

Delta Zeta 'Flame Fantasy' Benefit Scheduled Feb. 2

Delta Zetas in the South Bay area are busily making decorations for the "Flame Fantasy" benefit luncheon that will be held in the Beverly Hilton grand ballroom on Saturday, Feb. 2. This luncheon is sponsored by the Southern California Council of Delta Zeta sorority.

The luncheon will be highlighted with the spring showing of styles by Harou and Georgia Bullock. Miss Louise Bookman will comment while Ivan Scott's orchestra plays. The sorority, which has pioneered in aid to diabetic children, will contribute proceeds to the Los Angeles Diabetic Camp for Children and the Uni-betic Camp, sponsored by the Los Angeles Metabolic Clinic.

They will also contribute to their national philanthropy, Galludet, a national college for hard-of-hearing. Television star Gail Patrick, in private life Mrs. Cornwell Jackson, is a Delta Zeta and actively working with the project for diabetic children.

South Bay members planning to attend the luncheon and style show are Mmes. Richard Barrett, P. V. Cooper, Harry Davis, Samuel Donnelly, Philip Downing, Harry Forrester, George Furtado, Mitchell Gilbert, William Haggerty, Lawrence Ivens, Wallis Misner, Elton Wisdom, William Wallner, Fred Williams and Miss Barbara Lempke.

... Crabtree

Nancy Crabtree, in yellow, was the flower girl and Danny Patterson carried the two rings.

Clark Crabtree stood as best man and ushers were Ken Crabtree, Jim Porter, and Charles Young.

Mrs. Joan Edman at the organ accompanied Mrs. Mary Ganer who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held at the church and Betty Walker was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left for a honeymoon at Big Bear before going to San Diego to make their home, where the bridegroom is stationed with the United States Navy.

Mrs. Crabtree was graduated from Torrance High school in June 1956. Mr. Crabtree attended Redondo Union High School before entering the Navy.

MISS NANCY ANN TAYLOR
... Joins Brides-elect

Nancy Taylor Will Become Mrs. J. H. Rowell in June

A late June wedding is being planned by Miss Nancy Ann Taylor, whose engagement and wedding plans are being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Fox, 5464 Sharynne Lane. The future bridegroom is John Haines Rowell of Westchester, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rowell of Cuyama Valley.

The bride-elect is a senior at Torrance High school where she is a member of the Future Teachers club, Art Club, and California Scholarship Federation.

The benedict was graduated from Maricopa High school after which he served four years with the United States Air Force. He was then graduated from the Northrup Aeronautical Institute and is now employed by the Los Angeles Airways at International Airport.

MISS DAISY MAE JACOBSEN
... Makes Wedding Plans

Jacobsen-Sibring Wedding Will Take Place in March

Wedding bells will ring in March for Miss Daisy Mae Jacobsen and Rene Gene Sibring.

The bride-elect, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad J. Jacobsen, 3223 W. 180th St., attended North High School. She is now employed by a research firm.

Mr. Sibring, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Sibring, 2726 Andreo, is also employed by the same firm.

Club Shower

At the January meeting of the Greenhumbers Garden Club, Mrs. William Fitzgerald, past president, and parliamentarian, was presented with a gift from the club for her expected baby. The gift, a buggy, was a complete surprise to Mrs. Fitzgerald.

The games were followed by a refreshment served by the hostess, Mrs. Maude Vulgamott. Mrs. Howard Elliott, past president, came from Burbank to attend. Also in attendance were: Mmes. David Shepard, John Klug, Clarence Barrow, John Knight, John Moss, Earl Hubacek, Eldon Sellmeyer, John Fitzgerald, Louis Wilhelm, George Horton, Paul Kolleck and Al Kosick.

DESSERT-BRIDGE

Mrs. Ted Corazza, 547 Calle Mayor, entertained a group of friends recently. Dessert and coffee was served following the bridge games.

Her guests were Mrs. Ralph Rector, Mrs. John Hearn, and Mrs. John Fincher.

Arzoian-Kalem Vows Are Recited in Jan. 19 Rites

Miss Geraldine Arzoian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Arzoian, 16808 Casimir, exchanged her nuptial vows with George Kalem, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elias Kalemkarian of Altadena in a formal wedding ceremony on Jan. 19 at 8 p.m. at the Gethsemane Congregational Church.

The bride, on the arm of her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of white chantilly lace over tulle and satin. The gown was designed with a short peplum and the full skirt fell into a train. An Elizabethan cap covered with lace and beads, designed by her mother, secured the veil. The bridal bouquet was of white orchids encircled by stephanotis and butterfly orchids.

Miss Joyce Martin served as her cousin's maid of honor. Her gown was of ice blue taffeta trimmed with satin and she carried burgundy cymbidiums.

