before she returns to her home city. Mrs. Soiffer reports her mother arrived in time for son Neil's first birthday party. They have two children, Jo Ann 4, and Neil, 1.

NEW AND OLD NEIGHBOR DEPT.: A hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dowings who recently moved into their new home at 237 Calle Miramar. They are from Brentwood. If the name seems very familiar, maybe it's because you're recalling Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dowings, 626 Calle de Arboles, who have been active Rivierans for many years. They are brothers. Incidentally, the combined Dowings recently celebrated Diane's 11th birthday with a trip to Disneyland. Along to share the fun was Diane's sister, Debbie, 16.

Geraldine Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Parrish, 405 Via Linda Vista, became the bride of James Perkins, of Barstow, on Sunday, Jan. 20 at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo. After a wedding dinner at the Plush Horse, they embarked on a San Francisco honeymoon after which they'll settle in Barstow. Mr. and Mrs. Parrish plan a reception Feb. 10 at the Portuguese Bend Club in the couple's honor. Mrs. Perkins (nee Wood) will be remembered as having taught at Riviera School a few years ago.

The Homeowners Assn. has released a mailing piece to all Riviera homes outlining the organization's set-up, its good works, and current projects. Over the signature of president Max Ogborn, the letter urges all Rivierans to attend the meetings of its Riviera Homeowner Assn. and lend a hand in the community projects of the group. Next meeting is Monday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. at the Riviera School and the group will feature a movie on Torrance prepared by our Chamber of Commerce.
