Fay Olson Appearing In Long Beach Theatre Play

Mrs. Fay Olson, 1617 Cota Ave., a resident of Torrance for the past 30 years and mother of three daughters, is currently appearing in the "Parlor Story" which opened last week at the Long Beach Community Playhouse.

Mrs. Olson is playing the governor's wife in this production of special appeal to families. It offers theatregoers a humorous story of one evening in an American home where Charles Burnett, the man of the house, encounters many amusing problems of family life and emerges at the end of the evening as a great man in the eyes of those he loves and respects most — his family.

Mrs. Olson, who studied drama at the Harbor college, also appeared in the Long Beach theatre group's summer production, "I Remember Mama." She is the mother of Mrs. Ann Olson Sciarrotta, local dancing teacher; Mrs. Peggy Tyler, and Mrs. Alice Cunger.

The show will have a six weeks' run on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. Reservations may be made by calling the Playhouse.