Miss Dorothy Kalem and Miss Agnes Melidonian wore yellow brocaded taffeta in the roles of bridesmaids. Their headpieces, also designed by the bride's mother, were of pearl and jewels.

Carla Shahbazian in white brocaded taffeta was the flower girl and the rings were carried on a yellow satin heart by Bryan Arzoian.

Bill Barret stood as best man and the Rev. N. Melidonian officiated at the wedding.

Miss Marguerite Minassian at the organ accompanied Art Tookian who sang "At Dawning," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Longren Club Fashion Show

Spring fashions by a local store will be the feature attraction at the regular monthly meeting of the Longren Women's Club tonight at 8 p.m. at the WALTERIA Recreation Center.

All the arrangements for the show will be handled by the club members.

A special invitation to attend has been extended to all the friends of the Longren Women's Club as well as to all the members. Baby sitting will be provided in the recreation center and arrangements for transportation may be made with Mrs. Ed Mobley, 5023 Arvata, or with Mrs. Joe Prenevost, 1010 W. 204th St.

Refreshments will be served.

VANCOUVER GUEST

F. H. Shephard of Vancouver, British Columbia, has arrived for a three weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dresser, 23720 Aline.

Dance Party

Hosts to a group of friends who get together every month, Mr. and Mrs. John Hearn, 544 Calle Mayor, opened their home for an evening of dancing last Saturday.

Dips and drinks were served during the evening and games played to select dancing partners. A late buffet supper was served.

Sharing in the fun were Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Helm, Henry Sarrat, Ronald Montgomery, Gates Colon, John Fincher, Ted Corazza, Ralph Rector, Army Lockwood, Cedric Hoskin, Kenneth Hamby, James White, Dr. and Mrs. Ted Brox, Dr. Al Edinger and Miss Vicky Buchanan.

Next month the group will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rector.

EXTENSIVE TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. William Manfrass, 973 Calle Miramar, have just returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to San Francisco, Denver and Las Vegas. While away, they visited various friends and stayed at the Dunes in Las Vegas. They were gone for a week.

Miniature Rose Art Is Studied

"Bonsai," the art of miniature roses, was the subject of an interesting program by Robert Graham, florist, lecturer and instructor, at the meeting of the Beau Jardin Garden Club at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Moe, 22529 Warmside Ave., with Mrs. L. D. Burt, co-hostess.

The lecturer presented four specimens of the four types of "bonsai" and gave a demonstration of cutting and clipping.

Mrs. Phillip Rice gave a report on the School for Exceptional Children and announced that a rummage and bake sale would be held in March to aid the school. A workshop therapy class is planned for next fall.

Door prizes were a "bonsai" arrangement won by Mrs. Walter Wudke and a "mahonia" won by Mrs. John Beattie.

Present at the meeting were Mmes. William Atkins, John Beattie, John Blair, L. D. Burt, John Carrievau, William Cressy, Donald Drorbaugh, Kenneth Harmon, Leo Hayes, Robert Hill, Kenneth Moe, John Regan, Phillip Rice, George Smith, Earl Welliver, Fred Worgul, Walter Wudke, and Albert Yackie. The guest present was Mrs. Robert Graham.

A special meeting will be held Feb. 6 at the home of Mrs. Donald Drorbaugh, 5520 Palos Verdes Blvd. The next regular meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Harmon, 23217 Warmside Ave., Feb. 13 with Mmes. Kenneth Harmon and John Carrievau as hostesses.

Valentine Dance Feb. 9

"Buttons and Bows" will be the theme of the annual Valentine dance of the Gardena Valley Jewish Center Sisterhood on Saturday, Feb. 9, at 9 p.m. at the Center building, 14725 Gramercy Place, Gardena.

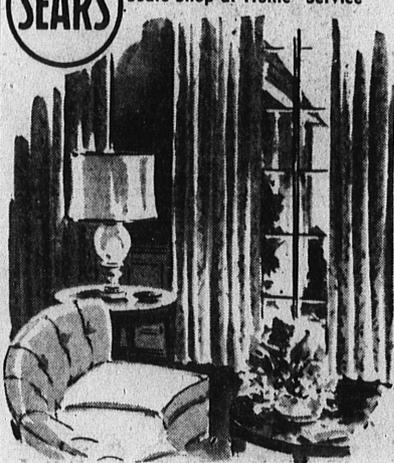

An evening of dancing with refreshments may be had for a nominal donation. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Bernard Farman, 2509 W. 178th St., Torrance.

The hall will be decorated with red and white streamers and various sizes of red hearts will carry out the Valentine theme. The Button and Bow theme is usually carried out in the accessories worn by the guests.

There will be a regular meeting of the Sisterhood at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb. 12 at the Center. An interesting program has been planned for the evening, according to Mrs. Henry Charney, publicity chairman. Refreshments will be served.
